Landscapes of Holocaust Postmemory Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2011-01-13 How do the spaces of the past stay with us through representations whether literary or photographic How has the Holocaust registered in our increasingly globally connected consciousness What does it mean that this European event is often used as an interpretive or representational touchstone for genocides and traumas globally In this interdisciplinary study Kaplan asks and attempts to answer these questions by looking at historically and geographically diverse spaces photographs and texts concerned with the physical and or mental landscape of the Holocaust and its transformations from the postwar period to the early twenty first century Examining the intersections of landscape postmemory and trauma Kaplan s text offers a significant contribution to our understanding of the spatial visual and literary reach of the Holocaust Landscapes of Holocaust Postmemory Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2011-01-13 How do the spaces of the past stay with us through representations whether literary or photographic How has the Holocaust registered in our increasingly globally connected consciousness What does it mean that this European event is often used as an interpretive or representational touchstone for genocides and traumas globally In this interdisciplinary study Kaplan asks and attempts to answer these questions by looking at historically and geographically diverse spaces photographs and texts concerned with the physical and or mental landscape of the Holocaust and its transformations from the postwar period to the early twenty first century Examining the intersections of landscape postmemory and trauma Kaplan s text offers a significant contribution to our understanding of the spatial visual and literary reach of the Holocaust The Bloomsbury Companion to Holocaust Literature Jenni Adams, 2014-10-23 The Bloomsbury Companion to Holocaust Literature is a comprehensive reference resource including a wealth of critical material on a diverse range of topics within the literary study of Holocaust writing At its centre is a series of specially commissioned essays by leading scholars within the field these address genre specific issues such as the question of biographical and historical truth in Holocaust testimony as well as broader topics including the politics of Holocaust representation and the validity of comparative approaches to the Holocaust in literature and criticism The volume includes a substantial section detailing new and emergent trends within the literary study of the Holocaust a concise glossary of major critical terminology and an annotated bibliography of relevant research material Featuring original essays by Victoria Aarons Jenni Adams Michael Bernard Donals Matthew Boswell Stef Craps Richard Crownshaw Brett Ashley Kaplan and Fernando Herrero Matoses Adrienne Kertzer Erin McGlothlin David Miller and Sue Vice Space in Holocaust Research Janine Fubel, Alexandra Klei, Annika Wienert, 2024-05-20 In recent years the issue of space has sparked debates in the field of Holocaust Studies The book demonstrates the transdisciplinary potential of space related approaches The editors suggest that spatial thinking can foster a dialogue on the history aftermath and memory of the Holocaust that transcends disciplinary boundaries Artworks by Yael Atzmony serve as a prologue to the volume inviting us to reflect on the complicated relation of the actual crime site of the Sobibor extermination camp to family memory archival sources and material traces In the first part of the book renowned scholars introduce readers to the relevance of space for key aspects of Holocaust Studies In the second part nine original case studies demonstrate how and to what ends spatial thinking in Holocaust research can be put into practice In four introductory essays the editors identify spatial configurations that transcend conventional disciplinary chronological or geographical systematizations Fleeting Spaces Institutionalized Spaces Border ing Spaces Spatial Relations Drawing on a host of theoretical concepts and addressing various historical contexts as well as different types of media this book offers scholars and students valuable insights into cutting edge international scholarly debates Photography and Place Donna West Brett, 2015-12-07 As a recording device photography plays a unique role in how we remember places and events that happened there This includes recording events as they happen or recording places where something occurred before the photograph was taken commonly referred to as aftermath photography This book presents a theoretical and historical analysis of German photography of place after 1945 It analyses how major historical ruptures in twentieth century Germany and associated places of trauma memory and history affected the visual field and the circumstances of looking These ruptures are used to generate a new reading of postwar German photography of place The analysis includes original research on world renowned German photographers such as Thomas Struth Thomas Demand Michael Schmidt Boris Becker and Thomas Ruff as well as photographers largely unknown in the Anglophone world Geography and Memory Owain Jones, Joanne Garde-Hansen, 2012-10-10 This collection shifts the focus from collective memory to individual memory by incorporating new performative approaches to identity place and becoming Drawing upon cultural geography the book provides an accessible framework to approach key aspects of memory remembering archives commemoration and forgetting in modern societies Forensic Science in Contemporary American Popular Culture Lindsay Steenberg, 2013-01-04 This book identifies traces and interrogates contemporary American culture s fascination with forensic science It looks to the many different sites genres and media where the forensic has become a cultural commonplace It turns firstly to the most visible spaces where forensic science has captured the collective imagination crime films and television programs In contemporary screen culture crime is increasingly framed as an area of scientific inquiry and even more frequently as an area of concern for female experts One of the central concerns of this book is the gendered nature of expert scientific knowledge as embodied by the ubiquitous character of the female investigator Steenberg argues that our fascination with the forensic depends on our equal fascination with and suspicion of women s bodies with the bodies of the women investigating and with the bodies of the mostly female victims under investigation Science Fiction Film, Television, and Adaptation J. P. Telotte, Gerald Duchovnay, 2011-08-02 The book examines the difficulty of adapting from one screen medium to another by looking at both successful and unsuccessful efforts in the area of science fiction Those difficult efforts at moving from film to TV and from TV to film reveal much about the technologies involved and this highly technological genre as well Four Days in Hitler's Germany Robert Teigrob, 2019-05-23 In 1937 Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King travelled to Nazi Germany in an attempt to prevent a war that to many observers seemed inevitable The men King communed with in Berlin including Adolf Hitler assured him of the Nazi regime's peaceful intentions and King not only found their pledges sincere but even hoped for personal friendships with many of the regime's top officials Four Days in Hitler's Germany is a clearly written and engaging story that reveals why King believed that the greatest threat to peace would come from those individuals who intended to thwart the Nazi agenda which as King saw it was concerned primarily with justifiable German territorial and diplomatic readjustments Mackenzie King was certainly not alone in misreading the omens in the 1930s but it would be difficult to find a democratic leader who missed the mark by a wider margin This book seeks to explain the sources and outcomes of King's misperceptions and diplomatic failures and follows him as he returns to Germany to tour the appalling aftermath of the very war he had tried to prevent

