Landscape Painting In Contemporary China:

Landscape Painting in Contemporary China, 1984 Jizi and His Art in Contemporary China David Adam Brubaker, Chunchen Wang, 2015-02-12 This interdisciplinary study promotes the thesis that some contemporary Chinese ink artists succeed in using principles of traditional Chinese aesthetics to convey the union of self with nature others and the universe The investigation is a case study of the writings and paintings of Jizi an ink wash artist in Beijing who combines images of icy mountains Tibetan landscapes cosmic vistas and enclosures of personal existence Jizi s success in expressing the unification of these dimensions is confirmed by developing and applying an interpretation of Jing Hao s classic description of the authentic image which resonates with the vitality of nature To find words for resonance with visible nature the inquiry extends to such writers as Li Zehou Arthur Danto and Maurice Merleau Ponty In short an account of authenticity in Chinese ink painting is offered experimentally as a means for assessing whether contemporary Chinese artworks are expressive of Chinese philosophy and culture The text includes stylistic comparisons with artists such as E C Escher Guo Xi Jia Youfu Liu Guosong Rene Magritte Piet Mondrian and Xu Bing The result is an appreciation of the healing influence of Chinese ink art in a global culture that is vibrant complex diverse and affirming of the present In this rigorous far reaching and original analysis of contemporary ink art painting Brubaker and Wang focus our attention on the work of one independent painter Jizi whose work exemplifies an uncanny marriage between ink art and contemporary concerns In the central chapters Brubaker persuasively argues that in this work Jizi captures principles essential to traditional Chinese aesthetics articulated in terms of wholeness emptiness and visibility that enable the works to express the unification of the self with nature and the universe as a whole It does this through forms that are innovative and part of artistic practices and discourses that are becoming increasingly global Mary Wiseman The City University of New York This important publication focuses on the evocative ink wash paintings of an artist who has over the course of decades demonstrated an unwavering commitment to exploring the technical formal philosophical and experiential dimensions of his chosen medium The essays commentaries and critical reflections collected in this volume present unique perspectives on Jizi s practice significantly contributing to the growing body of scholarship on the continuing vitality of the ink wash tradition in the global contemporary Dr Wenny Teo The Courtauld Institute of Art Through an in depth study of the ink painting practice of contemporary Chinese artist Jizi the authors discover Chinese ink painting s philosophical perspectives cosmic foundations and contemporary possibilities They also uncovered a way to enter into the artist s rich and profound spiritual world through Jizi s expansive visual patterning and refined spiritual imagery he activates a long and great cultural tradition Yu Yang Central Academy of Fine Arts Longing for Nature: Reading Landscapes in Chinese Art Kim Karlsson, Alfreda Murck, Ching-Ling Wang, 2020 The secret language of Chinese landscape painting A genre dating back more than 1 000 years China s landscape painting tradition reflects all of its cultural and intellectual history and its representational language famously follows its own rules What at first glance seem to be idyllic ink wash pictures actually depict far more than romantic landscapes Through subtle allusions and references Chinese landscape painters were able to convey a whole range of messages from social positions to political opposition all the way to philosophical observations and very personal feelings This splendid illustrated volume unlocks these codes and juxtaposes important historical works with landscape paintings by internationally renowned modern and contemporary artists The dialogue between past and present reveals surprising links but also ruptures and conflicts

Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu,2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly Examining this long overlooked ocular turn Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there

A New Thoughtfulness in Contemporary China Jörg Huber,Zhao Chuan,2014-03-15 Globalization euphoria and enthusiasm for the West are on the decline in contemporary China Critical voices make themselves heard in artistic and cultural circles turning towards their personal everyday lives to take stock Their questions revolve around concrete experiences in the radical upheaval of lifeworlds the continued significance of traditions after many of them have been thoroughly uprooted and the paradoxes produced by the predominance of neo liberalism The 17 positions assembled in this volume provide a vivid illustration of such a new thoughtfulness in a wide variety of aspects ranging from aesthetics and art to theatre and photography

Chinese Landscape Painting as Western Art History James Elkins,2010-06-01 This is a provocative essay of reflections on traditional mainstream scholarship on Chinese art as done by towering figures in the field such as James Cahill and Wen Fong James Elkins offers an engaging and accessible survey of his personal journey encountering and interpreting Chinese art through Western scholars writings He argues that the search for optimal comparisons is itself a modern Western interest and that art history as a discipline is inherently Western in several identifiable senses Although he concentrates on art history in this book and on Chinese painting in particular these issues bear implications for Sinology in general and for wider questions about humanistic inquiry and historical writing Jennifer Purtle s Foreword provides a useful counterpoint from the perspective of a

Chinese art specialist anticipating and responding to other specialists likely reactions to Elkins's hypotheses The Art of Modern China Julia F. Andrews, Kuiyi Shen, 2012-09-24 In the early twenty first century China occupies a place on center stage in the international art world But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist in the modern age This first comprehensive study of modern Chinese art history traces its evolution chronologically and thematically from the Age of Imperialism to the present day Julia Andrews and Kuiyi Shen pay particular attention to the dynamic tension between modernity and tradition as well as the interplay of global cosmopolitanism and cultural nationalism This lively accessible and beautifully illustrated text will serve and enlighten scholars students collectors and anyone with an interest in Asian art and artists

