Chicano Authors Bruce-Novoa, 2014-04-15 The need for this book became apparent to Bruce Novoa when he first taught a Chicano culture course in 1970 His students could find no source to satisfy their curiosity about Chicano writers backgrounds opinions and attitudes Chicano Authors Inquiry by Interview provides that information Fourteen leading Chicano authors respond to questions about their personal and educational backgrounds their perception of the role of the Chicano writer and their evaluation of the literary linguistic and sociocultural significance of Chicano literature The authors included are Jos Antonio Villarreal Rolando Hinojosa Sergio Elizondo Miguel M ndez M Abelardo Delgado Jos Montoya Tom s Rivera Estela Portillo Rudolfo A Anaya Bernice Zamora Ricardo S nchez Ron Arias Tino Villanueva and Alurista Each interview is preceded by a brief introductory note which locates the author in the context of Chicano literature and provides a sense of his or her writing Also included are a general introduction to Chicano literature a chronological chart of publications by genre and a selected bibliography The volume will be an essential research tool for the student of Chicano literature and culture and a useful introduction for the general reader Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino, 2015-06-30 In Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino analyzes a new type of literature emerging from artists increased movement and cultural flows spawned by globalization This transcultural literature is produced by authors who write across cultural and national boundaries and who transcend in their lives and creative production the borders of a single culture Dagninos book contains a creative rendition of interviews conducted with five internationally renowned writers Inez Baranay Brian Castro Alberto Manguel Tim Parks and Ilija Trojanow and a critical exegesis reflecting on thematical critical and stylistical aspects By studying the selected authors corpus of work life experiences and cultural orientations Dagnino explores the implicit often subconscious process of cultural and imaginative metamorphosis that leads transcultural writers and their fictionalized characters beyond ethnic national racial or religious loci of identity and identity formation Drawing on the theoretical framework of comparative cultural studies she offers insight into transcultural writing related to belonging hybridity cultural errancy the Other worldviews translingualism deterritorialization neomadism as well as genre thematic patterns and narrative techniques Dagnino also outlines the implications of transcultural writing within the wider context of world literature s and identifies some of the main traits that characterize transcultural novels Clarice Lispector Earl E. Fitz, 2024-04-15 Clarice Lispector From Brazil to the World explains why the Brazilian master was so transformative of modern Brazilian literature and why she has become such a celebrity in the world literature arena This book also shows why Lispector is not one writer as many think but many writers By offering close readings of her novels stories and nonfiction pieces Earl E Fitz shows the diverse sides of her literary world Chapters cover Lispector s devotion to language and its connection to identity her political engagement and her humor eroticism and struggle with the concept of God The last chapter seeks to explain why this most singular of modern

Brazilian writers commands such a passionate global following      Global Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-06-18 Science fiction represents a diverse community of writers and readers that spans the entire world This collection provides a global tour of the genre with essays about Latin American European African Arabic Indian Japanese and Chinese science fiction providing insights about how writers around the world have explored and reinvigorated the genre Essays by prominent critics from five continents inform about particular cultures and analyze representative texts by authors such as Tobias S Buckell Lourenco Mutarelli Stanislaw Lem Masande Ntshanga Tawfiq Al Hakim Anil Menon and Cixin Liu The contributing scholars examine how national experiences have shaped these narratives which often differ strikingly from Anglo American science fiction An introductory survey of foreign language science fiction in the United States endeavors to explain why so many of these texts have remained unknown to Anglophone readers An extensive bibliography lists numerous resources for further study of science fiction from various parts of the world      The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 Raymond L. Williams, 2007-09-21 In this expertly crafted richly detailed guide Raymond Leslie Williams explores the cultural political and historical events that have shaped the Latin American and Caribbean novel since the end of World War II In addition to works originally composed in English Williams covers novels written in Spanish Portuguese French Dutch and Haitian Creole and traces the profound influence of modernization revolution and democratization on the writing of this era Beginning in 1945 Williams introduces major trends by region including the Caribbean and U S Latino novel the Mexican and Central American novel the Andean novel the Southern Cone novel and the novel of Brazil He discusses the rise of the modernist novel in the 1940s led by Jorge Luis Borges s reaffirmation of the right of invention and covers the advent of the postmodern generation of the 1990s in Brazil the Generation of the Crack in Mexico and the McOndo generation in other parts of Latin America An alphabetical guide offers biographies of authors coverage of major topics and brief introductions to individual novels It also addresses such areas as women s writing Afro Latin American writing and magic realism The guide s final section includes an annotated bibliography of introductory studies on the Latin American and Caribbean