Reading Beyond the Book Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013 This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organisers The authors interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading

Jewish Anxiety and the Novels of Philip Roth Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2016-10-27 Uses Roth's novels as springboards to illuminate larger problematics of victimization gender racism and anti-Semitism

Philip Roth Debra Shostak, 2011-04-14 A collection of original essays on Philip Roth offering contemporary critical readings and assessments of recent texts

Hitler at Home Despina Stratigakos, 2015-09-29 A look at Adolf Hitler's residences and their role in constructing and promoting the dictator's private persona both within Germany and abroad Adolf Hitler's makeover from rabble rouser to statesman coincided with a series of dramatic home renovations he undertook during the mid 1930s This provocative book exposes the dictator's preoccupation with his private persona which was shaped by the aesthetic and ideological management of his domestic architecture Hitler's bachelor life stirred rumors and the Nazi regime relied on the dictator's three dwellings the Old Chancellery in Berlin his apartment in Munich and the Berghof his mountain home on the Obersalzberg to foster the myth of the Führer as a morally upstanding and refined man Author Despina Stratigakos also reveals the previously untold story of Hitler's interior designer Gerdy Troost through newly discovered archival sources At the height of the Third Reich media outlets around the world showcased Hitler's homes to audiences eager for behind the scenes stories After the war fascination with Hitler's domestic life continued as soldiers and journalists searched his dwellings for insights into his psychology The book's rich illustrations many previously unpublished offer readers a rare glimpse into the decisions involved in the making of Hitler's homes and into the sheer power of the propaganda that influenced how the world saw him Inarguably the powder keg title of the year

Mitchell Owen Architectural Digest A fascinating read which reminds us that in Nazi Germany the architectural and the political can never be disentangled Like his own confected image Hitler's buildings cannot be divorced from their odious political hinterland Roger Moorhouse Times

Digital Media Sport Brett Hutchins, David Rowe, 2013-09-05 Live broadband streaming of the 2008 Beijing Olympics accounted for 2 200 of the estimated 3 600 total hours shown by the American NBC Universal networks At the 2012 London Olympics unprecedented multi platforming embraced online mobile devices game consoles and broadcast television with the BBC providing 2 500 hours of live coverage including every competitive event much in high definition and some in 3D The BBC also had 12 million requests for video on mobile phones and 9 2 million browsers on its mobile Olympics website and app This pattern will only intensify at future sport mega events like the 2014 FIFA World Cup and 2016 Summer Olympics both of which will take place in Brazil Increasingly when people talk of the screen that delivers footage of their favorite professional sport they are describing desktop laptop and tablet computer screens as well as television and mobile handsets Digital Media Sport analyzes the intersecting issues of technological change market power and cultural practices that shape the contemporary global sports media landscape The complexity of these related issues demands an interdisciplinary approach that is adopted here in a series of thematically organized essays by international scholars working in media studies Internet studies sociology cultural studies and sport studies

