The Power of Listening Lynne M. Baab, 2014-06-05 Listening skills and the perspective gained through careful listening are more important in congregations than ever Many factors make attentive listening a significant contributor to healthy congregations As we enter into a post Christendom culture the people coming into congregations as well as the people in the wider community are less likely to be operating from a shared set of assumptions With world wide migration reshaping our communities and congregations diverse perspectives coming from varied cultural backgrounds are also more common The breakdown of many support structures in society has created profound pastoral care needs making listening increasingly significant for both ministers and lay leaders Polarization over so many issues and the increasing emphasis on story telling in the journey of faith are two additional reasons why listening matters today Careful and loving listening nurtures care connection and depth which contribute to congregational life and health Listening to God is another aspect of listening which is gaining increased attention today Many congregational leaders have become weary of church as a business and are looking for authentic experiences of God's guidance Congregations are increasingly engaging in communal discernment Many listening skills used in human interactions are also building blocks for listening to God

Who Did You See Today? Dustin Schadt, 2024-05-28 In January 2019 a U S Census Bureau survey reported that 11 percent of respondents indicated symptoms of anxiety or depression Just twenty two months later in December 2020 the percentage nearly quadrupled to more than 42 percent As believers we are the ones called to truly see the lonely and hurting among us What if instead of getting caught up in our own busy calendars and daily stressors we dialed into the needs of those around us listening with bold intentionality and responding to them with extravagant thoughtfulness and outrageous kindness Jesus offered us the ultimate example of how to serve and minister to others by meeting people right where they were Through us neighbors coworkers classmates and family members should experience that same grace kindness and loving attention Author Dustin Schadt offers a biblical and theological basis for seeing people outlines practical ways that individuals families schools nonprofits small groups churches and other organizations can collectively value focus on and respond to the world around us Our care builds a bridge of trust strong enough to bear the weight of our gospel conversations Kindness has become a precious commodity We are fast paced busy and often distracted In a world marked by skepticism loneliness and anxiety Christ followers must be the ones who live beyond differences and distractions to see the people God places in our lives Jesus saw us drew closer and gave Himself up to make a way for us to come to Him He is calling us to do the same to love people the way Jesus loved people ears open and eyes widen to the beauty of the love of Christ shown in His gospel
