William Wordsworth

A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

Landscape With Female Figure 1982 201:

The Poetry of Place Louisa Mackenzie, 2011-01-01 The sixteenth century in France was marked by religious warfare and shifting political and physical landscapes Between 1549 and 1584 however the Pl iade poets including Pierre de Ronsard Joachim Du Bellay R my Belleau and Antoine de Ba f produced some of the most abiding and irenic depictions of rural French landscapes ever written In The Poetry of Place Louisa Mackenzie reveals and analyzes the cultural history of French paysage through her study of lyric poetry and its connections with landscape painting cartography and land use history In the face of destructive environmental change lyric poets in Renaissance France often wrote about idealized physical spaces reclaiming the altered landscape to counteract the violence and loss of the period and creating in the process what Mackenzie following David Harvey terms spaces of hope This unique alliance of French Renaissance studies with cultural geography and eco criticism demonstrates that sixteenth century poetry created a powerful sense of place which continues to inform national and regional sentiment today

Religion in Roman Britain Mr Martin Henig, Martin Henig, 2003-09-02 Using a wide range of archaeological evidence Dr Henig shows that the Roman element in religion was of much greater significance in Britain and that the natural Roman veneration for the gods gave way to meaningful expression

Landscape Theory in Design Susan Herrington, 2016-12-08 Phenomenology Materiality Cybernetics Palimpsest Cyborgs Landscape Urbanism Typology Semiotics Deconstruction the minefield of theoretical ideas that students must navigate today can be utterly confusing and how do these theories translate to the design studio Landscape Theory in Design introduces theoretical ideas to students without the use of jargon or an assumption of extensive knowledge in other fields and in doing so links these ideas to the processes of design In five thematic chapters Susan Herrington explains the theoretic groundings of the theory of philosophy why it matters to design an example of the theory in a work of landscape architecture from the twentieth and twenty first centuries debates surrounding the theory particularly as they elaborate modern and postmodern thought and primary readings that can be read as companions to her text An extensive glossary of theoretical terms also adds a vital contribution to students comprehension of theories relevant to the design of landscapes and gardens Covering the design of over 40 landscape architects architects and designers in 111 distinct projects from 20 different countries Landscape Theory in Design is essential reading for any student of the landscape

Readings of Trauma, Madness, and the Body S. Anderson, 2012-09-14 In Readings of Trauma Madness and the Body Anderson explores how Modernist fiction narratives by Hemingway the Fitzgeralds and H D represent trauma specifically addressing the conflict between speaking about and repressing traumatic memories while also considering how authors understandings of gender influence their depictions

Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh, 2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women s involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women s sexualized experiences the analysis draws on a range of different theoretical understandings that address power privilege and the gaze An important contribution to a range of debates this book will appeal to students and researchers in tourism geography sociology gender studies and cultural theory Royal Academy Exhibitors, 1971-1989 Charles Baile de Laperriere, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 1989 Aesthetics and Art Jianping Gao, 2018-05-12 This book introduces traditional and modern aesthetics and arts comparing the similarities and differences between traditional and modern Chinese aesthetics It also explores the aesthetic implications of traditional Chinese paintings and discusses the development of aesthetics throughout history as well as the changes and improvements in Chinese aesthetics in the context of globalization New York Magazine , 1985-11-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Monuments to the Lost Cause Cynthia Mills, Cynthia J. Mills, Pamela Hemenway Simpson, 2003 This richly illustrated collection of fourteen essays examines the ways in which Confederate memorials from Monument Avenue to Stone Mountain and the public rituals surrounding them testify to the tenets of the Lost Cause a romanticized narrative of the war Several essays highlight the creative leading role played by women s groups in memorialization while others explore the alternative ways in which people outside white southern culture wrote their very different histories on the southern landscape The authors who include Richard Guy Wilson Catherine W Bishir W Fitzhugh Brundage and William M S Ramussen trace the origins objectives and changing consequences of Confederate monuments over time and the dynamics of individuals and organizations that sponsored them Thus these essays extend the growing literature on the rhetoric of the Lost Cause by shifting the focus to the realm of the visual They are especially relevant in the present day when Confederate symbols and monuments continue to play a central role in a public and often emotionally charged debate about how the South s past should be remembered The editors Art Historian Cynthia Mills a specialist in nineteenth century public sculpture is executive editor of American Art the scholarly journal of the Smithsonian American Art Museum Pamela H Simpson is the Ernest Williams II Professor of Art History at Washington and Lee University She is the coauthor of The Architecture of Historic Lexington The Artists Bluebook, 2005 all of the artist names listed on AskART com

