The Futures of Legal Education and the Legal Profession Hilary Sommerlad, Sonia Harris-Short, Steven Vaughan, Richard Young, 2015-03-26 We are currently witnessing an unprecedented transformation in the legal profession and legal education The Legal Services Act 2007 and the Legal Aid Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 have both enabled and necessitated dramatic structural changes to the profession as well as impacting on its ethos and ethicality The recent Legal Education and Training Review LETR promises similarly dramatic change to the provision of legal education reflecting the shifting landscape of both the legal professional market and Higher Education in general These transformative changes bring both exciting opportunities and challenges with which everyone involved in the law from University lecturers to Senior Partners in leading law firms to the judiciary must grapple This edited collection comprises a selection of papers presented at the 2nd conference of CEPLER Birmingham Law School's Centre for Professional Legal Education and Research The aim of the Conference and thus this collection was to bring together leading academic scholars senior figures from professional practice policy makers and representatives of the regulatory authorities to reflect on the key issues arising from this transformative moment As such this volume of essays covers diverse ground from curriculum development to professional theory enriched and enhanced by the range of backgrounds and perspectives of its contributors Under the Same Sky

Mojgan Shamsalipoor, Milad Jafari, James Knight, 2017-04-26 After fleeing their homeland Australian refugee policies threaten to tear this young couple apart An unforgettable story of love hope and a quest for freedom At seventeen all Mojgan Shamsalipoor wanted was to be safe from physical and sexual abuse go to school and to eventually marry for love In Iran she was denied all of this Milad Jafari was a shy teenage boy who found his voice as a musician But the rap music he loved was illegal in his country All Milad's father a key maker builder and shopkeeper wanted was for his family to live free from the fear of arrest imprisonment or execution To do that they all had to flee Iran Mojgan and Milad met in Australia But in the months between their separate sea voyages the Australian government changed the way asylum seekers were treated Though Milad is recognised as a refugee and will soon become a proud Australian citizen Mojgan has been told she cannot stay here even though the threat of imprisonment and further abuse or worse means she can't return to Iran UNDER THE SAME SKY is a powerful insight into the human face of asylum seekers and the way history has shaped the lives of these two young people. It also shows the compassion alive in our suburbs. For Mojgan and Milad their love keeps their hopes alive.

We Are Better Than This Robyn Cadwallader, 2015-10-07. We Are Better Than This is a collection of essays and poetry addressing the Australian government's asylum seeker policy. The aims of the book are several: to provide some of the information about the situation in detention camps that is being withheld by the government; to correct some of the government's misrepresentations of the current situation; to clarify some of the complex legal issues surrounding the right to seek asylum; and to give some insight into the plight of those who are seeking asylum. It is hoped that this book will better inform people about the government's policies to support those who are unsatisfied and seeking to change the situation as well as those who are uncertain and need more easily accessible and reliable information. Contributors are drawn from several areas of expertise and engagement with asylum seekers.

Keeping the Republic Christine Barbour, Gerald C. Wright, 2023-01-20. Keeping the Republic Eleventh Edition gives students the power to examine the narrative of what's going on in American politics, distinguish fact from fiction, and balance from bias and influence the message through informed citizenship. Christine Barbour and Gerald C. Wright draw students into the study of American politics, showing them how to think critically about who gets what and how while exploring the twin themes of power and citizenship. With students living through one of the most challenging periods in American life, this text is a much needed resource to help them make sense of politics in America today and become savvy consumers of political information.

How to Win the War on Truth Samuel C. Spitale, 2022-10-25. Made to Stick by Chip Heath meets Thing Explainer by Randall Munroe in this illustrated guide to navigating today's post truth landscape filled with real world examples of disinformation campaigns. The average person receives 4 000 to 10 000 media messages a day. It's no wonder we struggle to separate the news from the noise and fact from fiction, but in these unprecedented times it's essential to democracy that we do. For anyone struggling to figure out how to live and vote their values, How to Win the War on Truth is here to help. You'll learn the history of propaganda from Edward Bernays to Fox News. Why simple messages are so powerful. How social messaging creates unconscious biases. Who profits from propaganda. How propaganda is manufactured and delivered directly to you. Filled with real world examples of disinformation campaigns that impact every citizen and clever illustration, How to Win the War on Truth will help you see the world with clear eyes for the first time.

Kenya's 2013 General Election Njogu, Kimani, Wekesa, Peter

Wafula, 2017-08-09 When voters enthusiastically turn up to cast their vote during general elections they expect that their action would meaningfully change their lives But in most of Africa even when elections are held on a regular basis voters are quite often disappointed by the performance of their leaders who use the new positions as an opportunity to loot public resources and consolidate power It is almost as if elections are of minimal value to the populace Notwithstanding this trend when they are free and fair general elections can be transformative They can bring into the political arena men and women of integrity committed to service and accountability Inspired by the determination to have inclusive governance and the advancement of democracy Kenya s 2013 General Election Stakes Practices and Outcomes asks important questions related to political participation coalition building politics of identity the international criminal court electoral systems and institutions and the judiciary The papers are written by mainly Kenyan academics and civil society actors who examine the drivers of the 2013 general elections and the sources of the mandate to lead This book is part of publications by Twaweza Communications on democratic practice and accountable governance in Kenya A Concise History of Afghanistan in

25 Volumes Hamid Wahed Alikuzai, 2013-10 For 35 000 years ancient Afghanistan was called Aryana the Light of God has existed Then in 747 AD what is today called Afghanistan became Khorasan which means Sunrise in Dari which was a much larger geographical area In the middle of the nineteenth century the name Afghanistan which means home of the united tribes was applied originally by the Saxons present day British and the Russians During the Great Games in the middle of nineteenth century the Durand Line was created in 1893 and was in place until 1993 Saxons created the state of Afghanistan out of a geographical area roughly the size of Texas in 1893 before which there were 10 million square kilometers larger than the size of Canada as means to act as a buffer zone between the Saxon India Tsarist Russia and the Chinese Racism and the Tory Party Mike Cole, 2022-12-30 Racism is an endemic feature of the Tory Party Tracing the history of that racism

Racism and the Tory Party investigates the changing forms of racism in the party from the days of Empire including the championing of imperialism at the turn of the 20th century and the ramping up of antisemitism the imperial and racial politics of Winston Churchill the rise of Enoch Powell and Powellism to the Margaret Thatcher years the birth of racecraft and her policies in Northern Ireland and the hostile environment and its consolidation and expansion under Theresa May and Boris Johnson's premierships Throughout the book all forms of racism are addressed including the various forms of colour coded and as well as non colour coded racism as they are put in their historical and economic contexts This book should be of relevance to all interested in British politics and British history as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students studying the sociology and politics of racism as well as for students of the history of the development of British racism and of imperialism and its aftermath

Government By The People 2014 Elections And Updates Edition 25th Edition: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
