Landscape With Figures Selected Prose And Writings Penguin Classics:

Landscape with Figures Richard Jefferies, 2013-08-01 Richard Jefferies was the most imaginative and least conventional of nineteenth century observers of the natural world Trekking across the English countryside he recorded his responses to everything from the texture of an owl's feather and noises in the air to the grinding hardship of rural labour This superb selection of his essays and articles shows a writer who is brimming with intense feeling acutely aware of the land and those who work on it and often ambivalent about the countryside Who does it belong to Is it a place an experience or a way of life In these passionate and idiosyncratic writings almost all our current ideas and concerns about rural life can be found Richard Jefferies 1848-1887 was the son of a Wiltshire farmer He never worked the land but made his living from writing trekking across the countryside with his notebook He spent much of his life struggling against poverty and tuberculosis which would eventually kill him at the age of thirty nine As well as being in many ways the father of English nature writing Jefferies also wrote the classic children's book Bevis and the apocalyptic science fiction novel After London Richard Mabey's introduction to his selection of Jefferies work discusses the author's life his views on the paradoxes of rural life and his place in the tradition of nature writers

Selected Prose Charles Lamb, 2013-08-01 This selection brings together the best prose writings of the great early nineteenth century essayist Charles Lamb whose shrewd wit and convivial style have endeared him to generations of readers These pieces include early discussions of Hogarth and Shakespeare masterly essays written under the pen name Elia that range over such subjects as drunkenness witches dreams marriage and the joy of roast pig and letters to Lamb's circle of contemporaries among them Samuel Taylor Coleridge and William Wordsworth Wryly amused by the world allusive searching and endlessly inventive these are the essential works of a master of English prose In his introduction Adam Phillips discusses how Charles Lamb's tragic life and sainted reputation caring for his mentally ill sister Mary belied the quality of his work This edition also includes a biographical index of Lamb's correspondents Charles Lamb 1775-1834 was an English essayist best known for his humorous Essays of Elia from which the essay A Dissertation Upon Roast Pig is taken Lamb enjoyed a rich social life and became part of a group of young writers that included William Hazlitt Percy Bysshe Shelley Lord Byron and Samuel Taylor Coleridge with whom he shared a lifelong friendship Lamb never achieved the same literary success as his friends but his influence on the English essay form cannot be underestimated and his book Specimens of the English Dramatic Poets is remembered for popularising the work of

Shakespeare's contemporaries Landscapes with Absent Figures Philippe Jaccottet, 1997 Last Things Janet Gezari, 2007-02-22 Emily Brontë's poetry is more often celebrated than read. This book seeks to reinstate her poems at the heart of Victorian writing while underlining their relevance. For admirers of Wuthering Heights, this work brings the concerns and methods of the novel into focus by relating them to the poems. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Figures of Radical Absence Alexandra-Ecaterina Irimia, 2023-10-04 What is there to see in invisible artworks, empty books or blank screens? How do formal absences generate meaning? Constructing an argument by way of montage, this book is an annotated inventory of textual, visual and conceptual figures of absence. Spanning different media, it reveals a creative tradition that uses absence not as a negative aesthetic category but as a productive state of radical indeterminacy with its own politics and poetics. Although post-structuralism highlighted the importance of what is offstage, lost, forgotten, hidden or discarded, silent or silenced, the poetics and politics of absence much like its ethics and aesthetics have rarely been discussed across media and disciplines. This book proposes the concept of radical absence to describe a certain tradition of resistance to ontology, predication and representation, contesting their reliance on a metaphysics of presence. Apophatic speech, empty signifiers and figural voids are some of the figures through which radical absence becomes apparent with unprecedented intensity in twentieth-century theory, literature, film and the arts. Phantasmatic and outrageous, such figures play with creative strategies of dematerialization, irony and other forms of discursive undoing. Therefore, absence becomes more than a simple theme; it reflects back on the medium and the meaning-making conditions under which it operates. Elusive and imprecise as an object of study, absence requires more subtle and flexible epistemological frameworks than have been available to date. This monograph proposes we think of it not only as a counter-concept for presence but also, and perhaps more productively, as infinite spacing, deferral, fragmentation and displacement. Contemporary Women's Poetry and Urban Space Z. Skoulding, 2013-10-03 This book focuses on the role of the city and its processes of mutual transformation in poetry by experimental women writers. Readings of their work are placed in the context of theories of urban space while new visions of the contemporary city and its global relationships are drawn from their innovations in language and form. Books in Print, 1991 Landscapes of Realism Dirk Göttsche, Rosa Mucignat, Robert Weninger, 2021-04-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism. While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience, it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity. Landscapes of Realism is a two-volume collaborative interdisciplinary exploration of this vast territory, bringing together leading-edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth-century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape. Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed, discussed and contested across time, space, cultures and media, this first volume tackles in its five core essays and twenty-five case studies such questions as why realism emerged when it did why and how it developed such a transformative dynamic across languages to what extent realist poetics remain central to art and popular culture after 1900 and how generally to reassess realism from a twenty first century comparative perspective National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases
