God So Loved He Gave Entering The Movement Of Divine Generosity:

God So Loved, He Gave Kelly M. Kapic, 2010 God So Loved He Gave places the practice of giving within the larger story of God's generosity. Here we discover how our participation in the overflow of divine giving is vitally connected to the Trinitarian nature of God, the unfolding drama of Scripture and ultimately the Gospel itself. Faith Speaking Understanding Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2014-01-01 In this volume highly esteemed scholar Kevin Vanhoozer introduces readers to a way of thinking about Christian theology that takes the work he began in the groundbreaking 2005 book The Drama of Doctrine to its next level. Vanhoozer argues that theology is not merely a set of cognitive beliefs but is also something we do that involves speech and action alike. He uses a theatrical model to explain the ways in which doctrine shapes Christian understanding and forms disciples. The church, Vanhoozer posits, is the preeminent theater where the gospel is performed with doctrine directing this performance. Doctrines are not simply truths to be stored, shelved and stacked but indications and directions to be followed, practiced and enacted. In performing doctrine, Christians are shaped into active disciples of Jesus Christ. He goes on to examine the state of the church in today's world and explores how disciples can do or perform doctrine. Written in an accessible and engaging style, Faith Speaking Understanding sets forth a compelling vision of what the church is and what it should be doing and demonstrates the importance of Christian doctrine for this mission. Disciples who want to follow Christ in all situations need doctrinal direction as they walk onto the social stage in the great theater of the world. The Christian faith is about acknowledging and participating in the great thing God is doing in our world, making all things new in Christ through the Holy Spirit. Doctrine ministers understanding of God, of the drama of redemption, of the church as a company of faithful players and of individual actors, all of whom have important roles to play. In an age where things fall apart and centers fail to hold, doctrine centers us in Jesus Christ, in whom all things hold together. American Theological Inquiry, Volume Four, Issue Two Gannon Murphy, 2011-11-01 American Theological Inquiry (ATI) reaches thousands of Christian scholars, clergy and other interested parties primarily in the U.S. and U.K. The journal was formed in 2007 by Gannon Murphy (PhD Theology, Univ. Wales, Lampeter; Presbyterian Reformed) and Stephen Patrick (PhD Philosophy, Univ. Illinois; Eastern Orthodox) to open up space for Christian scholars who affirm the Ecumenical Creeds to contribute research throughout the broader Christian scholarly community in America and the West. The purpose of ATI is to provide an inter-tradition forum for scholars who affirm the historic Ecumenical Creeds of Christendom to constructively communicate contemporary theological developments, ideas, commentaries and insights pertaining to theology, culture and history toward reforming and elevating Western Christianity. ATI seeks a critical function as much or more so as a quasi-ecumenical one. The purpose is not to erase or weaken the distinctives of the various ecclesial traditions but to widen the dialogue and increase inter-tradition understanding while mutually affirming Christ's power to transform culture and the importance of strengthening Western Christianity with special reference to Her historic creedal roots. Theologians would be theologians and the theologically attentive will want to check

