Latin American Issues Ralph William Clark, 1961 Latin American Issues; Essays and Comments Albert O. Hirschman (Ed), 1961 Latin American Issues Twentieth Century Fund, 1964 Developing the Underdeveloped Countries Alan B. Mountjoy, 1971-09-30 Milton Friedman & Economic Debate in the United States, 1932-1972: Volume 2 Edward Nelson, 2020-11-06

Second in a two volume study of the Nobel Prize winner's long career Nelson knows more about Milton Friedman's economics than anyone else alive Business Economics This study is the first to distill Nobel Prize winner Milton Friedman's vast body of writings into an authoritative account of his research his policy views and his interventions in public debate With this ambitious new work Edward Nelson closes the gap Milton Friedman and Economic Debate in the United States is the defining narrative on the famed economist the first to grapple comprehensively with Friedman's research output economic framework and legacy This two volume account provides a foundational introduction to Friedman's role in several major economic debates that took place in the United States between 1932 and 1972 This second volume covers the years between 1960 and 1972 years that saw the publication of Friedman and Anna Schwartz's Monetary History of the United States The book also covers Friedman's involvement in a number of debates in the 1960s and 1970s on topics such as unemployment inflation consumer protection and the environment As a fellow monetary economist Nelson writes from a unique vantage point drawing on both his own expertise in monetary analysis and his deep familiarity with Friedman's writings Using extensive documentation the book weaves together Friedman's research contributions and his engagement in public debate providing an unparalleled analysis of Friedman's views on the economic developments of his day No previous biographer has Nelson's deep and sophisticated understanding of monetary economics Economic History Area Handbook for Chile Thomas E. Weil, 1974 Chile, a Country Study Andrea T Merrill, 1987 Foreign Operations Appropriations for 1964 United States. Congress. House Appropriations, 1963 Foreign Assistance and Related Agencies Appropriations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Related Agencies Appropriations, 1964 Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1963 Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations, 1963 Foreign Operations Appropriations for 1964 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations, 1962 Key Thinkers on Development David Simon, 2019-04-02

Since its publication in 2006 as Fifty Key Thinkers on Development this invaluable reference has established itself as the leading biographical handbook in its field providing a concise and accessible introduction to the lives and key contributions of development thinkers from across the ideological and disciplinary spectrum This substantially expanded and fully updated second edition in the relaunched series without the numerical constraint includes an additional 24 essays filling in many gaps in the original selection greatly improving the gender balance and diversifying coverage to reflect the evolving landscape of development in theory policy and practice It presents a unique guide to the lives ideas and practices of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies and development policy and practice Its thoughtful essays reflect the diversity of development in theory policy and practice across time space disciplines and communities of practice Accordingly it challenges Western centrism Orientalism and the like while also demonstrating the enduring appeal of development in different guises David Simon has assembled a highly authoritative team of contributors from different backgrounds regional settings and disciplines to reflect on the lives and contributions of leading authorities on development from around the world These include Modernisers like Kindleberger Perroux and Rostow Dependencistas such as Frank Furtado Cardoso and Amin Progressives and critical modernists like Hirschman Prebisch Helleiner Sen Streeten and Wang Political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao Nkrumah and Nyerere Progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi Ariyaratne and Vivekananda Development environment thinkers like Agarwal Blaikie Brookfield Ostrom and Sachs International institution builders like Singer Hammarskjöld Kaul and Ul Haq Anti and post development thinkers and activists like Escobar Ghosh Quijano and Roy Key Thinkers on Development is therefore the essential handbook on the world's most influential development thinkers and an invaluable guide for students of development and sustainability policy makers and practitioners seeking an accessible overview of this diverse field and its leading voices Fifty Key Thinkers on Development David Simon, 2006 The essential guide to the world's most influential development thinkers this authoritative text presents a unique guide to the lives and ideas of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies Reflecting the diverse interdisciplinary nature of the area the book includes entries on modernisers like Hirschman Kindleberger and Rostow dependencistas such as Frank Cardoso and Amin progressives like Prebisch Helleiner and Streeten political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao Nkrumah and Nyerere progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi and Ariyaratne development environment thinkers like Blaikie Brookfield and Shiva This is a fascinating and readable introduction to the major figures that have shaped the field ideal for anyone studying or working in the area Land Reform in Small Island Developing States Karl John, 2006-02 In recent times the spotlight of international media attention has often focused on problems which have their roots in the inequitable distribution of agricultural land still a characteristic of many developing countries For example media coverage of the social unrest that has beset Zimbabwe since the closing years of the twentieth century has been relentless Large plantations still exist in the Caribbean a legacy of the erstwhile economic importance of sugar to the region However on several islands the traditionally highly skewed pattern of land distribution has been successfully reformed in most cases without recourse to violence and confiscation in a revolutionary context In St Vincent the demise of the plantation and the emergence of an independent peasantry are attributable to a significant degree to public policy formulated and implemented over a period of one hundred years Karl John's study chronicles the historical course of these official interventions aimed at reforming the land tenure structure in this small island developing state The work pays particular attention to the motives for the policies and strategies adopted for land reform critically evaluates the planning and implementation of related programs and projects and assesses the role of prevailing economic social and political forces in both limiting and enabling their success