China—Art—Modernity David Clarke, 2019-01-22 China Art Modernity provides a critical introduction to modern and contemporary Chinese art as a whole It illuminates what is distinctive and significant about the rich range of art created during the tumultuous period of Chinese history from the end of Imperial rule to the present day The story of Chinese art in the twentieth and twenty first centuries is shown to be deeply intertwined with that of the country's broader socio political development with art serving both as a tool for the creation of a new national culture and as a means for critiquing the forms that culture has taken The book's approach is inclusive In addition to treating art within the Chinese Mainland itself during the Republican and Communist eras for instance it also looks at the art of colonial Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora Similarly it gives equal prominence to artists employing tools and idioms of indigenous Chinese origin and those who engage with international styles and contemporary media In this way it writes China into the global story of modern art as a whole at a moment in intellectual history when Western centred stories of modern and contemporary culture are finally being recognized as parochial and inadequate Assuming no previous background knowledge of Chinese history and culture this concise yet comprehensive and richly illustrated book will appeal to those who already have an established interest in modern Chinese art and those for whom this is a novel topic It will be of particular value to students of Chinese art or modern art in general but it is also for those in the wider reading public with a curiosity about modern China At a time when that country has become a major actor on the world stage in all sorts of ways accessible sources of information concerning its modern visual culture are nevertheless surprisingly scarce As a consequence a fully nuanced picture of China's place in the modern world remains elusive China Art Modernity is a timely remedy for that situation Here is a book that offers a comprehensive account of the dizzying transformations of Chinese art and society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Breaking free of conventional dichotomies between traditional and modern Chinese and Western that have hobbled earlier studies Clarke's highly original book is exactly what I would assign my own students Anyone eager to understand developments in China within the global history of modern art should read this book Robert E Harrist Jr Columbia University Clarke's book presents a critically astute mapping of the arts of modern and contemporary China It highlights the significance of urban and industrial contexts migration diasporas and the margins of the mainland while imaginatively seeking to inscribe its subject into the broader story of modern art A timely and reliable intervention and indispensable for the student and non specialist reader Shane McCausland SOAS University of London

Visual Representations of the Cold War and Postcolonial Struggles Midori Yamamura, Yu-Chieh Li, 2021-06-24 The essays and artworks gathered in this volume examine the visual manifestations of postcolonial struggles in art in East and Southeast Asia as the world transitioned from the communist capitalist ideological divide into the new global power structure under neoliberalism that started taking shape during the Cold War The contributors to this volume investigate the visual art that emerged in Australia China Cambodia Indonesia Korea Okinawa and the Philippines With their critical views and new approaches the scholars and curators examine how visual art from postcolonial countries deviated from the communist capitalist dichotomy to explore issues of identity environment rapid commercialization of art and independence These foci offer windows into some lesser known aspects of the Cold War including humanistic responses to the neo imperial exploitations of people and resources as capitalism transformed into its most aggressive form Given its unique approach this seminal study will be of great value to scholars of 20th century East Asian and Southeast Asian art history and visual and cultural studies

Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan, 2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere

Urbanization and Contemporary Chinese Art Meiqin Wang, 2015-08-11 This book explores the relationship between the ongoing urbanization in China and the production of contemporary Chinese art since the beginning of the twenty first century Wang provides a detailed analysis of artworks and methodologies of art making from eight contemporary artists who employ a wide range of mediums including painting sculpture photography installation video and performance She also sheds light on the relationship between these artists and their sociocultural origins investigating their provocative responses to various processes and problems brought about by Chinese urbanization With this urbanization comes a fundamental shift of the philosophical and aesthetic foundations in the practice of Chinese art from a strong affiliation with nature and countryside to one that is complexly associated with the city and the urban world The Complete Idiot's Guide to Modern China Vanessa Lide Whitcomb, Michael Benson, 2002-09-01 This work provides an informative guide to the roots of modern China It also looks at the key challenges and opportunities that face China in the 21st century Ink Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013 Featuring 70 works in various media paintings calligraphy photographs woodblock prints video and sculpture that were created during the past three decades Ink Art Past as Present in Contemporary China will demonstrate how China's ancient pattern of seeking cultural renewal through the reinterpretation of past models remains a viable creative path Although all of the artists have transformed their sources through new modes of expression visitors will recognize thematic aesthetic or technical attributes in their creations that have meaningful links to China's artistic past The exhibition will be organized thematically into four parts and will include such highlights as Xu Bing's dramatic Book from the Sky ca 1988 an installation that will fill an entire gallery Family Tree 2000 a set of vivid photographs documenting a performance by Zhang Huan in which his facial features and his identity are obscured gradually by physiognomic texts that are inscribed directly onto his face and Map of China 2006 by Ai Weiwei which is constructed entirely of wood salvaged from demolished Qing dynasty temples

The Making of a Modern Art World Pedith Pui Chan, 2017-03-06 The Making of A Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai's art world Using guohua as the point of entry this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts In the light of the sociological definition of art world this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai examining newly adopted modern artistic practices namely art associations periodicals art colleges exhibitions and the art market

Transmedial Landscapes and Modern Chinese Painting Juliane Noth, 2023-11-20 Chinese ink painters of the Republican period 1911-1949 creatively engaged with a range of art forms in addition to ink such as oil painting drawing photography and woodblock prints They transformed their medium of choice in innovative ways reinterpreting both its history and its theoretical foundations Juliane Noth offers a new understanding of these compelling experiments in Chinese painting by studying them as transmedial practice at once shaped by and integral to the modern global art world Transmedial Landscapes and Modern Chinese Painting shines a spotlight on the mid 1930s a period of intense productivity in which Chinese artists created an enormous number of artworks and theoretical texts The book focuses on the works of three seminal artists Huang Binhong He Tianjian and Yu Jianhua facilitating fresh insights into this formative stage of their careers and into their collaborations in artworks and publications In a nuanced reading of paintings photographs and literary and theoretical texts Noth shows how artworks and discussions about the future of ink painting were intimately linked to the reshaping of the country through infrastructure development and tourism thus leading to the creation of a uniquely modern Chinese landscape imagery
