Pastor, Lloyd Hughes Davies, 2012 This volume offers a critical study of a representative selection of Latin American women writers who have made major contributions to all literary genres and represent a wide range of literary perspectives and styles This volume offers a critical study of a representative selection of Latin American women writers who have made major contributions to all literary genres and represent a wide range of literary perspectives and styles Many of these women have attained the highest literary honours Gabriela Mistral won the Nobel Prize in 1945 Clarice Lispector attracted the critical attention of theorists working mainly outside the Hispanic area others have made such telling contributions to particular strands of literature that their names are immediately evocative of specific currents or styles Elena Poniatowska is associated with testimonial writing Isabel Allende and Laura Esquivel are known for the magical realism of their texts others such as Juana de Ibarbourou and Laura Restrepo remain relatively unknown despite their contributions to erotic poetry and to postcolonial prose fiction respectively The distinctiveness of this volume lies in its attention to writers from widely differing historical and social contexts and to the diverse theoretical approaches adopted by the authors Br gida M Pastor teaches Latin American literature and film at the University of Glasgow Her publications include Fashioning Cuban Feminism and Beyond El discurso de Gertrudis G mez de Avellaneda Identidad Femenina y Otridad and Discursos Caribenhos Historia Literatura e Cinema Lloyd Hughes Davies teaches Spanish American Literature at Swansea University His publications include Isabel Allende La casa de los esp ritus and Projections of Peronism in Argentine Autobiography Biography and Fiction International Perspectives in Feminist Ecocriticism Greta Gaard, Simon Estok, Serpil Oppermann, 2013-06-07 Exploring environmental literature from a feminist perspective this volume presents a diversity of feminist ecocritical approaches to affirm the continuing contributions relevance and necessity of a feminist perspective in environmental literature culture and science Feminist ecocriticism has a substantial history with roots in second and third wave feminist literary criticism women s environmental writing and social change activisms and eco cultural critique and yet both feminist and ecofeminist literary perspectives have been marginalized The essays in this collection build on the belief that the repertoire of violence conceptual and literal toward nature and women comprising our daily lives must become central to our ecocritical discussions and that basic literacy in theories about ethics are fundamental to these discussions The book offers an international collection of scholarship that includes ecocritical theory literary criticism and ecocultural analyses bringing a diversity of perspectives in terms of gender sexuality and race Reconnecting with the histories of feminist and ecofeminist literary criticism and utilizing new developments in postcolonial ecocriticism animal studies queer theory feminist and gender studies cross cultural and international ecocriticism this timely volume develops a continuing and international feminist ecocritical perspective on literature language and culture Rewriting Womanhood Nancy LaGreca, 2015-08-26 In Rewriting Womanhood Nancy LaGreca explores the subversive refigurings of womanhood in three novels by women writers La hija del bandido 1887 by Refugio Barrag n de Toscano Mexico 1846 1916 Blanca Sol 1888 by Mercedes Cabello de Carbonera Peru 1845 1909 and Luz y sombra 1903 by Ana Roqu Puerto Rico 1853 1933 While these women were both acclaimed and critiqued in their day they have been largely overlooked by contemporary mainstream criticism Detailed enough for experts yet accessible to undergraduates graduate students and the general reader Rewriting Womanhood provides ample historical context for understanding the key women s issues of nineteenth century

Mexico Peru and Puerto Rico clear definitions of the psychoanalytic theories used to unearth the rewriting of the female self and in depth literary analyses of the feminine agency that Barrag n Cabello and Roqu highlight in their fiction Rewriting Womanhood reaffirms the value of three women novelists who wished to broaden the ruling class definition of woman as mother and wife to include woman as individual for a modern era As such it is an important contribution to women s studies nineteenth century Hispanic studies and sexuality and gender studies

Transnational Borderlands in Women's Global Networks M. Sierra,C. Román-Odio,2011-06-06 Transnational Borderlands The Making of Cultural Resistance in Women s Global Networks investigates the implications of transnational feminist methodologies at multiple levels collective actions theory pedagogy discursive and visual productions It addresses a substantial gap in the field of transnational feminisms namely the absence of a voice that links social and theoretical outcomes to the politics of representation in literature visual art discourses of rights and citizenships and pedagogy The book encompasses three categories of relevance to contemporary transnational methodologies the politics of cultural representation in literature and visual art the de centering of human women s rights and pedagogies of crossing and dissent Given current interest in the cultures of globalization and the role women and other minorities play in them we expect this book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Women s and Gender Studies Borderlands Studies Transnational Studies and to anyone interested in how transnational processes shape a culture of resistance in women s global networks

The Woman in Latin American and Spanish Literature Eva Paulino Bueno,María Claudia André,2014-01-10 Noted scholars of Latin American and Spanish literature here explore the literary history of Latin America through the representation of iconic female characters Focusing both on canonical novels and on works virtually unknown outside their original countries the essays discuss the important ways in which these characters represent nature history race and sex the effects of globalization and the unknowable other They examine how both male and female writers portray Latin American women reinterpreting the dynamics between the genders across boundaries and historical periods Drawing on recent theories in literary criticism gender and Latin American studies these essays illuminate the women characters as conduits for the appreciation of their countries and cultures