The Economy as a System of Power Warren Samuels, 2017-09-29 This collection brings together important materials concerning the study of the economy as a system of power offering a sample of positions taken by contributors to the Journal of Economic Issues in response to the perceived problems of the social control of corporate power

Trade and Structural Change in Pacific Asia Colin I. Bradford, Jr., William H. Branson, 2007-12-01 The rapid development of Pacific Asia over the past twenty years offers an excellent opportunity to analyze the dynamics of economic growth Trade and Structural Change in Pacific Asia explores the nature and causes of changes that have occurred in the economic structure of Pacific Asia the relationship between these changes and economic growth and the implications of these changes for trading relationships Themes in the research reported here includes the sectoral composition of output and trade rates of structural change in production and exports and their relation to economic growth the effect of abundant resource endowments on industrialization and manufactured exports the nature of the mix between active government policies and market forces and the balance between demand determined and supply determined industrialization and exports Many of the issues explored have important implications for United States foreign economic policy and the volume includes a look at the basic economic and political forces influencing shifts in United States trade policy in the postwar period A timely and informative analysis the volume probes the causes and consequences of economic growth in Pacific Asia focusing on the interaction of exports of manufactured goods and the developmental process The results reported contribute to ongoing research in structural change and economic policy and will be important to economists working on empirical patterns in international trade and the process of economic development

The Political Economy Of Public Sector Reform And Privatization Ezra Suleiman, John Waterbury, 2019-07-09 This book suggests some of the ways in which levels of development shape public sector reform and privatization in developed and developing countries showing that conservative as well as socialist governments were committed to increasing the state's guiding role in the political economy

From Right to Left in Development Theory Kevin P. Clements, The paper explores the central assumptions of the Neo Classical Structuralist and Marxist theories of development in order to determine how these theories create real political parameters The conclusion is that radical diagnoses of development underdevelopment dominate academic thinking but conservative theories dominate policy formation Given a choice between a flexible exchange rate policy and a national liberation struggle policy makers in the Third World will opt for flexible exchange rates while justifying their actions in terms of more radical rhetoric

The CIA in Guatemala Richard H. Immerman, 2010-07-05 A history and analysis of the United States involvement in the deposition of Guatemalan President Jacobo Arbenz and the consequences Using documents obtained through the Freedom of Information Act recently opened archival collections and interviews with the actual participants Immerman provides us with a definitive powerfully written and tension packed account of the United States clandestine operations in Guatemala and their consequences in Latin America today A valuable study of what Immerman correctly portrays as a seminal event not just in the annals of the Cold War but in U S Latin American relations Washington Monthly A damning indictment of American interference abroad Pittsburgh Press A masterpiece of analysis Reviews in American History
