 Adams, 2012-09-01 From Storyville brothels and narratives of turn of the century New Orleans to plantation tours Bette Davis films Elvis memorials Willa Cather s fiction and the annual prison rodeo held at the Louisiana State Penitentiary at Angola Jessica Adams considers spatial and ideological evolutions of southern plantations after slavery In Wounds of Returning Adams shows that the slave past returns to inhabit plantation landscapes that have been radically transformed by tourism consumer culture and modern modes of punishment even those landscapes from which slavery has supposedly been banished completely Adams explores how the commodification of black bodies during slavery did not disappear with abolition rather the same principle was transformed into modern consumer capitalism As Adams demonstrates however counternarratives and unexpected cultural hybrids erupt out of attempts to re create the plantation as an uncomplicated scene of racial relationships or a signifier of national unity Peeling back the layers of plantation landscapes Adams reveals connections
