Language Teaching in the Linguistic Landscape David Malinowski, Hiram H. Maxim, Sébastien Dubreil, 2021-02-04

This book builds upon the growing field of Linguistic Landscape in order to demonstrate the power of a spatialized approach to language culture and literacy education as it opens classrooms and cultivates new competencies. The chapters develop major themes including reimagining language curricula, language classrooms and schools, and schoolscapes in dialogue with the heteroglossic discourses of the local, developing L2 learners' symbolic translingual competencies through engagement with situated multimodal texts, fostering critical social awareness through language study in the linguistic landscape, expanding opportunities for situated L2 reading and writing, and cultivating language students' capacities for engaged scholarship and research in out-of-class contexts. By exploring the pedagogical possibilities of place-based approaches to literacy development, this volume contributes to the reimagining of language education through the linguistic landscape.
