God Justice Love Beauty Four Little Dialogues:

God, Justice, Love, Beauty Jean-Luc Nancy, 2011 Seamlessly moving from Schwarzenegger to Plato and from Kant Roland Barthes and Caravaggio to Caillou Harry Potter and the pages of Gala magazine the author's wide ranging references bear witness to his commitment to think of culture in its broadest sense A model of intellectual generosity and openness this book is a skillful reminder that philosophy is important to all of us The Inconspicuous God Jason W. Alvis, 2018-06-01 Dominique Janicaud once famously critiqued the work of French phenomenologists of the theological turn because their work was built on the seemingly corrupt basis of Heidegger's notion of the inapparent or inconspicuous In this powerful reconsideration and extension of Heidegger's phenomenology of the inconspicuous Jason W Alvis deftly suggests that inconspicuousness characterizes something fully present and active yet quickly overlooked Alvis develops the idea of inconspicuousness through creative appraisals of key concepts of the thinkers of the French theological turn and then employs it to describe the paradoxes of religious experience Emplotting Virtue Brian Treanor, 2014-05-19 A rich hermeneutic account of the way virtue is understood and developed Despite its ancient roots virtue ethics has only recently been fully appreciated as a resource for environmental philosophy Other approaches dominated by utilitarian and duty based appeals for sacrifice and restraint have had little success in changing behavior even to the extent that ecological concerns have been embraced Our actions often do not align with our beliefs Fundamental to virtue ethics is an acknowledgment that neither good ethical rules nor good intentions are effective absent the character required to bring them to fulfillment Brian Treanor builds on recent work on virtue ethics in environmental philosophy finding an important grounding in the narrative theory of philosophers like Paul Ricoeur and Richard Kearney Character and ethical formation Treanor argues are intimately tied to our relationship with the narratives through which we view the human place in the natural world By reframing environmental questions in terms of individual social and environmental narratives about flourishing Emplotting Virtue offers a powerful vision of how we might remake our character so as to live more happily more sustainably and more virtuously in a diverse beautiful wondrous and fragile world The Art of Astonishment Alice Brittan, 2022-02-24 First Place Winner in Non Fiction from the 2023 Next Generation Indie Book Awards Part literary history part personal memoir Alice Brittan's beautifully written The Art of Astonishment explores the rich intellectual religious and philosophical history of the gift and tells the interconnected story of grace where it comes from and what it is believed to accomplish Covering a remarkable range of materials from The Epic of Gilgamesh The Iliad and the tragedies of Classical Greece through the brothers Grimm and Montaigne to C S Lewis Toni Morrison J M Coetzee Elena Ferrante Karl Ove Knausgaard and Jhumpa Lahiri Brittan moves with ease from personal story to myth to theology to literature and analysis examining the nature of social and communal obligation the role of the intellectual in times of crisis and the pleasures of reading In the 21st century we might imagine grace as a striking and refined quality that is pleasurable to encounter but certainly not fundamental to anyone's existence or to the beliefs and practices that hold us together or drive us apart For millennia though it has been recognized as essential to the vitality of inner life as well as to the large scale shifts in perspective and legislation that improve the way we live as a society Grace is also astonishing always as the enormously insightful readings in The Art of Astonishment show Brittan reveals the concept's breadth as sacred and secular ancient and recent lived and literary And in so doing she shows us how the act of reading is like grace social but personal pleasurable and essential

The Priority of the Other Mark Freeman, 2013-11-20 Contemporary psychology as well as our own self understanding remains largely ego centric in focus with the self being seen as the primary source of meaning and value According to Mark Freeman this perspective is belied by much of our experience Working from this basic premise he proposes that we adopt a more ex centric perspective one that affirms the priority of the Other in shaping human experience In doing so he offers nothing less than a radical reorientation of our most basic ways of making sense of the human condition In speaking of the Other Freeman refers not only to other people but also to those non human others for instance nature art God that take us beyond the ego and bring us closer to the world In speaking of the Other's priority he insists that there is much in life that comes before us By thinking and living the priority of the Other we can therefore become better attuned to both the world beyond us and the world within At the heart of Freeman's perspective are two fundamental ideas The first is that the Other is the primary source of meaning inspiration and existential nourishment The second is that it is the primary source of our ethical energies and that being responsive and responsible to the world beyond us is a defining feature of our humanity There is a tragic side to Freeman's story however Enraptured though we may be by the Other we frequently encounter it in a state of distraction and fail to receive the nourishment and inspiration it can provide And responsive and responsible though we may be it is perilously easy to retreat inward to the needy ego The challenge therefore is to break the spell of the ordinary oblivion that characterizes much of everyday life The Priority of the Other can help us rise to the occasion

