La Noche De La Tempestad:

La noche de la tempestad César Vidal, 2011-06-10 Un suceso secreto en la vida del dramaturgo William Shakespeare marca su vida para siempre con el signo de la venganza 1616 William Shakespeare el autor más importante de Inglaterra acaba de fallecer En apariencia todo resulta normal cuando sus familiares y amigos son citados para la lectura de la última voluntad del escritor Sin embargo las disposiciones contenidas en el testamento desafían toda lógica Qu ha impulsado a Shakespeare a dejar a su esposa tan sólo su segunda mejor cama Por qué una de sus hijas recibe únicamente un tazón Qu le ha movido por el contrario a nombrar a otra de ellas heredera de todos sus bienes Qu lógica si es que la hay se oculta tras ese absurdo testamento Partiendo de este punto de arranque rigurosamente histórico La noche de la tempestad nos lleva a través de unas horas de literatura y magia a recorrer la vida de Shakespeare descubriendo una clave oculta para la lectura de sus obras y para la comprensión de un testamento que constituye la consumación de su existencia Construida a partir de un profundo conocimiento de la época y de los textos de Shakespeare La noche de la tempestad es una novela enigmática y subyugante que de manera sutil y misteriosa nos permite sumergirnos en las pasiones eternas del ser humano del amor los celos de la venganza a la ira del rencor a la codicia abriendo nos la puerta al amor y a lo sobrenatural como realidades extraordinariamente cercanas a nosotros

La Noche de 'la tempestad' Gerónimo Giménez, Fiacro Yráyzo, 1900 The Strife of Tongues Colin P. Thompson, 1988 This book looks at the poetry of Fray Luis de León together with other works in both Latin and Spanish of biblical and classical texts deeper life it is inevitably doomed That man to attain the full development of the faculties implanted in him must be in spiritual and physical freedom is a principle which lies at the foundation of all government and the enfranchisement of a race to day thus becomes the assertion and promise of a true and coming Emancipation for all men When Abraham Lincoln called from the humblest rank in life to preside over the nation during the most momentous period of its history uttered his Proclamation of Freedom shattering forever the chains which bound four millions of human beings in slavery an act unparalleled for moral grandeur in the history of mankind it was evident to all who sought beneath the surface for the cause of the war that the crisis was past that so surely as Heaven is on the side of Right and Justice the North would triumph in the great struggle which had assumed the form of a direct issue between Freedom and Slavery In common with many others I had from the beginning of the war believed that the government would not be successful in putting down a rebellion based upon slavery as its avowed corner stone without striking a death blow at the institution itself As the months went on and disappointment and disaster succeeded one another this conviction deepened into certainty When at length in obedience to what seemed the very voice of God the thunderbolt was launched and like the first gun at Concord was heard around the world all the enthusiasm of my nature was kindled The beast Secession offspring of the dragon Slavery drawing in his train a third part of our national stars was pierced with the deadly wound which could not be healed It was the combat between Michael and Satan of Apocalyptic vision re nacted before the eyes of the nineteenth century
