Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume II of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will discover one of Augustines masterworks City of God In this groundbreaking work Augustine proposes a philosophy that sees history as having a purpose and direction Coming at a time when Roman civilization was failing this work argued that Romans could find comfort in Christianity because all of history was merely a struggle between the City of God believers and the City of Man nonbelievers Should Romans put their faith in the City of God even their declining civilization should cause them no grief Even though it was written at a very particular time in history City of God appeals to all Christians seeking inspiration to continue their religious practice

Reitsma,2020-07-31 All too often a Christian response to Islam is rooted in antagonism and steeped in defensiveness and fear Yet the church is not called to engage in a battle with Islam in order to conquer Muslims and when we as Christians wield apologetics like a weapon and shroud the message of Christ's sacrifice in the armour of polemics we destroy the credibility of our witness even as we seek to save the lost Bernhard Reitsma invites the church to rediscover a Christ-like approach to Islam an approach that roots itself in love vulnerability and fearless embrace Far from ignoring the complex challenges faced by Christians living in Muslim majority nations or in Western countries where Islam is on the rise Reitsma addresses practical concerns such as persecution political power the nation of Israel and contextualization all within a thoroughly biblical and Christ-centered framework Reitsma reminds us that the church's calling is not to defend Christendom but to reveal the glory of Christ To that end let us lay down our weapons take off our armour and introduce our Muslim brothers and sisters to the vulnerable unconditional love of Christ The City of God: A translation into English by John Healey Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1909 To Mock a Mockingbird Raymond M.