Sense and Singularity Georges Van Den Abbeele, 2023-11-07 Philosophical thinking is interrupted by the finitude of what cannot be named on the one hand and that within which it is subsumed as one of multiple modes of sense making on the other Sense and Singularity elaborates Jean Luc Nancy's philosophical project as an inquiry into the limits or finitude of philosophy itself where it is interrupted and as a practice of critical intervention where philosophy serves to interrupt otherwise unquestioned ways of thinking Nancy's interruption of philosophy Van Den Abbeele argues reveals the limits of what philosophy is and what it can do its apocalyptic end and its endless renewal its Sisyphean interruption between the bounds of infinitely replicating sense and the conceptual vanishing point that is singularity In examinations of Nancy's foundational rereading of Descartes's cogito as iterative his formal experimentations with the genres of philosophical writing the account of retreat in understanding the political and the interruptive play of sense and singularity in writings on the body sexuality and aesthetics Van Den Abbeele offers a fresh account of one of our major thinkers as well as a provocative inquiry into what philosophy can do

Jean-Luc Nancy and

Plural Thinking Peter Gratton, Marie-Eve Morin, 2012-08-09 Jean Luc Nancy is one of the leading voices in European philosophy of the last thirty years and he has influenced a range of fields including theology aesthetics and political theory This volume offers the widest and most up to date responses to his work oriented by the themes of world finitude and sense with attention also given to his recent project on the deconstruction of Christianity Focusing on Nancy's writings on globalization Christianity the plurality of art forms his materialist ontology as well as a range of contemporary issues an international group of scholars provides not just inventive interpretations of Nancy's work but also essays taking on the most pressing issues of today The collection brings to the fore the originality of his thinking and points to the future of continental philosophy A previously unpublished interview with Nancy concludes the volume Fashion Theory and the Visual Semiotics of the Body Žarko Paić, 2022-07-18 Instead of the logic of representation of fashion in the light of modern society and postmodern culture this book argues that contemporary fashion should be regarded as a performative conceptual turn in the very core of body iconograms The text presents a theoretical perspective of the phenomenon of fashion within fashion theory as establishing a new approach from visual semiotics Through this lens fashion therefore emerges as a visual code of contemporary societies and cultures in the networked matrices of hyperreality and visions of that coming time that will determine the combination of cybernetics fetishism and transgression The Pulse of Sense Marie Chabbert, Nikolaas Deketelaere, 2022-03-30 This volume stages a series of encounters between the French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy and leading scholars of his work along four major themes of Nancy's thought sense experience existence and Christianity In doing so the volume seeks to remind readers that Nancy's sens has many meanings in French aside from those that easily carry over into English i.e. everything to do with meaning and the senses it also includes the way they are conducted the direction they take the thrust or pulse in which the circulation of sense exists Faithful to this plural understanding of sens the writings collected here aim to join Jean Luc Nancy in the process of making sense that animates his thinking rather than to deliver a definitive summary of his position on any given issue They are conceived of as notes along the way documenting encounters as moments of re-direction and recording the pulse of sense that animates them In that spirit Nancy himself has provided each contribution with an echo in which he in turn responds to each author and thereby continues their mutual encounter Aside from these echoes this volume includes an original essay in which Nancy reflects upon the international trajectory of his thinking a trajectory that is to be and undoubtedly will be continued in many different directions across and around the world The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Thinking About Love Diane Enns, Antonio Calcagno, 2015-11-10 Does love command an ineffability that remains inaccessible to the philosopher Thinking About Love considers the nature and experience of love through the writing of well known Continental philosophers such as Hannah Arendt Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Derrida and Maurice Merleau-Ponty Evolving forms of social organization rapid developments in the field of psychology and novel variations on relationships demand new approaches to and ways of talking about love Rather than offering prescriptive claims this volume explores how one might think about the concept philosophically without attempting to resolve or alleviate its ambiguities paradoxes and limitations The essays focus on the contradictions and limits of love manifested in such phenomena as trust abuse grief death violence politics and desire An erudite examination of the many facets of love this book fills a lacuna in the philosophy of this richly complicated topic Along with the editors the contributors are Sophie Bourgault John Caruana Christina M Gschwandtner Marguerite La Caze Alphonso Lingis Christian Lotz Todd May Dawne McCance Dorothea Olkowski Felix Murchadha Fiona Utley and M lanie Walton

