William J. Seymour and the Origins of Global Pentecostalism Gastón Espinosa, 2014-08-11 In 1906 William J Seymour 1870 1922 preached Pentecostal revival at the Azusa Street mission in Los Angeles From these and other humble origins the movement has blossomed to 631 million people around the world Gast n Espinosa provides new insight into the life and ministry of Seymour the Azusa Street revival and Seymour s influence on global Pentecostal origins After defining key terms and concepts he surveys the changing interpretations of Seymour over the past 100 years critically engages them in a biography and then provides an unparalleled collection of primary sources all in a single volume He pays particular attention to race relations Seymour s paradigmatic global influence from 1906 to 1912 and the break between Seymour and Charles Parham another founder of Pentecostalism Espinosa's fragmentation thesis argues that the Pentecostal propensity to invoke direct unmediated experiences with the Holy Spirit empowers ordinary people to break the bottle of denominationalism and to rapidly indigenize and spread their message The 104 primary sources include all of Seymour's extant writings in full and without alteration and some of Parham's theological social and racial writings which help explain why the two parted company To capture the revival's diversity and global influence this book includes Black Latino Swedish and Irish testimonies along with those of missionaries and leaders who spread Seymour's vision of Pentecostalism globally

The Spirit of Atonement Steven M. Studebaker,2021-01-14 Steven M Studebaker proposes a Pentecostal approach to a major Christian doctrine the atonement The book moves Pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily Christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of Pentecostal praxis Studebaker examines the irony of Classical Pentecostalism relying on the Christocentrism of Protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the Holy Spirit as well as the Pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis He then develops a Pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the Spirit of Pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of Pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative The result is a Pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and Christology in the biblical narrative of redemption It gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the Holy Spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption The book challenges popular western atonement theologies to re think their Christocentrism and crucicentrism as well as their atomistic tendency to separate soteriology into objective Christological and subjective pneumatological categories
