shifts but we're missing the boat on the third. The result: Youth ministry isn't addressing the realities and needs of today's youth culture. After nearly three decades in youth ministry, Mark Oestreicher has lived through a lot of those shifts himself. In recent years, he's found himself wondering what needs to change, especially since so much of what we're doing in youth ministry today is not working. In Youth Ministry 3.0, youth workers will explore along with Marko and the voices of other youth workers why we need change in youth ministry from a ministry moving away from a dependence on programs to one that is focused on communion and mission. They'll get a quick history of youth ministry over the last fifty years. And they'll help dream about what changes need to take place in order to create the next phase of youth ministry: the future that needs to be created for effective ministry to students.

Engaging a New Generation Frank Mercadante, 2012-05-31 Engaging a New Generation critically examines our commonly held assumptions as well as our often used models and methodologies initially developed to reach late Baby Boomer and Generation X teens. It then introduces you to the core characteristics of the Millennial Generation teens and the pastoral implications where the operational and ministerial borders are expanding far beyond traditional youth ministry. This text fills a great need. Bishop Gerald F. Kicanas, Bishop of Tucson: If you want to help young people develop a vibrant life transforming faith, read this book. John Roberto, Lifelong Faith Associates: Engaging a New Generation is as much about vibrant parish faith as it is about our young people. Bishop Timothy Doherty, Lafayette, Indiana: A modern manifesto for reaching young people today. Jim Beckman, Director of Youth Evangelization and Leadership, Augustine Institute: Frank Mercadante's passion for the young Church and his commitment to a comprehensive approach to pastoral ministry is evident on every page. Bob McCarty, DMin, Executive Director, National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry: This book comes from deep inside the field of youth ministry. It is theological, sociological, practical, pastoral, and scriptural. Dr. Mike Carotta, author, national consultant: This book is the most significant resource I have read not only for youth ministry but for parish ministry in the last ten years. Peter Denio, Standards for Excellence Coordinator, The National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management: Frank Mercadante is in it to win it for today's teens. Randy Raus, Life Teen President, CEO: Masterfully and succinctly outlines some of the big shifts that have taken place within culture and the Church. Mike Patin, International Catholic Speaker and Faith Horticulturist: Whoever wants the next generation of Catholic youth, the most will get them. Let Frank Mercadante show you how. Matthew Kelly, New York Times bestselling author of Rediscover Catholicism and founder of DynamicCatholic.com: We as a Church often hope to reach today's young people with yesterday's approach and then wonder why they don't respond. This book is a must read. Bob Rice, Speaker, Author, Musician, and Professor of Catechetics at Franciscan University of Steubenville: Clearly identifies these cultural shifts and shares important current research on youth and families. Jeffrey Kaster, Ed.D., Saint John's University School of Theology and Seminary, Collegeville: Great Talk Outlines for Youth Ministry 2 Mark Oestreicher, 2004. These forty field tested guides from veteran speakers are essential tools and supplements for any youth worker. Each outline includes sidebars with key illustrations, object lessons,
