Literary Representations of Christianity in Late Qing and Republican China John T. P. Lai,2019-03-27 Literary Representations of Christianity in Late Qing and Republican China contributes to the literary turn in the study of Chinese Christianity by foregrounding the importance of literary texts including the major genres of Chinese Christian literature novels drama and poetry of the late Qing and Republican periods These multifarious types of texts demonstrated the multiple representations and dynamic scenes of Christianity where Christian imageries and symbolism were transformed by linguistic manipulation into new contextualized forms which nurtured distinctive new fruits of literature and modernized the literary landscape of Chinese literature The study of the composition and poetics of Chinese Christian literary works helps us rediscover the concerns priorities textual strategies of the Christian writers the cross cultural challenges involved and the reception of the Bible Taiping Theology Carl S. Kilcourse,2016-09-26 This book examines the theological worldview of the Taiping Rebellion 1850-64 a Chinese revolutionary movement whose leader Hong Xiuquan 1814-64 claimed to be the second son of God and younger brother of Jesus Despite the profound impact of Christian books on Hong's religious thinking previous scholarship has neglected the localized form of Christianity that he and his closest followers created Filling that gap in the existing literature this book analyzes the localization of Christianity in the theology ethics and ritual practices of the Taipings Carl S Kilcourse not only reveals how Confucianism and popular religion acted as instruments of localization but also suggests that several key aspects of the Taipings localized religion were inspired by terms and themes from translated Christian texts Emphasizing this link between vernacularization and localization Kilcourse demonstrates both the religious identity of the Taipings and their wider significance in the history of world Christianity Chinese Public Theology Alexander Chow, 2018 It has been widely recognized that Christianity is the fastest growing religion in one of the last communist run countries of the world the People's Republic of China Yet it would be a mistake to describe Chinese Christianity as merely a clandestine faith or as hoped by the Communist Party of China a privatized religion Alexander Chow argues that Christians in mainland China have been constructing a more intentional public theology to engage the Chinese state and society since the end of the Cultural Revolution 1966-76 Chinese Public Theology recalls the events which have led to this transformation and examines the developments of Christianity across three generations of Chinese intellectuals from the state sanctioned Protestant church the secular academy and the growing urban renaissance in Calvinism Moreover Chow shows how each of these generations have provided different theological responses to the same sociopolitical moments of the last three decades This study illustrates how a growing understanding of Chinese public theology has been developed through a subconscious intermingling of Christian and Confucian understandings of public intellectualism These factors result in a contextually unique understanding of public theology but also one which is faced by contextual limitations as well With this in mind Chow draws from the Eastern Orthodox doctrine of theosis and the Chinese traditional teaching of the unity of Heaven and humanity Tian ren heyi to offer a way forward in the construction of a Chinese public theology The Protestants Alec Ryrie, 2018-04-03 On the 500th anniversary of Luther's theses a landmark history of the revolutionary faith that shaped the modern world Ryrie writes that his aim is to persuade you that we cannot understand the modern age without understanding the dynamic history of Protestant Christianity To which I reply Mission accomplished Jon Meacham author of American Lion and Thomas Jefferson Five hundred years ago a stubborn German monk challenged the Pope with a radical vision of what Christianity could be The revolution he set in motion toppled governments upended social norms and transformed millions of people's understanding of their relationship with God In this dazzling history Alec Ryrie makes the case that we owe many of the rights and freedoms we have cause to take for granted from free speech to limited government to our Protestant roots Fired up by their faith Protestants have embarked on courageous journeys into the unknown like many rebels and refugees who made their way to our shores Protestants created America and defined its special brand of entrepreneurial diligence Some turned to their bibles to justify bold acts of political opposition others to spurn orthodoxies and insight on their God given rights Above all Protestants have fought for their beliefs establishing a tradition of principled opposition and civil disobedience that is as alive today as it was 500 years ago In this engrossing and magisterial work Alec Ryrie makes the case that whether or not you are yourself a Protestant you live in a world shaped by Protestants

Understanding Non-State Actors Eran Zohar, 2023-10-24 Understanding Non State Actors aims to reduce the scarcity of academic literature on armed non state actors NSAs that have always been a part of world politics and wars This monograph offers possibly for the first time a systematic historical review as well as a substantive theory of NSAs and their arming efforts The world has been astonished by the ability of the well armed Hamas to inflict heavy losses on the powerful Israel Thus from the Jewish rebellion against Rome to the war between the Ukrainian separatists and the Ukrainian government NSAs weapons acquisition has been vital for the build up of their force enabling both the employment of that force and its sustainability While weapons are not necessarily the most important factor in military build up NSAs need weapons to fight and revolts usually erupt after the organizers have acquired a certain number of weapons Conversely many revolts lose momentum and operations are not carried out or turn ineffective due to shortages of arms and ammunition A major theme of this monograph is that in spite of dramatic political and technological changes armed NSAs in different periods have employed similar methods to acquire weapons Self production looting and stealing external support and the arms trade were always the major ways for NSAs to acquire weapons though the importance of each method and the type of arms has changed remarkably over time Understanding Non State Actors discusses the factors political social cultural technological and organizational that have both facilitated and constrained the ability of NSAs to acquire arms Especially lecturers and students of Military Terrorism Conflict studies War and peace studies will benefit from this study
