Williamson,2020-09-01 A timely compelling collection that allows predominantly Black Midwesterners to reclaim their home histories and future Jen Cox Chicago Review of Books Black Americans have been among the hardest hit by the rapid deindustrialization and accompanying economic decline that have become so synonymous with the Midwest Since the 2016 election many traditional media outlets have renewed attention on the conditions of Middle America but the national discourse continues to marginalize the Black people who live there Black in the Middle brings the voices of Black Midwesterners front and center Filled with compelling personal narratives thought provoking art and searing commentaries this anthology explores the various meanings and experiences of blackness throughout the Rust Belt the Midwest and the Great Plains Bringing together people from major metropolitan centers like Detroit and Chicago as well as smaller cities and rural areas where the lives of Black residents have too often gone unacknowledged this collection is a much needed corrective to the narrative of the region Ambitious and eclectic with African American humanity on display Joseph P Williams Minneapolis Star Tribune The honesty in the essays the emergency in the poetry and the intensity of the photographs and paintings help to sharpen the edge of what it means to be Black in the middle of anything which is the sum of our fears and the hope that manifests itself in our dreams Jason Vasser Elong St Louis Post Dispatch Timely and evocative By calling forth the full range of the Black Midwestern experience this bracing anthology offers crucial insights into why the region is the epicenter of current protests against police brutality and racial injustice Publishers Weekly Visual Sociology Douglas

Harper,2023-06-09 This new version of the authoritative textbook in the field of visual sociology focuses on the key topics of documentary photography visual ethnography collaborative visual research visual empiricism the study of the visual symbol and teaching sociology visually This updated and expanded edition includes nearly twice as many images and incorporates new in depth case studies drawing upon the author s lifetime of pioneering research and teaching as well as the often neglected experiences of women and people of color The book examines how documentary photography can be useful to sociologists both because of the topics examined by documentarians and as an example of how seeing is socially constructed Harper describes the exclusion of women through much of the history of documentary photography and the distinctiveness of the female eye in recent documentary a phenomenon he calls the gendered lens The author examines how a visual approach allows sociologists to study conventional topics differently while offering new perspectives topics and insights For example photography shows us how perspective itself affects what we see and know how abstractions such as ideal types can be represented visually how social change can be studied visually and how the study of symbols can lead us to interpret public art architecture and person made landscapes There is an extended study of how images can lead to cooperative research and learning how images can serve as bridges of understanding blurring the lines between researcher and researched The important topic of reflexivity is examined by close study of Harper s own research experiences Finally the author focusses on teaching offering templates for full courses assignments and projects and guides for teachers imagining how to approach visual sociology as a new practice This definitive yet accessible textbook will be indispensable to teachers researchers and professionals with an interest in visual sociology research methods cultural theory and visual anthropology

Solarities
Cymene Howe, Jeff Diamanti, Amelia Moore, 2023 Solarities Elemental Encounters and Refractions is a transdisciplinary essay collection that explores the physical conceptual and political possibilities materialized by solarity a form of relation to the sun and its elemental force upon planetary life The authors propose that a different set of questions becomes possible when the material specificities of solar become the compass for thought prompting us to uncover our relationship to the sun How does solarity materialize in the bodies and lives of humans and non humans now and in the future What can we learn if we no longer take the sun for granted How do we continue to persist on a planet that is so intimately bound up in a state of love fear and dependence on this primary source of all living energy Each of the essays in Solarities take solar radiation as an interpretive lens that takes multiple forms often transforming as it does so Solarities draws inspiration from Black ecologies Indigenous philosophy feminist science technology studies and more than human discussions in the human sciences recognizing the phenomenological and ontological openings they make available The authors understand solarity as an energy source channeled through photovoltaic cells for example but the essays gathered here focus on the lives that solarity creates or impedes The experimental task is to find how solarities work their way into materials and processes across our work seeking out the particular influences of solarity in making being s These relations are core to thinking the elemental conditions of solarity since it is through particular forms of focalizing the sun that life is sustained or made to wither across the planet In these ways the elemental condition of solarity is at once hyper particular and also shared across organic and inorganic bodies conditioned by physical form and material composition Throughout the collection the authors explore how solarity appears or recedes from view when we concentrate our attentions on it surfacing the existential omnipresence of the sun to open new thought possibilities inspire new actions and refract new dimensions of socionatural encounter

The Long
2020 Richard Grusin, Maureen Ryan, 2023-01-24 Sharply intelligent often personal reflections on the global crises of 2020 that are still ongoing By all accounts 2020 was the longest year in recent memory as people in the United States and across the globe careened from one unfolding catastrophe to another The consequences of this devastating year are sure to impact the planet for decades if not centuries to come This collection considers the question of that long 2020 from the perspective of the lived experience of the year its long and deep roots in various human and nonhuman pasts and the transformation of our sense of the future The Long 2020 assembles a strikingly interdisciplinary group of scholars and thinkers to address how the many crises of 2020 epidemiological political ecological and social have unfolded examining both their origins as well as their ongoing effects The contributors address questions of time history and scale as they have played out and continue to play out the relationship between home and environment with a focus on architecture breathing and human nonhuman relations and the experience of cultural political and social life deploying cultural and political theory to explore questions of race gender and sexuality and democracy The global pandemic has still not abated reflecting the need to rethink our interrelatedness to viruses and other species In bringing together this diverse group of authors The Long 2020 offers a variety of perspectives on the impacts of that fraught year the effects of which continue to permeate daily life Contributors Stacy Alaimo U of Oregon Elisabeth Anker George Washington U Janelle Baker Athabasca U Alberta Canada Daniel A Barber U of Pennsylvania Weitzman School of Design Adia Benton Northwestern U Levi R Bryant Collin College Beatriz Colomina Princeton U William E Connolly Johns Hopkins U Cary Gabriel Costello U of Wisconsin Milwaukee Megan Craig Stony Brook U Wai Chee Dimock Harvard U Paulla Ebron Stanford U Nirmala Erevelles U of Alabama Roderick A Ferguson Yale U Rosa E Ficek U of Puerto Rico at Cayey Stefanie Fishel U of the Sunshine Coast in Queensland Jonathan Flatley Wayne State U Jennifer Gabrys U of Cambridge David Gissen Parsons School of Design and the New School New York Dehlia Hannah The Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts Karen Ho U of Minnesota Bonnie Honig Brown U Fr d ric Keck Laboratory of Social Anthropology CNRS Paris Eben Kirksey Deakin Institute in Melbourne Australia Bernard C Perley U of British Columbia Vancouver Tom Rademacher Renya Ramirez U of California Santa Cruz Zoe Todd M tis Anna Tsing U of California Santa Cruz Sarah E Vaughn U of California Berkeley Rebecca Wanzo Washington U McKenzie Wark Eugene Lang College New York City
