Landscapes In Landscapes:

Public Spaces, Private Gardens Lake Douglas, 2011-05-17 Landscape architect Lake Douglas employs written accounts archival data historic photographs lithographs maps and city planning documents many of which have never before been published to explore public and private outdoor spaces in New Orleans and those who shaped them The result offers the first in depth examination of the city s landscape history Douglas presents this beautiful and imposing city as a work of art crafted by numerous influences His survey from the colonial period to the twentieth century finds that geography climate and above all the multicultural character of its residents have made New Orleans unique in American landscape design history French and Spanish settlers Africans and Native Americans as well as immigrants from Germany Ireland Italy and other parts of the world all participated in creating this community s unique public and private landscapes Places such as Congo Square Audubon Park the river levees and neutral grounds local residents own term for medians together with ordinary residential gardens are all testaments to the city s international imprint Douglas identifies five types of public and private designed landscapes in New Orleans squares linear open spaces urban parks commercial pleasure gardens and domestic gardens Discussing their design function and content he shows how specific examples of each contribute to the city s unique character and also fit within the larger context of American landscape design history Each type has its own complexion and reflects the influence of those who occupied it Though New Orleanians lived in strata according to language cultural identity economics and race they found common ground literally in their community s landscapes Douglas s sweeping study illustrated with over 90 color and black and white images includes an exploration of archival horticultural books almanacs and periodicals information about laborers who actually built landscapes details of horticultural commerce services and marketing materials and an exhaustive inventory of plants grown in New Orleans for agricultural medicinal and ornamental uses Public Spaces Private Gardens provides an informative look at two hundred years of the designed landscapes and horticulture of New Orleans and a fresh perspective on one of America s most interesting and historic cities Landscapes of America Bill Harris, 1987 Landscapes of the Interior Don Gayton, 1996 Landscapes of the Interior is an eloquent antidote to the separation that people are feeling between themselves and nature Its seventeen essays take the reader on a unique journey that plumbs the depths of the human connection with nature It spans the scientific the poetic and the spiritual Landscapes of America Bill Harris, 1986 Literary Landscapes of Time Jobst Welge, Juliane Tauchnitz, 2022-11-07 The volume asks how the literatures of the Americas and the Caribbean present multiple or internally differentiated spaces and how these are distinguished or traversed by different temporalities The historical and post colonial experiences of these areas turns them into especially fertile ground for the exploration of the connections between landscape geography and historical temporal palimpsests as well as the specificities of literary form The contributions are dedicated to individual yet conceptually interconnected studies of staggered multiple non simultaneous temporalities in modern and contemporary literature The volume adopts a comparative perspective throughout and intends to foster the dialogue between the study of Latin American and Caribbean literatures in Spanish Portuguese French and English Therefore the individual essays are not grouped according to geographical or linguistic areas but follow a trajectory from spatiotemporal constellations of the 19th century to ruined catastrophic landscapes and the geopoetic inscriptions of time in regions The essays should appeal to all readers interested in World Literature Hemispheric Studies as well as temporal approaches to space and geography
