Constructing Japan Beate Loeffler, 2025-09-25 The influence of Japanese art and culture on art in late 19th century Europe and America through collections of objects and knowledge transfer is already recognised However the research in this field often neglects architecture This study takes a new approach placing architecture at the centre Through in depth analysis of contemporary textual and visual sources Beate Loeffler shows how western actors from different backgrounds interpreted Japanese architecture as they experienced it either face to face or via texts and images It unveils a complex process of appropriation and rejection of claim to interpretive sovereignty and fascination with the foreign that led to both new knowledge and cultural clichés

Picturing the Western Front Beatriz Pichel, 2021-05-18 Between 1914 and 1918 military press and amateur photographers produced thousands of pictures Either classified in military archives specially created with this purpose in 1915 collected in personal albums or circulated in illustrated magazines photographs were supposed to tell the story of the war Picturing the Western Front argues that photographic practices also shaped combatants and civilians war experiences Doing photography taking pictures posing for them exhibiting cataloguing and looking at them allowed combatants and civilians to make sense of what they were living through Photography mattered because it enabled combatants and civilians to record events establish or reinforce bonds with one another represent bodies place people and events in imaginative geographies and making things visible while making others such as suicide invisible Photographic practices became thus frames of experience

Promoting the Colonial Idea T. Chafer, A. Sackur, 2001-11-14 Challenging the notion that there was no popular imperialism in France this important new book examines the importance of France's colonial role in the development of French society and culture after 1870 It assesses the impact of colonial propaganda on public attitudes in France and the relationship between French imperialism republicanism and nationalism It analyses metropolitan representations of empire traces the development of a colonial science and discusses the enduring importance of images and symbols of empire in contemporary France It will be of interest to students of imperial social and cultural history as well as to historians of contemporary France Galula A. A.

Pratique de l'exposition en photographie Bryan Peterson,2018-04-26 L'exposition est sans aucun doute la notion la plus délicate à assimiler pour les apprentis photographes Si les progrès technologiques du numérique ont grandement facilité certains réglages il ne reste pas moins nécessaire de comprendre qu'une bonne exposition est issue de la combinaison de la sensibilité ISO film ou capteur de l'ouverture du diaphragme et de la vitesse d'obturation le fameux triangle photographique de Bryan Peterson Dans cet ouvrage plébiscité dans le monde entier vous découvrirez dans un langage simple et avec une progression fluide comment une technique a priori austère peut aisément devenir un outil puissant de créativité photographique Cette 3e édition revue et augmentée vous propose une nouvelle étude approfondie de la photo au flash et notamment des multiples possibilités créatives que l'astuce et la technologie peuvent induire

The Destruction of Art Dario Gamboni,2013-06-01 Last winter a man tried to break Marcel Duchamp's Fountain sculpture The sculpted foot of Michelangelo's David was damaged in 1991 by a purportedly mentally ill artist With each incident intellectuals must confront the unsettling dynamic between destruction and art Renowned art historian Dario Gamboni is the first to tackle this weighty issue in depth exploring specters of censorship iconoclasm and vandalism that surround such acts Gamboni uncovers here a disquieting phenomenon that still thrives today worldwide As he demonstrates through analyses of incidents occurring in nineteenth and twentieth century America and Europe a complex relationship exists among the evolution of modern art destruction of artworks and the long history of iconoclasm From the controversial removal of Richard Serra's Tilted Arc from New York City's Federal Plaza to suffragette protests at London's National Gallery Gamboni probes the concept of artist's rights the power of political protest and how iconoclasm sheds light on society's relationship to art and material culture Compelling and thought provoking The Destruction of Art forces us to rethink the ways that we interact with art and react to its power to shock or subdue

Staging the Nation in an Intermediate Space Fabio Spirinelli,2025-06-30 In Luxembourg the evolution of cultural policy remains underexplored despite its pivotal role in the nation building process This book investigates how national cultural policy evolved from the 1920s to the early 1970s casting Luxembourg as a nationalized intermediate space between French and German influences Featuring a case study of the history and art section of the State Museums the precursor to today's Musée national d'archéologie d'histoire et d'art the book examines the interplay of structures actors and discourses and how a cultural institution was intertwined with cultural policy The study exposes the tensions between adopting external models on the one hand and asserting a distinct national culture amid interventionist policies on the other hand By including the occupation period from 1940 to 1944 it illustrates how Nazi policies challenged Luxembourg's nation building by seeking to integrate it into the Third Reich Combining theoretical analysis with archival research this work offers nuanced insights into nation building processes and is highly relevant for historians cultural policy scholars and museum professionals A

"Jewish Marshall Plan" Laura Hobson Faure, 2022-02-01 While the role the United States played in France's liberation from Nazi Germany is widely celebrated it is less well known that American Jewish individuals and organizations mobilized to reconstruct Jewish life in France after the Holocaust In A Jewish Marshall Plan Laura Hobson Faure explores how American Jews committed themselves and hundreds of millions of dollars to bring much needed aid to their French coreligionists Hobson Faure sheds light on American Jewish chaplains members of the Armed Forces and those involved with Jewish philanthropic organizations who sought out Jewish survivors and became deeply entangled with the communities they helped to rebuild While well intentioned their actions did not always meet the needs and desires of the French Jews A Jewish Marshall Plan examines the complex interactions exchanges and solidarities created between American and French Jews following the Holocaust Challenging the assumption that French Jews were passive recipients of aid this work reveals their work as active partners who negotiated their own role in the reconstruction process

Embracing the Tune of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Laseconde Guerre Mondiale 100 Photographies

In a global taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick conversation, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony developed by the prepared word often disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Laseconde Guerre Mondiale 100 Photographies a charming fictional treasure overflowing with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of this poignant assessment, we can examine the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
