Transforming Indigenous Higher Education Marion Kickett,Pat Dudgeon,Trevor Satour,Darryl Kickett,Anita Lee Hong,Glenis Grogan,Dennis Eggington,Jill Abdullah,Melony Darroch,Rae-Lee Griffin,Roz Walker,Ernie Stringer,2023-03-15 An engaging guide for future best practice this book provides an illuminating account of how the innovative programs of education and research at one Centre for Aboriginal Studies made a demonstrably positive difference in the lives of Indigenous students Written by the experts involved the book provides detailed descriptions of these ground breaking education and research programs that saw an increase in the number of Indigenous graduates emerging from the Centre for Aboriginal Studies at Curtin University Each chapter documents a different stage in the development and delivery of these programs and demonstrates how innovative and culturally appropriate principles of teaching learning and organizational processes empowered participants to make a real difference in the lives of their families and communities The book also addresses the challenges faced by such programs and the counterproductive pressures of market based economic policies highlighting the need to create an environment attuned to Aboriginal desires for social justice self management and self determination As a celebration of genuine success in higher education for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and a guide on how to improve practice in the future this book is an essential resource for all professionals and policy makers looking to make a real difference in the lives of Indigenous peoples The Chemical News and Journal of Physical Science

,1913 The Crown Colonist ,1943 Heritage and Community Engagement Emma Waterton,Steve Watson,2013-09-13

This book is about the way that professionals in archaeology and in other sectors of heritage interact with a range of stakeholder groups communities and the wider public Whilst these issues have been researched and discussed over many years and in many geographical contexts the debate seems to have settled into a comfortable stasis wherein it is assumed that all that can be done by way of engagement has been done and there is little left to achieve In some cases such engagement is built on legislation or codes of ethics and there can be little doubt that it is an important and significant aspect of heritage policy This book is different however because it questions not so much the motivations of heritage professionals but the nature of the engagement itself the extent to which this is collaborative or contested and the implications this has for the communities concerned Furthermore in exploring these issues in a variety of contexts around the world it recognises that heritage provides a source of engagement within communities that is separate from professional discourse and can thus enable them to find voices of their own in the political processes that concern them and affect their development identity and well being This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of Heritage Studies
