Goslings J. Beresford, 2015-12-15 An England from which men have largely been eliminated is the scene of Mr Beresford's story A suddenly appearing plague spreading from China to Russia and thence across Europe practically wipes out the male population leaving the women to reorganize society The order that results is by no means a paradise but certain revered conventions become obsolete Money loses its value so do titles houses and fine raiment and at the close when it is discovered that an appreciable number of men still exist in the world men and women are ready to start over together on a better level of equality and with a clearer perception of what each must contribute to their common civilization It will be perceived that Mr Beresford owes something to Mr H G Wells but he easily liquidates the debt and while he reasons very little less closely and hardly possesses that author's grasp of detail his work is sincere and thoughtful and deserves a hearing We cannot associate ourselves with all his opinions and in places the book might have been better written some of the dialogue in the earlier part is noticeably stilted but as a whole it is exhilarating Athenaeum 1913 Mr Beresford's story is more than plausible it is overwhelmingly convincing Granting its initial premise the sudden destruction of practically all the men of a country and of large numbers of the women the story is remorselessly truthful and logical It is laid upon the hard foundation of fact upon the bedrock of human nature and we may read its portent with all the faith and surety that we read the historical narratives of some gifted historian whose imagination gives him command of the realities of life Boston Transcript 1913 With a very few cynical irreverences the tale satirizes conventions and develops with reason and persuasive imagination Spectator 1913 The Blockade Runners Jules Verne, 2019-10-17 During the American Civil War the coast of the southern states is largely blocked and trade in cotton collapses A young merchant devises a plan to take advantage of this situation and make a profit The ship called Dolphin is specially designed for this purpose and is equipped with the latest technology and a selected crew including Jenny Halliburt dressed as a boy Will she dissuade James from his greed for profit And what are her servant's plans Robur the Conqueror Jules Verne, 2019-10-28 In Philadelphia USA a club of amateur aircraftmen meets and discusses the construction of a steerable airship when suddenly a stranger named Robur appears and claims to already own such an airship Since the members don't believe Robur it comes to an argument and he disappears Later the president of the association together with his secretary and his servant is kidnapped by Robur and forced on an involuntary but adventurous journey always trying to escape their kidnapper The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1913 A Bibliographical Catalogue of the First Loan Exhibition of Books and Manuscripts Held by the First Edition Club 1922 First Edition Club (London, England), 1922 The Publishers Weekly, 1920 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1913 The Bookseller, 1914 The Nation, 1913

British Future Fiction, 1700-1914, Volume 8 I F Clarke, 2017-09-29 This set of eight volumes presents the reader with selected primary texts in the genre now generally known as future fiction The chosen texts are designed to explore the dominant characteristics of the genre and examine how it changed over the 18th and 19th centuries The World's Work, 1913 The New Statesman, 1921
