Falangist and National Catholic Women in the Spanish Civil War (1936-1939)

Angela Flynn, 2020-03-11. Although there is an established historiography on women's roles during the Spanish Civil War 1936-9, little has been written on Nationalist women in the Republican-held zones. Women were the anti-Republican resisters of the first hour in the capital, but they have been largely overlooked in the historical record. During the bitter civil conflict, a sector of dissident women helped to create a subversive and clandestine national Catholic space in the heart of Republican Madrid. By examining the vital and invisible role played by women within Madrid's fifth column, this monograph offers a new contribution to the gender historiography of the Spanish Civil War and re-evaluates the significance of women in the Nationalist war effort It explores how and why a sector of Falangist and Catholic women decided to mobilise against the legally constituted Popular Front government in support of an undemocratic military coup While women s subversive activities often involved the transgression of traditional gender norms their social and political agency arose within the conditions and precepts of Catholicism and was conceptualised and imagined within new national Catholic discourses of holy Crusade

Experiencing Time in the Early Modern Hispanic World Ariadna García-Bryce, 2023-09-20 This book considers the new ways time was experienced in the sixteenth and seventeenth century Hispanic world in the framework of global Catholicism It underscores the crucial role that the imitation of Christ plays in modeling how representative writers physically and mentally interiorize temporal impermanence as the Messiah s suffering body becomes a paradigmatic as well as malleable marker of the avatars of earthly history Particular attention is paid to the ways in which authors adapt Christ centered conceptions of existence to accommodate both a volatile post eschatological world and the increased dominance of mechanical clock time As novel means of communing with Christ emerge so too do new modes of sensing and understanding time unleashing unprecedented cultural and literary reinvention This is demonstrated through close analyses of writings by such influential figures as Saint Ignatius of Loyola Saint Teresa of vila Carlos de Sig enza y G ngora and Sor Juana In s de la Cruz
