God Provides a Way of Escape Dr. Gwendola Williams, 2012-03-22 God loves us and wants us to love Him each other and ourselves God never intended anyone to be victimized and it is important that we love and respect ourselves holding ourselves in high regard Domestic violence is sin and violent interactions break the greatest commandments Violence is incompatible with love and that's why it is important to embrace God's word to find out exactly what it says to us about God's love Furthermore we know the Holy Spirit neither produces nor condones abuse for love and gentleness are Fruit of the Spirit according to Galatians We are precious to Him We are valuable to God and His sacrifice for us proves that No matter what we have been told what experiences we have had what mistakes we have made God loves us and wants us to be loved We do not have to labor in an arena God never intended for us to labor in He wants us to be free If you are in a relationship that threatens your mental and physical health your soul and your temple seek guidance and strength from a God who knows your struggle He is ready to deliver you because you have dwelt long enough on this mountain Taking It Seriously

Genee Goertzen, 2024-08-12 Domestic violence harms congregants and impacts our churches Abuse affects millions across this nation and around the world including individuals in your own congregation Informed by research and verified by experience this book provides practical guidance for pastors and lay leaders to faithfully address and respond to this crisis The influence of pastoral care and congregational preparedness from the author's seminary education and community practice social work lens is clearly evident The chapters are well researched trauma conscious and survivor informed The supplemental unique and comprehensive glossary of domestic violence terms crafted specifically for faith based ministry sets this book apart Prevention and intervention guidelines along with valuable recommendations for interacting with victims and survivors is the instructive content needed to propel faith leaders to action and improve the way domestic violence is handled within churches The Church's Response to Domestic Violence

Dr. Char M. Newbold, 2024-06-13 Abuse is hiding in our churches Our women and children are being wounded and even dying in their homes by those who have committed to love and protect them Domestic violence is present in families you would never suspect from the most respected to the least noticed even the family sitting near you in church Women are told God hates divorce learn to submit pray more turn the other cheek look at the plank in their own eye first forgive 70 times 7 By giving such advice to women living in abusive relationships well intentioned church leaders are sending women and children back into dangerous possibly deadly situations In The Church's Response to Domestic Violence a guide based on scriptural truth church leaders will learn the complexities of the dynamics of domestic violence who abuses and who is abused the effects of violence in the home the dangers of couples counseling how to respond to disclosures of abuse why she keeps going back why she doesn't just leave We need our clergy and church leaders to reject the false ideologies that put God's children at risk and equip the Church to be the clear voice of hope and healing for families God Provides a Way of Escape Gwendola Williams, 2003 God loves us and wants us to love Him each other and ourselves God never intended anyone to be victimized and it is important that we love and respect ourselves holding ourselves in high regard Domestic violence is sin and violent interactions break the greatest commandments Violence is incompatible with love and that's why it is important to embrace God's word to find out exactly what it says to us about God's love Furthermore we know the Holy Spirit neither produces nor condones abuse for love and gentleness are Fruit of the Spirit according to Galatians We are precious to Him We are valuable to God and His sacrifice for us proves that No matter what we have been told what experiences we have had what mistakes we have made God loves us and wants us to be loved We do not have to labor in an arena God never intended for us to labor in He wants us to be free If you are in a relationship that threatens your mental and physical health your soul and your temple seek guidance and strength from a God who knows your struggle He is ready to deliver you because you have dwelt long enough on this mountain

Domestic Violence: Causes and Cures and Anger Management Willis C. Newman,Esmeralda Newman,2010-05-12
This is two books put together as one The first part deals with the problem of domestic violence Domestic violence is wide spread wreaks havoc on families and sometimes leads to the death of a loved one And it goes both ways Both men and women can be abusers or victims Often family friends feel helpless Questions arise How can we help the victim when she he does not seem to want to leave the relationship Is there hope for the perpetrators Can they change We explain what domestic violence is the causes the consequences suggested treatment and help for both perpetrators and victims and a biblical view of marriage In part two we tackle the subject of anger management We will define anger and its core dynamics determine how to recognize it see that anger is a choice we can manage and identify the cycle of anger We will identify the major mental distortions that fuel anger and expand on practical strategies to manage anger This book is born out of lessons learned from personal experiences and Willis extensive research years of experience in counseling people involved in domestic violence situations and teaching anger management If you are involved in an abusive relationship and or have anger issues DON T SET THIS BOOK ASIDE You can find hope and help here This book will change your life      Freeing the Oppressed Ron Clark,2009-09-01 When Jesus spoke at his local synagogue he boldly proclaimed that he was the one sent to free those who were oppressed He came to provide hope peace and safety to those suffering in the world When he left this earth his followers were left with the task of continuing this ministry Statistics suggest that in America one in four women has experienced physical violence in an intimate relationship Dating violence intimate partner violence and child abuse rank as some of our nation s largest problems Men are also being abused by intimate partners parents or care providers at increasing rates The statistic is even more alarming worldwide Unfortunately these statistics represent only reported incidents The rates of verbal emotional and spiritual abuse are even higher In addition countless women are encouraged by clergy to return to their abusive spouses The faith community while called by God to free the oppressed has been slow to respond to this sin against humanity Few seminaries offer quality domestic violence prevention training for clergy However clergy still continue to be sought for help from the community and as advocates for victims of domestic violence A partnership between the church and community locally and abroad is necessary if we wish to transform humans caught in this form of oppression In Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark proposed a theology of addressing domestic violence and its application for clergy Freeing the Oppressed is a book that seeks to condense Clark s previous work into a readable form for those seeking spiritual answers concerning abuse and batterer intervention and for helpers of those caught in the cycle of family violence It is also designed as an outreach for those seeking help from the faith community      Teaching to Transcend Cheryl L. Sattler,2000-07-27 Examines teaching and learning in shelters for battered women      Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence Rachel Starr, 2018-04-17 Domestic violence is a significant threat to women's survival. But Christian understandings of marriage often prevent women from resisting abusive relationships. Can the Church's teaching on marriage be reshaped so that it helps women to survive rather than encourage them to submit to their husband, bear their cross or sacrifice themselves for the sake of their marriage? Focusing on everyday practices of marriage in two very different contexts, Argentina and England, Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence considers how Christian understandings of marriage as a covenant or sacrament relate to the lived experience of marriage. Drawing on Augustine's notion of the goods of marriage and on belief in the saving power of marriage, this book suggests that only when the wellbeing of bodies is central to a marriage can it have the power to save. Home Truths About Domestic Violence

