La Fuga Narrativa Italian Edition:

Italian Crime Fiction Giulana Pieri, 2011-10-15 Italian Crime Fiction is the first study in the English language to focus specifically on Italian detective and noir fiction from the 1930s to the present. The eight chapters include studies on some of the founding fathers of the Italian tradition and mainstream writers. The volume has a particular focus on the new generation of crime writers. Contesting the Monument: The Anti-illusionist Italian Historical Novel: No. 10 Ruth Glynn, 2017-12-02 In the second half of the twentieth century the Italian historical novel provided an unrivalled number of best sellers and publishing phenomena. The success of the genre is closely related to a more general interest in revisiting the past in the light of a changed understanding of the nature or philosophy of history. This study aims to explore the particularly marked increase in the production and popularity of the historical novel in the period between the mid 1960s and the early 1990s with reference to current debates on the nature of history. It presents a theoretical framework which establishes the centrality of philosophy of history to the development of the genre. The employment of this framework opens out the discussion of literary change to the consideration of historiographical developments and wider critical debate. The theoretical insights gained inform the close textual analysis provided in the chapters dealing with novels written by five of Italy's foremost contemporary writers: Leonardo Sciascia, Vincenzo Consolo, Sebastiano Vassalli, Umberto Eco and Luigi Malerba. Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture. It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field. The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critical themes, genres, schools, historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies. The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism, film, media, children's literature, food and vernacular literatures. Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person. It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars. The Italian Gothic and Fantastic Francesca Billiani, Gigliola Sulis, 2007 Meanwhile by assimilating the Other into our own modes of representation of reality and imagination twentieth century female writers of the fantastic show how alternative identities can be shaped and social constituencies can be challenged. BOOK JACKET Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description