Linebaugh, 2018-08-09 The distinction between God's law and God's gospel lies at the core of the Lutheran and Reformed traditions and has long been a point of controversy between them God's Two Words offers new contributions from ten key Lutheran and Reformed scholars on the theological significance of the law gospel distinction Following introductory chapters that define the concepts of law and gospel from each tradition contributors explore how the distinction between law and gospel plays out in theology preaching the reading of Scripture and pastoral care As it traces both the common ground and the areas of disagreement between the two traditions this book amplifies and clarifies an important conversation that has been ongoing since the sixteenth century CONTRIBUTORS Michael Allen Charles Arand Erik H Herrmann Kelly Kapic Peter Malysz Mark C Mattes Steven Paulson Katherine Sonderegger Scott Swain Kevin J Vanhoozer Half the Church Carolyn Custis James, 2011-04-19 Women comprise at least half the world and usually more than half the church but so often Christian teaching to women either fails to move beyond a discussion of roles or assumes a particular economic situation or stage of life This all but shuts women out from contributing to God's kingdom as they were designed to do Furthermore the plight of women in the Majority World demands a Christian response a holistic embrace of all that God calls women and men to be in his world The loudest voices speaking into women s lives in the twenty first century thus far come from either fundamentalist Islam or radical feminism And neither can be allowed to carry the day The Bible contains the highest possible view of women and invests women s lives with cosmic significance regardless of their age stage of life social status or culture Carolyn Custis James unpacks three transformative themes the Bible presents to women that raise the bar for women and calls them to join their brothers in advancing God s gracious kingdom on earth These new images of what can be in Christ free women to embrace the life God gives them no matter what happens Carolyn encourages readers with a positive kingdom approach to the changes challenges and opportunities facing women throughout the world today Living Theodrama Wesley Vander Lugt,2016-05-13 Living Theodrama is a fresh creative introduction to theological ethics Offering an imaginative approach through dialogue with theatrical theory and practice Vander Lugt demonstrates a new way to integrate actor oriented and action oriented approaches to Christian ethics within a comprehensive theodramatic model This model affirms that life is a drama performed in the company of God and others providing rich metaphors for relating theology to everyday formation and performance in this drama Different chapters explore the role of the triune God Scripture tradition the church mission and context in the process of formation and performance thus dealing separately with major themes in theological ethics while incorporating them within an overarching model This book contains not only a fruitful exchange between theological ethics and theatre but it also presents a promising method for interdisciplinary dialogue between theology and the arts that will be valuable for students and practitioners across many different fields Mapping Modern Theology Kelly M. William DeJong, 2019-11-11 This volume probes the nature of gratitude as a virtue and identifies its moral value in the Christian life in order to enhance pastoral effectiveness in ministering to those gripped by sins of desire Such impulses are explored in terms of the seven deadly sins which this inquiry regards as distorted desires for the good God provides Utilizing a method of mutual critical correlation this volume brings philosophical and psychological claims about gratitude into conversation with the Christian tradition On the basis of an ontology of communion in which humans are inextricably situated in giving and receiving relationships with God others and the world this inquiry defines gratitude as a social response involving asymmetrical agapic reciprocity whereby a recipient freely joyfully and fittingly salutes a giver for the gift received in order to establish maintain or restore a personal and peaceable relationship Critiquing especially the reductions of gratitude by Aristotle and Jacques Derrida this inquiry recommends gratitude as a virtue which when embodied practiced and ritualized especially though not exclusively in the Eucharist has potential to repel the destructive idolatries generated by the seven deadly sins and thus function as a crucial ingredient in human social flourishing Familiarity with the virtue of gratitude as a vital ingredient in moral flourishing therefore equips pastors for greater ministerial effectiveness Holy Labor Aubry G. Smith, 2016-09-21 Women are valued for their ability to bear children in many cultures The birth process though supposedly the most painful experience of a woman s life is seen as a necessary evil to achieve the end goal of children and motherhood And yet in the face of a typically masculinized Christianity that nevertheless professes that women are equally created in the image of God shouldn t childbirth a uniquely feminine experience itself shape Christian women s souls and teach them about the heart of the God they love and follow Drawing on her own experience of giving birth and motherhood and the conflicting assumptions attached to them by Christians and the culture at large Aubry G Smith presents a richly scriptural exploration of common conceptions about pregnancy and childbirth that will not only help mothers and soon to be mothers understand how to think biblically about birth but also walks them through how to put the ideas into practice in their own lives Along the way she shows all readers how to see God's own experience of the birth process and how childbirth leads to a deeper understanding of the gospel overall

The God Who Gives Kelly M. Kapic, 2018-06-12 Many Christians wonder what the Christian life is all about They hear about grace but struggle to rightly understand it much less live it They are taught about God but their vision of him does not always reflect the full biblical portrait of the Father Son and Holy Spirit When this happens Christians struggle to know the ways of God and how to joyfully participate in his work The God Who Gives provides a compelling vision of Christian faith and life helping readers discover the uniqueness of the gospel that God's kingdom comes not by taking but by giving God gives Himself We are invited into the fullness of life that can only come through the gift of God's divine generosity Taking readers through the grand biblical narrative of creation fall redemption and kingdom author Kelly M Kapic helps us see our story in and through the story of Scripture He shows that everything belongs to God and yet because of our turning and taking from him we experience a kind of suffocating bondage to sin So how does God reclaim us God gives again The God who gave in creation restores by recreating us through his Son and by his Spirit The kingdom of God is an overflowing measure of divine generosity that we are invited to participate in The God Who Gives calls readers to discover that the whole Christian story is founded upon the Triune God's self giving and our belonging to God Fully embracing this truth changes how we view God ourselves and the world Living in God's gifts we are freed to give ourselves and truly experience life NIV Stewardship Study Bible

, 2012-06-19 Stewardship is an idea that most of us don't think about until we find ourselves in personal financial crisis or the nation does And we may know that stewardship is about more than money but the whole idea can be so overwhelming How do we figure it out How do we live lives of stewardship Is it achievable What does it mean Through 366 Exploring Stewardship notes profiles of individuals notes on challenges to stewardship quotes on stewardship from respected Christians throughout the ages and other articles and helps the NIV Stewardship Study Bible projects a positive picture of the privilege we have in managing what God has given us to give him glory and to build his kingdom More than just money this Bible emphasizes stewardly responsibility in all areas of life including relationships creation care money management institutions and caring for the poor It's been pulled together with the purpose of changing perceptions about what the word stewardship means not something intended to be draining and guilt inducing but rather motivating empowering and uplifting The NIV Stewardship Study Bible has been endorsed by Crown Ministries Dave Ramsey Goodense ministries the Barnabas Foundation Prison Fellowship and various other programs and ministries that seek to encourage responsible stewardship