The Logic of Innovation Johanna Gibson, 2016-03-03 The Logic of Innovation examines not merely the supposed problem of the efficacy and relevance of intellectual property and the nature of innovation and creativity in a digital environment but also the very circumstances of that inquiry itself Social life has itself become a sphere of production but how might that be understood within the cultural and structural transformation of creativity innovation and property Through a highly original interlocutory and therapeutic approach to the issues in play the author addresses the concepts of innovation and the digital by means of an investigation through literature and the imagination of new scenarios for language business and legal reform The book undertakes a complex inquiry into innovation and property through the wonder of Alice s journeys in Wonderland and through the Looking glass The author presents a new theory of familiar production to account for the kinship that has emerged in both informal and commercial modes of innovation and foregrounds the value of use as crucial to the articulation of intellectual property within contemporary models of production and commercialization in the digital

Expectation Jean-Luc Nancy, 2021-05-20 A courtship between philosophy and literature that has never been presented with such wit grace and finesse from one of France s leading thinkers Jean Michel Rabat from the Introduction Expectation is a major volume of Jean Luc Nancy s writings on literature written across three decades but for the most part previously unavailable in English More substantial than literary criticism these essays collectively negotiate literature s relation to philosophy Nancy pursues such questions as literature s claims to truth the status of narrative the relation of poetry and prose and the unity of a book or of a text and he addresses a number of major European writers including Dante Sterne Rousseau H lderlin Proust Joyce and Blanchot The final section offers a number of impressive pieces by Nancy that completely merge his concerns for philosophy and literature and philosophy as literature These include a lengthy parody of Val ry s La Jeune Parque several original poems by Nancy and a beautiful prose poetic discourse on an installation by Italian artist Claudio Parmiggiani that incorporates the Faust theme Opening with a substantial Introduction by Jean Michel Rabat that elaborates Nancy s importance as a literary thinker this book constitutes the most substantial statement to date by one of today s leading philosophers on a discipline that has been central to his work across his career Among Nancy s many distinguished writings Expectation demands recognition Choice Psychoanalysis David Henderson,2015-09-04 This volume offers a rich tapestry of psychoanalytic thought The authors demonstrate bold creativity in their use of psychoanalytic concepts to think about a wide range of problems in philosophy art and the clinic The collection grew out of Psychoanalysis Culture and Society a conference for postgraduate students and research fellows organised by the Centre for Psychoanalysis Middlesex University London in June 2014 The range of themes addressed at the conference demonstrates the interdisciplinary character of psychoanalytic studies Few of the contributors are affiliated with established psychoanalytic research centres and consequently can feel isolated within their respective departments They were pleased to have the opportunity to meet with others who are pursuing related questions Community, Immunity and the Proper Greg Bird,Jon Short,2017-10-02 It is widely apparent in our hyper globalized world that the epistemologies institutions and practices underwriting it have reached a state of profound crisis In the globalized world everything is inevitably brought into proximity and correlation Wars natural disasters climatic upheaval nor political and economic turmoil none of these can be effectively isolated insulated instituted even immunized as something apart something that might be considered proper only to itself This collected edition considers this crisis of the proper with a focus on Italian political theorist Roberto Esposito s work on community immunity and biopolitics This collection introduces Esposito s work to a wider English speaking audience and provides many important contributions to the burgeoning scholarship on his political theory Important international scholars working in this area examine and analyze his theory from a variety of perspectives including those of biopolitics feminism political theory the history of philosophy Spinoza Hegel Heidegger and Jean Luc Nancy property community and gift economies The collection also includes previously untranslated essays by Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy This collection will be of interest to those just discovering Esposito and for those who are already familiar with his work This book was originally published as a Special Issue of Angelaki Journal of the Theoretical Humanities Limit Cinema Chelsea Birks,2021-07-15 WINNER of the Society for Cinema and Media Studies SCMS Best First Book Award 2023 Limit Cinema explores how contemporary global cinema represents the relationship between humans and nature During the 21st century this relationship has become increasingly fraught due to proliferating social and environmental crises recent films from Lars von Trier's Melancholia 2011 to Apichatpong Weerasethakul's Uncle Boonmee Who Can Recall His Past Lives 2010 address these problems by reflecting or renegotiating the terms of our engagement with the natural world. In this spirit, this book proposes a new film philosophy for the Anthropocene. It argues that certain contemporary films attempt to transgress the limits of human experience and that such limit cinema has the potential to help us rethink our relationship with nature. Posing a new and timely alternative to the process philosophies that have become orthodox in the fields of film philosophy and ecocriticism, Limit Cinema revitalizes the philosophy of Georges Bataille and puts forward a new reading of his notion of transgression in the context of our current environmental crisis. To that end, Limit Cinema brings Bataille into conversation with more recent discussions in the humanities that seek less anthropocentric modes of thought, including posthumanism, speculative realism, and other theories associated with the nonhuman turn. The problems at stake are global in scale, and the book therefore engages with cinema from a range of national and cultural contexts. From Ben Wheatley's psychological thrillers to Nettie Wild's eco-documentaries, limit cinema pushes against the boundaries of thought and encourages an ethical engagement with perspectives beyond the human.

