Landscape Of Terror In Between Hope And Memory:

Territories of Difference Arturo Escobar, 2008-11-26 Through analysis of the Colombian Pacific's geography, peoples and environment, Escobar questions the place assigned to epistemology, politics and the economy in modernity, arguing that hierarchical privilege can be subverted via activists' entanglement. Sleepers, Moles and Martyrs Regina Bendix, John Bendix, 2004 The symposium Sleepers, Moles and Martyrs: Secret Identifications, Societal Integration and the Differing Meanings of Freedom held in Reinhausen 2002 formed the basis of this publication. Occasioned by the social, political and mass media discourses after the bombings of New York's World Trade Center on September 11, 2001, an interdisciplinary group of scholars came together to explore the connotations and implications of the term sleeper. The biographies of terrorist perpetrators are but one of many permutations of sleeper-like phenomena in late modern politics. Clandestine operatives of the state are sleepers, and both willing and unwilling victims of terrorism are discursively transformed from sleepers into martyrs. Starting with analyses of the discourses about sleepers in Part I, their historical antecedents, narrative employment and semantic differentiation, Part II turns to the hidden or unspoken aspects of the state, the challenge of fundamentalist terrorism to the modern political project and the tensions between neighbourly discourse, public display and the state. Part III juxtaposes changing depictions of Shiite martyrdom with the violence done to the term martyr within the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. In Part IV, cultural secrets encoded in memorials and public silences in academic discourse are addressed. The different cases assembled offer comparative materials and perspectives from the USA, France, the Netherlands, Pakistan, Spain, Iran, Israel, Istria and Sweden. Future Theory Patricia Waugh, Marc Botha, 2021-04-08 By interrogating the terms and concepts most central to cultural change, Future Theory interrogates how theory can play a central role in dynamic transition. It demonstrates how entangled the highly politicized spheres of cultural production, scientific invention and intellectual discourse are in the contemporary world and how new concepts and forms of thinking are crucial to embarking upon change. Future Theory is built around five key concepts: change, boundaries, ruptures, assemblages, horizons, examined by leading international thinkers to build a vision of how theory can be applied to a constantly shifting world. Memory and Complicity Debarati Sanyal, 2015-03-02 A sophisticated, nuanced and beautifully written account of the intersecting legacies of genocide and colonialism in postwar France. Michael Rothberg, author of Multidirectional Memory: Remembering the Holocaust in the Age of Decolonization. Since World War II, French and Francophone literature and film have repeatedly sought not to singularize the Holocaust as the paradigm of historical trauma but rather to connect its memory with other memories of violence, namely that of colonialism. These works produced what Debarati Sanyal calls a memory in complicity, attuned to the gray zones that implicate different regimes of violence across history as well as those of different subject positions such as victim, perpetrator, witness and reader-spectator. Examining a range of works from Albert Camus, Primo Levi, Alain Resnais and Jean-Paul Sartre to Jonathan Littell, Assia Djebar, Giorgio Agamben and Boualem Sansal, Memory and

Complicity develops an inquiry into the political force and ethical dangers of such implications contrasting them with contemporary models for thinking about trauma and violence and offering an extended meditation on the role of aesthetic form especially allegory within acts of transhistorical remembrance What are the political benefits and ethical risks of invoking the memory of one history in order to address another What is the role of complicity in making these connections How does complicity rather than affect based discourses of trauma shame and melancholy open a critical engagement with the violence of history What is it about literature and film that have made them such powerful vehicles for this kind of connective memory work As it offers new readings of some of the most celebrated and controversial novelists filmmakers and playwrights from the French speaking world Memory and Complicity addresses these questions in order to reframe the way we think about historical memory and its political uses today

The Persistence of Memory Jessica Moody, 2020 The Persistence of Memory tells the history of the public memory of transatlantic slavery in the largest slave trading port city in the world from the end of the 18th century into the 21st century revealing the persistence of slavery memory in Liverpool as an ongoing contested debate

Map-making, Landscapes and Memory William J. Smyth, 2006 This is the first engagement in one book by a geographer with the most formative and revolutionary period c 1530 1750 in Ireland's history Using the intertwined concepts of colonialism and early modernity the book comprises a geographical analysis of the conquest and settlement of Ireland by the New English and Scottish The consequences of this often violent intrusion upon the cultures and landscapes of pre-existing Irish societies are examined The geographies of resistance or accommodation to conquest and colonisation and the striking cultural continuities and hybrid cultural forms that emerged from these encounters are explored and regionalised

