God And Logic In Islam The Caliphate Of Reason:

God and Logic in Islam John Walbridge, 2010-11-15 This book investigates the central role of reason in Islamic intellectual life Despite widespread characterization of Islam as a system of belief based only on revelation John Walbridge argues that rational methods not fundamentalism have characterized Islamic law philosophy and education since the medieval period His research demonstrates that this medieval Islamic rational tradition was opposed by both modernists and fundamentalists resulting in a general collapse of traditional Islamic intellectual life and its replacement by more modern but far shallower forms of thought However the resources of this Islamic scholarly tradition remain an integral part of the Islamic intellectual tradition and will prove vital to its revival The future of Islam Walbridge argues will be marked by a return to rationalism

Islam's Reformation of Christianity Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2022 Jesus was a product of Semitic monotheism moral law piety and humility His kingdom was the other worldly His ethical monotheism was transformed by the Roman Empire and mythology The supernatural Trinitarian and miraculous Roman Christianity transitioned into unintelligible dogmas the abolition of law moral laxity this worldly kingdom and divine right absolutism Natural theology law cosmology and politics were all compromised Religious freedom was barred and persecutions were normalised Latin Christendom was a persecutory society Islam was an intellectual cure to Christian paradoxes and an egalitarian pluralistic alternate to Christian inquisitions and religiopolitical absolutism It spread in the Eastern Christian territories like a bush fire This reformation of Christian excesses in religiopolitical theology reformed its paradoxical incarnational theology antinomianism grace based salvation scheme divine right Church and monarchy interventionist cosmology and religious persecutions This insightful and groundbreaking new book provides an in depth study of the Islamic Southern Reformation of Christianity a reformation seldom acknowledged or studied by the historians It explores how the Islamic reformative scheme emphasised ethical transcendental monotheism natural theology and rational discourse It limited monarchy and placed significance on an inclusive pluralistic and free society The Seventh Century Islamic natural rational moral republican and egalitarian reformation was the Southern Reformation of Christianity long before the partial Northern Reformation of Luther and Calvin

Ibn Miskawayh, the Soul, and the Pursuit of Happiness John Peter Radez, 2019-10-17 Ibn Miskawayh the Soul and the Pursuit of Happiness explores the moral philosophy and context of Ibn Miskawayh 932 1030 an advocate of the intellectually cultivated life with a strong religious bent Though not necessarily a major innovator he sought through his writings to provide a moral compass for turbulent times much like thinkers such as Petrarch 1304 1374 Pico della Mirandola 1463 1494 Francois Rabelais 1494 1553 Montesquieu 1689 1755 or more recently Mortimer Adler 1902 2001 Despite the tumultuous times in which they lived these thinkers offered the world hope through a humanism that cultivated both civic and moral character Whether directly expressed in his moral philosophy or illustrated in the examples of renowned or notorious historical figures Miskawayh's core idea is that one's character is much easier kept than recovered In this book John Peter Radez shows how Miskawayh stands out not only as one of Islam's first ethicists but also one of its true intellectuals, thinker, historian, codifier of the science of adab, and a truly happy sage who represented the best of his generation's intellectual and cultural elite. Miskawayh's message of how to create lives worthy of human beings, his civic humanism, resonates today.

Islam, Religious Liberty and Constitutionalism in Europe Mark Hill KC, Lina Papadopoulou, 2024-02-08 For centuries since the Roman Empire's adoption of Christianity, the continent of Europe has been perceived as something of a Christian fortress. Today, the increase in the number of Muslims living in Europe and the prominence of Islamic belief pose questions not only for Europe's religious traditions but also for its constitutional makeup. This book examines these challenges within the legal and political framework of Europe. The volume's contributors range from academics at leading universities to former judges and politicians. Its 19 chapters focus on constitutional challenges, human rights, with a focus on religious freedom and securitisation and Islamophobia, while adopting supranational and comparative approaches. This book will appeal not merely to academics and law students in the UK and the EU but to anyone involved in diplomacy and international relations, including political scientists, lobbyists, and members of NGOs. It explores these contested relationships to open up new spaces in how we think about religious freedom and co-existence in Europe and the crucial role that Islam has had and continues to have in its development.

The Rise of Early Modern Science Toby E. Huff, 2017-06-06 Now in its third edition, The Rise of Early Modern Science argues that to understand why modern science arose in the West, it is essential to study not only the technical aspects of scientific thought but also the religious, legal, and institutional arrangements that either opened the doors for enquiry or restricted scientific investigations. Toby E. Huff explores how the newly invented universities of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the European legal revolution created a neutral space that gave birth to the scientific revolution. Including expanded comparative analysis of the European, Islamic, and Chinese legal systems, Huff now responds to the debates of the last decade to explain why the Western world was set apart from other civilisations.

Scientific Development in Islamic Civilization Aijaz Ahmad, 2023-01-01 This book, Scientific Development in Islamic Civilization, is a humble effort to highlight the scientific research conducted by Islamic scholars of the mediaeval world between the seventh and seventeenth centuries. The works of the majority of Muslim scientists are also discussed in depth. The scientific development during the periods of various ruling dynasties and caliphates is properly mentioned in various chapters Above all the goal of writing this book is to make Muslims in particular and non Muslims in general aware of the glorious past of Islamic civilization which has been washed out or purposefully ignored in historical texts these days period Al Daghistani looks at economic thought in the context of Shar a s moral law Alongside critiquing modern developments of Islamic economics he puts forward an idea for a plural epistemology of Islam s moral economy which advocates for a multifaceted hermeneutical reading of the subject in light of a moral law embedded in a particular cosmology of human relationality metaphysical intelligibility and economic subjectivity Shapers of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhd.
