Language Awareness By Eschholz:

Language Awareness Paul A. Eschholz, Alfred F. Rosa, Virginia P. Clark, 2000 Engaging students with the power of language in everyday life Ideal for the composition classroom the thematic focus on language in Language Awareness allows students to study compelling topics such as Prejudice Stereotypes and Language Chapter 8 and The Language of Persuasion Politics and Advertising Chapter 12 while fostering an appreciation of the richness and vitality of the English language Chosen particularly for their insight and appeal to students the 70 readings by well known writers and language experts encourage students to think carefully about the many dimensions of language culture and communication and to use their own language more responsibly and effectively in speech and in writing 4 full chapters on writing Language Awareness offers more writing coverage than any other reader of its kind and this edition includes four new chapters Along with three student papers these 70 pages on the essentials of college writing introduce students to the writing process and cover the types of writing most often assigned to first year college students writing from experience writing from reading and writing from research with MLA style documentation Documents for analysis and writing after every essay and every chapter Called Language in Action the documents that appear after every single essay include advertisements screen shots of Web pages cartoons corporate documents poems magazine quizzes humorous e

Language Awareness Paul Eschholz, Alfred Rosa, Virginia Clark, 2019-08-15 Language Awareness helps students understand that writing makes things happen in the world This collection teaches students how language operates and how it evolves over time and this understanding in turn helps students use language more effectively in their own writing The supportive apparatus includes unique Language in Action activities which connect the everyday and the academic by examining current language related debates that deepen students understanding of each reading This beloved reader has stood the test of time and has been revised with feedback from instructors across the country The new edition features a blend of classic and contemporary readings that examine a wide range of topics through the lens of language New readings include a range of perspectives around current topics like fake news gender neutral pronouns and the MeToo movement

Language Awareness Paul A. Eschholz, Alfred F. Rosa, Virginia P. Clark, 2000 Language Awareness Paul A. Eschholz, Alfred F. Rosa, Virginia P. Clark, 2016 Immediately and universally relevant language is the ideal theme to explore in a composition course Language Awareness collects contemporary and classic readings about language that not only make students more aware of its uses and more capable of analyzing its effects but also help them to deploy language more effectively in their own writing New coverage in the eleventh edition provides even more advice on critical reading and working with sources while a new organization focuses each short chapter on a single cohesive theme In addition insightful Language in Action activities help students connect what they learn about language to what they observe in their daily lives Language Awareness Paul Eschholz, 2009 The New Peace Linguistics and the Role of Language in Conflict Andy Curtis, 2022-01-01 The idea of Peace Linguistics PL has been around for decades However the practice of PL has only occurred much more recently only within the last few years since the first creditbearing university level PL course was taught at Brigham Young University Hawaii in 2017 Since then the field of NPL has grown beyond its original goals of using peaceful language and language that avoids or de escalates conflict The New Peace Linguistics NPL focuses on in depth systematic analyses of the spoken and written language of some of the most powerful people in the world such as presidents of the USA as it is they who have the power to start wars or to bring peace As the first book to be published on PL and on NPL this work represents a ground breaking study of the power of language to hurt and harm or to help and give hope The first four chapters of the book which provide the foundation on which the rest of the book is built introduce the concept of Peace Linguistics and the New Peace Linguistics starting with the origins of PL and coming to the present day The remaining Part Two and Part Three chapters present in depth systematic NPL analyses of George W Bush Colin L Powell Barack H Obama Donald J Trump and Joseph R Biden The concluding chapter reiterates the most important distinguishing and recurring features of NPL and looks at where the field may be headed in the future

Gender and Language in Sub-Saharan Africa Lilian Lem Atanga,Sibonile Edith Ellece,Lia Litosseliti,Jane Sunderland,2013 Gender and Language in Sub Saharan Africa Tradition Struggle and Change is the first book to bring together the topics of language and gender African languages and gender in African contexts and it does so in a descriptive explanatory and critical way Including fascinating new work and new often challenging data from Botswana Chad Ghana Kenya Nigeria and South Africa this collection looks at some traditional uses of language in relation to the gender of its speakers and the gendered nature of the languages themselves it also identifies and explores social change in terms of both gender and sexuality as reflected in and constructed by language and discourse The contributions to this volume are accessibly written and will be of interest to students and established academics working on African sociolinguistics and discourse as well as those whose interest is language gender and sexuality