novel national literary traditions and the work of individual authors From early attempts to synthesize postcolonial concerns with modernist aesthetics to the current focus on urban violence and globalization The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 presents a comprehensive accessible portrait of a thoroughly diverse and complex branch of world literature      Remapping African Literature Olabode Ibironke, 2018-02-12 This book is an exploration of the material conditions of the production of African literature Drawing on the archives of Heinemann s African Writers Series it highlights the procedures relationships demands ideologies and counterpressures engendered by the publication of three major authors Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiongo As a study of the history and techniques of African literary texts this book advances a theory of reciprocity of effects what it terms auto heteronomy to describe the dynamic of formalist activism by which texts anticipate and shape the forces of literary production in advance It serves as a departure from the death of the author thesis by reconsidering the role of the author in African literature and culture industry as well as the influence of African publics on writers aesthetic choices and on the overall processes of production This work is a major contribution to African literary history literary criticism and book history     Dictatorships in the Hispanic World Patricia Swier, Julia Riordan-Goncalves, 2013-07-18 This book broaches a comparative and interdisciplinary approach in its exploration of the phenomenon of the dictatorship in the Hispanic World in the twentieth century Some of the themes explored through a transatlantic perspective include testimonial accounts of violence and resistance in prisons hunger and repression exile silence and intertextuality bildungsroman and the modification of gender roles and the role of trauma and memory within the genres of the novel autobiography testimonial literature the essay documentaries puppet theater poetry and visual art By looking at the similarities and differences of dictatorships represented in the diverse landscapes of Latin America and Spain the authors hope to provide a more panoramic view of the dictatorship that moves beyond historiographical accounts of oppression and engages actively in a more broad dialectics of resistance and a politics of memory     Latin American Writers and the Rise of Hollywood Cinema Jason Borge, 2008-07-23 This book analyzes the initial engagement with Hollywood by key Latin American writers examining the ways in which these writers seized the opportunity to reassert their relevance in the rapidly modernizing public sphere by actively and often subversively mediating encounters between Hollywood and local audiences     Membership and Participation by the U.S. in the International Trade Organization United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1950 Considers 81 H J Res 236     Culture as Soft Power Elisabet Carbó-Catalan, Diana Roig Sanz, 2022-09-06 This book contributes to bridge the gap between different scholarly communities interested in the entanglements of culture and politics in the international arena It sheds light on existing connections in their parallel evolution with a thorough literature review complemented by several case studies showing the fruitful character of their interdisciplinary mobilisation Through the notions of cultural relations intellectual cooperation and cultural diplomacy the book draws on a soft power perspective to offer a shared novel and interdisciplinary theoretical framework to approach cultural institutions and organisations that have been previously examined as isolated objects for example cultural institutes international organisations literary magazines and literary contests The interdisciplinary nature of this volume justifies the relevance of its content for scholars working in the history of international relations international cultural relations and intellectual history comparative literature sociology of literature and global literary studies     Gender and Allegory in Transamerican Fiction and Performance K. Sugg, 2008-10-27 By rethinking contemporary debates regarding the politics of aesthetic forms Gender and Allegory in Transamerican Fiction and Performance explores how allegory can be used to resolve the problem of identity in both political theory and literary studies Examining fiction and performance from Zo Vald s and Cherr e Moraga to Def Poetry Jam and Carmelita Tropicana Sugg suggests that the representational oscillations of allegory can reflect and illuminate the fraught dynamics of identity discourses and categories in the Americas Using a wide array of theoretical and aesthetic sources from the United States Latin America and the Caribbean this book argues for the crucial and potentially transformative role of feminist cultural production in transamerican public cultures Literature and the Global Contemporary Sarah Brouillette, Mathias Nilges, Emilio Sauri, 2017-11-03 This book attempts to understand what contemporary has meant and should mean for literary studies The essays in this volume suggest that an attentive reading of recent global literatures challenges the idea that our contemporary moment is best characterized as a timeless instantaneous now The contributors to this book argue that global literatures help us to conceive of the contemporary as an always plural heterogeneous and contested temporality Far from suggesting that we replace theories of an omnipresent end of history with a traditional single diachronic timeline this book encourages the development of such a timeline's rigorous inverse a synchronic multi-faceted and multi-temporal history of the contemporary in literature and thus of contemporary global literatures It opens up the concept of the contemporary for comparative study by unlocking its temporal logical political and ultimately aesthetic and literary complexity
