Textual Transformations in Children's Literature Benjamin Lefebvre, 2013 This book offers new critical approaches for the study of adaptations, abridgments, translations, parodies, and mash-ups that occur internationally in contemporary children's culture. It follows recent shifts in adaptation studies that call for a move beyond fidelity criticism, a paradigm that measures the success of an adaptation by the level of fidelity to the original text, toward a methodology that considers the adaptation to be always already in conversation with the adapted text. This book visits children's literature and culture in order to consider the generic, pedagogical, and ideological underpinnings that drive both the process and the product. Focusing on novels as well as folktales, films, graphic novels, and anime, the authors consider the challenges inherent in transforming the work of authors such as William Shakespeare, Charles Perrault, L. M. Montgomery, Laura Ingalls Wilder, and A. A. Milne into new forms that are palatable for later audiences, particularly when, for perceived ideological or political reasons, the textual transformation is not only unavoidable but entirely necessary. Contributors consider the challenges inherent in transforming stories and characters from one type of text to another across genres, languages, and time, offering a range of new models that will inform future scholarship

CUES: Choose, Use, Enjoy, Share Phyllis B. Leonard, 1998-08-15 Calling for structured interaction between students and books, Leonard specifies how teachers and media specialists can collaborate to create a library/media-centered program that develops the talents of all K-6 students. The ultimate goal is to encourage reading and build reading comprehension, questioning, and thinking skills. Models, groupings, strategies, and materials are suggested in a grade-appropriate scope and sequence. The latest theories about the process of education, thinking, multiple intelligences, how children learn individually and cooperatively, as well as effective grouping and teaching strategies for differentiation, are discussed. The book also has sample lessons and scenarios drawn from the author's experience. Grades K-6

The Road Less Traveled Kyle Marie Townes, 2025-07-29 The Christian church is dwindling in many parts of the United States, and countless children are growing up only to abandon their faith. A well-trodden secular path in child-rearing has proven to lead to disaster, and yet many Christian families continue on it, unsure of what to do differently or how to change course. Is there a better way? By intertwining Scripture with studies, statistics, and research, Townes outlines crucial priorities for early childhood and helps parents build the all-important foundation and framework of

 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re-circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies The Last Chapter Tony Whelan, 2010 As a Catholic growing up in County Down in the 1930s and 40s Tony Whelan encountered the problems arising in a community divided along sectarian lines But his life was enriched by youthful friendships and a love of literature and the cinema This is an autobiography of his life Life as an Awesome Doormat Dorothy A.