Studies in the Spectator Role Michael Benton, 2017-09-25 Michael Benton's book develops the concept of spectatorship as an answer to these questions It explores the similarities and differences in our experiences of literature and the visual arts and discusses their implications for pedagogy and their applications in cross curricular work in the classroom Teachers will find that while many of the visual and verbal texts may be familiar the approaches to them offer fresh insights and a rich agenda for the classroom Shakespeare Fielding Hogarth Blake Wordsworth Constable Turner the Pre Raphaelites Wilfred Owen Paul Nash Stanley Spencer Ted Hughes and Seamus Heaney the range of authors and artists discussed is both extensive and relevant to the National Curriculum and to post 16 and undergraduate courses

Knowledge Networks and Craft Traditions in the Ancient World Katharina Rebay-Salisbury, Ann Brysbaert, Lin Foxhall, 2014-08-07 This edited volume investigates knowledge networks based on materials and associated technologies in Prehistoric Europe and the Classical Mediterranean It emphasises the significance of material objects to the construction maintenance and collapse of networks of various forms which are central to explanations of cultural contact and change Focusing on the materiality of objects and on the way in which materials are used adds a multidimensional quality to networks The properties functions and styles of different materials are intrinsically linked to the way in which knowledge flows and technologies are transmitted Transmission of technologies from one craft to another is one of the main drivers of innovation whilst sharing knowledge is enabled and limited by the extent of associated social networks in place Archaeological research has often been limited to studying objects made of one particular material in depth be it lithic materials ceramics textiles glass metal wood or others The knowledge flow and transfer between crafts that deal with different materials have often been overlooked This book takes a fresh approach to the reconstruction of knowledge networks by integrating two or more craft traditions in each of its chapters The authors well known experts and early career researchers provide concise case studies that cover a wide range of materials The scope of the book extends from networks of craft traditions to implications for society in a wider sense materials objects and the technologies used to make and distribute them are interwoven with social meaning People make objects but objects make people the materiality of objects shapes our understanding of the world and our place within it In this book objects are treated as clues to social networks of different sorts that can be contrasted and compared both spatially and diachronically

The Form of Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert, 2008-04-15 The Form of Cities offers readers a considered theoretical introduction to the art of designing cities Demonstrates that cities are replete with symbolic values collective memory association and conflict Proposes a new theoretical understanding of urban design based in political economy Demonstrates different ways of conceptualising the city whether through aesthetics or the prism of gender for example Written in an engaging and jargon free style but retains a sophisticated interpretative edge Complements Designing Cities by the same author Blackwell 2003

Body as Evidence Janell Hobson, 2012-10-18 In Body as Evidence Janell Hobson challenges postmodernist dismissals of identity politics and the delusional belief that the Millennial era reflects a postracial and postfeminist world Hobson points to diverse examples in cultural narratives which suggest that new media rely on old ideologies in the shaping of the body politic Body as Evidence creates a theoretical mash up of prose and poetry to illuminate the ways that bodies still matter as sites of political cultural and digital resistance It does so by examining various representations from popular shows like American Idol to public figures like the Obamas to high profile cases like the Duke lacrosse rape scandal to current trends in digital culture Hobson s study also discusses the women who have fueled and retooled twenty first century media to make sense of antiracist and feminist resistance Her discussions include the electronica of Janelle Mon e M I A and Bj rk the feminist film odysseys of Wanuri Kahiu and Neloufer Pazira and the embodied resistance found simply in raising one s voice in song creating a blog wearing a veil stripping naked or planting a tree Spinning knowledge out of this information overload Hobson offers a global black feminist meditation on how our bodies mobilize destabilize and decolonize the meanings of race and gender in an increasingly digitized and globalized world

Provincial Landscapes Donald J. Raleigh, 2011-12-12 The closed nature of the Soviet Union combined with the West s intellectual paradigm of Communist totalitarianism prior to the 1970s have led to a one dimensional view of Soviet history both in Russia and the West The opening of former Soviet archives allows historians to explore a broad array of critical issues at the local level Provincial Landscapes is the first publication to begin filling this enormous gap in scholarship on the Soviet Union pointing the way to additional work that will certainly force major reevaluations of the nation's history Focusing on the years between the Revolution and Stalin's death the contributors to this volume address a variety of topics including how political events and social engineering played themselves out at the local level the construction of Bolshevik identities including class gender ethnicity and place the Soviet cultural project and the hybridization of Soviet cultural forms In showing how the local is related to the larger society the essays decenter standard narratives of Soviet history enrich the understanding of major events and turning points in that history and provide a context for the highly visible socio-political and cultural role individual Russian provinces began to play after the breakup of the Soviet Union
