Kaufman, 2010-09-03 The lasting charm of Kaufman's stories lies in a delightful mix of personal incidents and observations set against an anchoring backdrop of cultural tradition His new collection is filled with tales from his parents homeland in the Ukraine his own childhood reminiscences and his adult travels We watch the young author forced alongside every Jewish boy on the block to emulate Yehudi Menuhin on a ten dollar violin with a moldy bow until the boy is spared by an innate lack of talent and his father s judgment of his concert Enough is enough is more than enough Kaufman is carefully attuned to the awkwardness of adulthood as well as to that of early adolescence In Interlude in Bangkok his narrator scours the city for a synagogue while pursued by a prostitute Later he and a friend encounter Greta Garbo in a museum caf and are too frightened to approach her Aware of their intrigue the mysterious movie star intones I am not she Kaufman in his own way says that of himself in these stories through an autobiographical narrator whose memories take on resonant literary shapes in their retelling in the Water and Other Stories Feroz Faisal Dawson, 2014-08-19 Malaysian youth just like others their age around the world bond during carefree times only to arrive at the cusp of adulthood to be confronted with weightier matters such as death marriage and politics In his posthumous collection of short stories Feroz Faisal Dawson shares nine tales that highlight an eclectic group of characters poised to face emotional starts and stops as a generation comes of age together and takes different paths in life As a juvenile vandal expresses political dissidence a young man on a trip to the market for his mother stops to listen to a political rant that proves his indifference After a tragic car accident all who are left behind grieve in different ways as they face the grim reality inside a coffin On New Year's Eve relationships begin to show signs of strain as honor pride love and hate surround a celebration Ladder in the Water and Other Stories offers an unforgettable glimpse into a generation of Malaysian youth as they grow up and bravely face all of life's challenges each in their own remarkable way Babylon Revisited and Other Stories (Fitzgerald's Greatest Short Stories) F.