Jalna Hanmer, Catherine Itzin, 2013-09-13 While men's violence to women is an everyday culturally supported activity, this reader demonstrates that men's violence can be curtailed and that women and children can be assisted effectively that state policies and provision can be improved and that women can actively participate in the resolution of their difficulties. Bringing together new work and key papers, Home Truths About Domestic Violence provides a comprehensive overview and up-to-date account of the progress so far and identifies what still needs to be done. Areas covered include women's experience of violence, children's experience of violence, personal experiences of the justice system, state policies on violence in the US and UK, educational programmes and initiatives. This substantial Reader makes a significant contribution to the understanding of domestic violence from both a policy and a practice perspective. Together with its companion volume Home Truths About Child Sexual Abuse, it provides an in-depth resource for a wide range of teachers, students and professionals, highlighting the diverse and complex dimensions of the problem of domestic violence. Majoring in the Minors Richard A. Gallo, 2021-07-05

If you or someone you know has never experienced racism, bigotry, injustice, abuse or domestic violence, then this book is not for you. But if you or someone you know has been such a victim and suffered from such societal evils, then perhaps you are not reading these words by chance. Perhaps God has brought you to this moment to make a difference, for deep down in your heart you know that this is fundamentally wrong. And just maybe God through his Spirit has brought you to this very moment to say, "Enough is enough" and start doing something to begin eliminating racism, bigotry, injustice, abuse and domestic violence. Rev. Gallo lays out a twelve-step process that he has termed "A Blueprint of Hope from a Christian Perspective." Utilizing twelve messages or themes of hope, one from each of the minor prophets as well as the teachings of Jesus, he formulates a plan. This plan incorporates both small group ministry within the local church and neighborhood outreach to the surrounding community where these societal evils rear their ugly heads and have devastated individuals for generations. These twelve messages as well as a unique perspective and insights that he has gained over forty-two years of police work and active ministry, he formulates a blueprint of hope that encourages individuals to catch a vision of what might be if people begin to look at each other through eyes of love and hope rather than hate and despair. No Place for Abuse Catherine Clark

Kroeger, Nancy Nason-Clark, 2001-01-01 Representing the International Task Force on Abuse Catherine Clark Kroeger and Nancy Nason Clark help us hear the cries of abused women and find concrete ways for the church to respond so that no home will be a place of abuse      A Biblical Study Guide for Equal Pulpits Young Lee Hertig, 2022-03-24 The transformation of patriarchal church culture begins with gender equality in the pulpit For too long the Christian pulpit has been monopolized by men This pattern is especially pronounced in evangelical Asian American and Latinx congregations where women's voices are marginalized and male dominance is reinforced in the church as well as the family The consequences are enormous oRobbing the church of the fullness of the gospel oSilencing the voices of women preachers oMasculinizing Christianity oLosing younger generations of women leaders oModeling structural power inequality oIncreasing violence against women Making academic hermeneutical work accessible for the pulpit A Biblical Study Guide for an Equal Pulpit reappropriates a gendered approach to biblical texts Among the perspectives investigated Kay Higuera Smith's Two Mothers Two Promises takes a perspective shifting look at Sarah and Hagar Eunny P Lee's Valorous and Wise Women Who Build Up the House of God depicts Ruth and the woman of Proverbs 31 as builders of the household and Sophia Magallanes Tsang's Listening for Your Voice Let Me Hear It The Prophetic Feminine Voice in Songs 8 interprets the Song of Songs as a prophetic female voice