Understanding Nancy, Understanding Modernism Cosmin Toma, 2023-01-12 Over the past three decades, Jean-Luc Nancy has become one of the most celebrated contemporary philosophers. His remarkably diverse body of work, which deals with such topics as post-Heideggerian ontology, Christian painting, the experience of drunkenness, heart transplants, contemporary cinema, and the problem of freedom, is entirely immersed in modernity as he puts it. Within this plural framework, art, which he explicitly defines as a modern construct, plays a singular role in that it is the very prism through which he explores the problems of sense and feeling in general, particularly as they relate to our experience of modernity. The contributors to Understanding Nancy, Understanding Modernism fully delve into the heretofore under-acknowledged and under-explored modernism of Nancy's writings on philosophy and the arts through close readings of his key works as well as broader essays on the relationship between his thought and aesthetic modernity. In addition to an interview with Nancy himself, a final section consists of an extended glossary of Nancy's signature terms, which will be a valuable resource for students and experts alike.

Love's Enlightenment Ryan Patrick Hanley, 2017-03-30 A number of prominent moral philosophers and political theorists have recently called for a recovery of love. But what do we mean when we speak of love today? Love's Enlightenment examines four key conceptions of other-directedness that transformed the meaning of love and helped to shape the way we understand love today: Hume's theory of humanity, Rousseau's theory of pity, Smith's theory of sympathy, and Kant's theory of love. It argues that these four Enlightenment theories are united by a shared effort to develop a moral psychology that can provide both justificatory and motivational grounds for concern for others in the absence of recourse to theological or transcendental categories. In this sense, each theory represents an effort to redefine the love of others that used to be known as caritas or agape, a redefinition that came with benefits and costs that have yet to be fully appreciated.

Re-treating Religion Alena Alexandrova, Jean-Luc Nancy, 2012 One of the most complicated and ambiguous tendencies in contemporary western societies is the phenomenon referred to as the turn to religion. In philosophy, one of the most original thinkers critically questioning this turn is Jean-Luc Nancy. Re-treating Religion is the first volume to analyze his long-term project The Deconstruction of Christianity, especially his major statement of it in Dis-Enclosure. Nancy conceives monotheistic religion and secularization not as opposite worldviews that succeed each other in time but rather as springing from the same history. This history consists in a paradoxical tendency to contest one's own foundations, whether God, truth, origin, humanity, or rationality, as well as to found itself on the void of this contestation. Nancy calls this unique combination of self-contestation and self-foundation the self-deconstruction of the Western world. The book includes a discussion with Nancy himself, who contributes a substantial Preamble and a concluding dialogue with the volume editors. The contributions follow Nancy in tracing the complexities of Western culture back to the persistent legacy of monotheism in order to illuminate the tensions and uncertainties we face in the twenty-first century.