BOOK JACKET Perspectives on the Holocaust R.L. Braham, 2013-04-17 The number of books and articles dealing with various aspects of World War II has increased at a phenomenal rate since the end of the hostilities Perhaps no other chapter in this bloodiest of all wars has received as much attention as the Holocaust The Nazis program for the Final Solution of the Jewish Question this ideologically conceived diabolical plan for the physical liquidation of European Jewry has emerged as a subject of agonizing and intense interest to laypersons and scholars alike The centrality of the Holocaust in the study of the Third Reich and the Nazi phenomenon is almost universally recognized The source materials for many of the books published during the immediate postwar period were the notes and diaries kept by many camp and ghetto dwellers who were sustained during their unbelievable ordeal by the unusual drive to bear witness These were supplemented after the liberation by a large number of personal narratives collected from survivors all over Europe Understandably the books published shortly after the war ended were mainly martyrological and lachrymological reflecting the trauma of the Holocaust at the personal individual level These were soon followed by a considerable number of books dealing with the moral and religious questions revolving around the role of the lay and spiritual leaders of the doomed Jewish communities especially those involved in the Jewish Councils as well as God's responsibility toward the chosen people

Memory and

Identity in Modern and Postmodern American Literature Lovorka Gruic Grmusa, Biljana Oklopcic, 2022-09-16 This book discusses how American literary modernism and postmodernism interconnect memory and identity and if and how the intertwining of memory and identity has been related to the dominant socio cultural trends in the United States or the specific historical contexts in the world The book's opening chapter is the interrogation of the narrator's memories of Jay Gatsby and his life in F Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby The second chapter shows how in William Faulkner's Light in August memory impacts the search for identities in the storylines of the characters The third chapter discusses the correlation between memory self and culture in Tennessee Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire Discussing Robert Coover's Gerald's Party the fourth chapter reveals that memory and identity are contextualized and that cognitive processes including memory are grounded in the body's interaction with the environment featuring dehumanized characters whose identities appear as role plays The subsequent chapter is the analysis of how Jonathan Safran Foer's Everything Is Illuminated deals with the heritage of Holocaust memories and postmemories The last chapter focuses on Thomas Pynchon's Against the Day the reconstructive nature of memory and the politics and production of identity in Southeastern Europe

Terrorism in American Memory Marita Sturken, 2022-01-18 Introduction The Politics of Memory in the Post 9 11 Era Monuments and Voids The Proliferation of 9 11 Memory The Objects That Lived the Voices That Remain The 9 11 Museum Global Architecture Patriotic Skyscrapers and a Cathedral Shopping Mall The Rebuilding of Lower Manhattan Visibility and Erasure Memory and the Global War on Terror The Memory of Racial Terror The National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Legacy Museum

Terrorism and the Politics of Naming Michael Bhatia, 2013-10-18 Previously published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly this volume assesses the nature power role and function of names in global politics and the international media Names are not objective they accrue subjective associations for example Terrorist has a very different connotation to Freedom fighter The contributors seek the truth beneath the names assigned in an effort to remove the obscurity created by the power of the politics of naming to the reality of the situation taking examples from Al Qaeda Russia's demonization of the Chechens and naming in the Israeli Palestine conflict among other important contemporary debates Terrorism and the Politics of Naming makes a substantial contribution towards elucidating the power of naming in the discourse of conflict and will be of great interest to students and scholars of political philosophy political theory and politics and the media

Planetary Memory in Contemporary American Fiction Lucy Bond, Ben De Bruyn, Jessica Rapson, 2019-10-23 This book considers the ways in which contemporary American fiction seeks to imagine a mode of planetary memory able to address the scalar and systemic complexities of the Anthropocene the epoch in which the combined activity of the human species has become a geological force in its own right Authors examine the recent emergence of a literary and cultural imaginary of planetary memory an imaginary which attempts to give form to the complex interrelations between human and non human worlds between local national and global concerns and perhaps most importantly between historical and geological pasts presents and futures Chapters highlight distinct regions and landscapes of the US from the Appalachians to the South West the Rust Belt New York City Alaska New Orleans and the Rocky Mountains in order to examine how the ecological economic and historical specificity of these environments is underpinned by their implication on networks of planetary significance and scope Overall the collection aims to study develop and recognise new models of cultural memory and anxious anticipation as they emerge and evolve thus opening new conversations about practices of remembering and remembrance on an increasingly fragile planet This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice
