Job Frances Poston Bennett,2009-06-01 The average person opens the Bible to Job because of pain Like Job we have lost someone lost something lost hope lost joy Even then the average person does not read the book of Job In times of sorrow we search the book of Job We hunt answers We devour God s Word because we have a need that nothing else can satisfy Once upon a time I thought I would never know joy again Sorrow beyond anything I had ever known crushed me God broke my heart Jesus said Seek and you will find So I sought comfort in God s Word I read that when Job met God Job said what he learned was too wonderful for me I did not understand what was so wonderful about Job s discovery so I reread the book of Job I looked up every cross reference cited in my Bible I searched recommended commentaries I prayed I read Job again and again and again What did I find Jesus was right I found what I was seeking Job was right God s Word reveals things that are too wonderful for me We can take any sorrow any loss any fear any pain to God s Word We can ask any question as Job did We can hurl any grief to God in prayer as Job did And at the end of our search we will find Christ and comfort beyond our expectation To my profound amazement I now thank God that He led me through deep sorrow because it was sorrow that led me to seek and as Jesus promised those who seek do find I learned things about God that I had not known I found comfort I found joy God is indeed too wonderful for me Study questions included in the appendix It is my prayer that others who study Job Lessons in Comfort will also learn things too wonderful for me When we begin to grasp His goodness we too can offer true comfort to others Dios te busca empleo Regina Brett,2015 Working for God Andrew Murray,2015-02-09 On living and teaching the imperative duty The object of this little book is first of all to remind all Christian workers of the greatness and the glory of the work in which God gives a share It is nothing less than that work of bringing men back to their God at which God finds His highest glory and blessedness As we see that it is God s own work we have to work out that He works it through us that in our doing it His glory rests on us and we glorify Him we shall count it our joy to give ourselves to live only and wholly for it The aim of the book at the same time is to help those who complain and perhaps do not even know to complain that they are apparently laboring in vain to find out what may be the cause of so much failure God s work must be done in God s way and in God s power It is spiritual work to be done by spiritual men in the power of the Spirit The clearer our insight into and the more complete our submission to God s laws of work the surer and the richer will be our joy and our reward in it Along with this I have had in view the great number of Christians who practically take no real part in the service of their Lord They have never understood that the chief characteristic of the Divine life in God and Christ is love and its work of blessing men The Divine life in us can show itself in no other way I have tried to show that it is God s will that every believer without exception whatever be his position in life gives himself wholly to live and work for God I have also written in the hope that some who have the training of others in Christian life and work may find thoughts that will be of use to them in teaching the imperative duty the urgent need the Divine blessedness of a life given to God s service and to waken within the consciousness of the power that works in them even the Spirit and power of Christ Himself Andrew Murray