Sport Beyond Television Brett Hutchins, David Rowe, 2012 Computers the Internet Web mobile and other digital media are increasingly important technologies in the production and consumption of sports media Sport Beyond Television analyzes the changes that have given rise to this situation combining theoretical insights with original evidence collected through extensive research and interviews with people working in the media and sport industries It locates sports media as a pivotal component in online content economies and cultures and counteracts the scant scholarly attention to sports media when compared to music film and publishing in convergent media cultures

A Social History of Contemporary Democratic Media Jesse Drew, 2013-05-02 The last few decades have helped dispel the myth that media should remain driven by high end professionals and market share This book puts forward the concept of communications from below in contrast to the globalization from above that characterizes many new developments in international organization and media practices By examining the social and technological roots that influence current media evolution Drew allows readers to understand not only the Youtubes and Facebooks of today but to anticipate the trajectory of the technologies to come Beginning with a look at the inherent weaknesses of the U S broadcasting model of mass media Drew outlines the early 1960s and 1970s experiments in grassroots media where artists and activists began to re engineer electronic technologies to target local communities and underserved audiences From these local projects emerged national and international communications projects creating production models social networks and citizen expectations that would challenge traditional means of electronic media and cultural production Drew's perspective puts the social and cultural use of the user at the center not the particular media form Thus the structure of the book focuses on the local the national and the global desire for communications regardless of the means

Beauty, Violence, Representation Lisa A. Dickson, Maryna Romanets, 2014-05-09 This volume explores the relationship among beauty violence and representation in a broad range of artistic and cultural texts including literature visual art theatre film and music Charting diversifying interests in the subject of violence and beauty dealing with the multiple inflections of these questions and representing a spectrum of voices the volume takes its place in a growing body of recent critical work that takes violence and representation as its object This collection offers a unique opportunity however to address a significant gap in the critical field for it seeks to interrogate specifically the nexus or interface between beauty and violence While other texts on violence make use of regimes of representation as their subject matter and consider the effects of aestheticization beauty as a critical category is conspicuously absent Furthermore the book aims to rehabilitate beauty implicitly conceptualized as politically or ethically regressive by postmodern anti aesthetics cultural positions and further facilitate its come back into critical discourse

Cultural Technologies Göran Bolin, 2012-09-10 The essays in this volume discuss both the culture of technology that we live in today and culture as technology Within the chapters of the book cultures of technology and cultural technologies are discussed focussing on a variety of examples from varied national contexts The book brings together internationally recognised scholars from the social sciences and humanities covering diverse themes such as intellectual property server farms and search engines cultural technologies and epistemology virtual embassies surveillance peer to peer file sharing sound media and nostalgia and much more It contains both historical and contemporary analyses of technological phenomena as well as epistemological discussions on the uses of technology

Generation X Goes Global Christine Henseler, 2012 This edited volume is the first book of its kind to engage criticise tm understanding of Generation X as a global phenomenon Citing case studies from around the world the research collected here broadens the picture of Generation X as a demographic and a worldview The book traces the global and local flows that determine the identity of each countrys youth from the 1970s to today Bringing together twenty scholars working on fifteen different countries and residing in eight different nations this book present a community of diverse disciplinary voices Contributors explore the converging properties of Generation X through the fields of literature media studies youth culture popular culture sociology philosophy feminism and political science Their ideas also enter into conversation with fourteen other textbox contributors who address the question of Who is Generation X in other countries Taken together they present a highly interactive and open book format whose conversations extend to the reading public on the website www.generationxgoesglobal.com

International Perspectives on Chicana/o Studies Catherine Leen, Niamh Thornton, 2013-10-15 This volume examines how the field of Chicana o studies has developed to become an area of interest to scholars far beyond the United States and Spain For this reason the volume includes contributions by a range of international scholars and takes the concept of place as a unifying paradigm As a way of overcoming borders that are both physical and metaphorical it seeks to reflect the diversity and range of current scholarship in Chicana o studies while simultaneously highlighting the diverse and constantly evolving nature of Chicana o identities and cultures Various critical and theoretical approaches are evident from eco criticism and autoethnography in the first section to the role of fiction and visual art in exposing injustice in section two to the discussion of transnational and transcultural exchange with reference to issues as diverse as the teaching of Chicana o studies in Russia and the relevance of Anzald a s writings to post 9 11 U S society
