Awakening Vocation Edward P. Hahnenberg, 2010-07-01 Does God have a specific plan for each of us or is it more like general guidelines for all of us How do my gifts and abilities my personality and particular circumstances impact my vocation What is the role of the church in this process What are the needs of the world that call us to respond Awakening Vocation explores these questions and breathes new life into an ancient idea rousing vocation from a centuries long slumber Inspired by the broad and inclusive Vision of the Second Vatican Council the book traces the history of Catholic reflection on vocation and offers a constructive proposal for the present In plain language Edward Hahnenberg argues that Catholic thinking on vocation has been frustrated by a deficient theology of grace and that the key to reclaiming the notion of God s call today lies in a Vision of God s self gift reaching across al of human history and into every human heart Rethinking vocation in light of a revitalized theology of grace helps move beyond earlier dead ends opening up new ways of imagining discipleship and discernment within our wonderfully diverse and yet deeply divided world

The Disciples' Call Christopher Jamison, OSB,2013-12-05 There is currently no shared language of vocation among Catholics in the developed post modern world of Europe and North America The decline in practice of the faith and a weakened understanding of Church teaching has led to reduced numbers of people entering into marriage religious life and priesthood Uniquely this book traces the development of vocation from scriptural patristic roots through Thomism and the Reformation to engage with the modern vocational crisis How are these two approaches compatible The universal call to holiness is expressed in Lumen Gentium has been read by some as meaning that any vocational choice has the same value as any other such choice is some sense of a higher calling part of the Catholic theology of vocation or not Some claim that the single life is a vocation on a par with marriage and religious life what kind of a theology of vocation leads to that conclusion And is the secular use of the word vocation to describe certain profession helpful or misleading in the context of Catholic theology
