Italian Post Neorealist Cinema Traditions In World Cinema Eup:

Italian Post-Neorealist Cinema Luca Barattoni, 2013-12-16 This book brings to the surface the lines of experimentation and artistic renewal appearing after the exhaustion of Neorealism mapping complex areas of interest such as the emergence of ethical concerns the relationship between ideology and representati Italian Neorealist Cinema Torunn

Haaland, 2013-12-17 This book traces the roots of neorealist film and draws parallels to neorealist fiction by surveying the major creative contributions to and critical receptions of this trend in Italian postwar cinema Post-beur Cinema Will Higbee, 2013-07-22 Since the early 1980s filmmakers of Maghrebi origin have made a key contribution to the representation of issues such as immigration integration and national identity in French cinema However they have done so mostly from a position on the margins of the industry In contrast since the early 2000s Maghrebi French and North African migr filmmakers have occupied an increasingly prominent position in on both sides of the camera announcing their presence on French screens in a wider range of genres and styles than ever before This greater prominence and move to the mainstream has not automatically meant that these films have lost any of the social or political relevance of Beur cinema of the 1980s or the banlieue film of the 1990s Indeed in the 2000s these films have increasingly questioned the boundaries between national transnational and diasporic cinema whilst simultaneously demanding either implicitly or explicitly a reconsideration of the very difference that has traditionally been seen as a barrier to the successful integration of North African immigrants and their descendants into French society Through a detailed study of this transformative decade for Maghrebi French and North African migr filmmaking in France this book argues for the emergence of a Post Beur cinema in the 2000s that is simultaneously global and local in its outlook An absorbing introduction to this key development in contemporary French cinema Post Beur Cinema is essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies French Studies and Diaspora Studies

Magic Realist Cinema in East Central Europe Aga Skrodzka, 2014-02-11 Magic Realist Cinema is the first book length critical analysis of magic realism in cinema Neorealist Film Culture, 1945-1954 Francesco Pitassio, 2025-10-01 Unique truthful brutal Neorealism is often associated with adjectives stressing its peculiarities in representing the real its lack of antecedents and its legacy in terms of film style While this is useful when confronting auteurs such as De Sica Rossellini or Visconti it becomes problematic when examining a widespread cultural practice that realistic modes deeply affected This cultural production included filmmaking literature visual culture and photography as well as media discourses It was internally contradictory but fruitful inasmuch as its legacy influenced national culture for many decades to come The volume spotlights post war Italian film culture by locating a series of crossroads i e topics barely examined when discussing neorealism nation memory and trauma visual culture stardom and performance The aim is to deconstruct neorealism as a monument and to open up its cultural history Contemporary Japanese Cinema Since Hana-Bi Adam

representative films It considers both those films whose generic lineage is clearly definable samurai yakuza horror as well as the singularity of several recent trends in the country s filmmaking such as magic realist filmmaking New Taiwanese Cinema in Focus Flannery Wilson,2015-05-29 In the Taiwanese film industry the dichotomy between art house and commercially viable films is heavily emphasized However since the democratization of the political landscape in Taiwan Taiwanese cinema has become internationally fluid As the case studies in this book demonstrate filmmakers such as Hou Hsiao hsien Edward Yang Tsai Ming liang and Ang Lee each engage with international audience expectations New Taiwanese Cinema in Focus therefore presents the Taiwanese New Wave and Second Wave movements with an emphasis on intertextuality citation and trans cultural dialogue Wilson argues that the cinema of Taiwan since the 1980s should be read emblematically that is as a representation of the greater paradox that exists in national and transnational cinema studies She argues that these unlikely relationships create the need for a new way of thinking about transnationalism altogether making this an essential read for advanced students and scholars in both Film Studies and Asian Studies Films on Ice Scott MacKenzie,2014-12-02 A comprehensive study of films made in and about one of the world s most breathtaking landscapes the Arctic The first book to address the vast diversity of Northern circumpolar cinemas from a transnational perspective Films on Ice Cinemas of the Arctic presents the region as one of great and previously overlooked cinematic diversity With chapters on polar explorer films silent cinema documentaries ethnographic and indigenous film gender and ecology as well as Hollywood and the USSR s uses and abuses of the Arctic this book provides a groundbreaking account of Arctic cinemas from 1898 to the present Challenging dominant notions of the region in popular and political culture it demonstrates how moving images cinema television video and digital media have been central to the very definition of the Arctic since the end of the nineteenth century Bringing together an international array of European Russian Nordic and North American scholars Films on Ice radically alters stereotypical views of the Arctic region and therefore of film history itself American Smart Cinema Claire Perkins,2013-01-14 American Smart Cinema examines a contemporary type of US filmmaking that exists at the intersection of mainstream art and independent cinema and often gives rise to absurd darkly comic and nihilistic effects

International Film Musical Corey K Creekmur,2013-01-11 A unique study of the film musical a global cinema tradition

Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff,2007-01-01 The end of the Second World War saw the emergence in Italy of the neorealism movement which produced a number of films characterized by stories set among the poor and working class often shot on location using non professional actors In this study Christopher Wagstaff provides an in depth analysis of neorealist film focusing on three films that have had a major impact on filmmakers and audiences around the world Roberto Rossellini s Roma citt aperta and Pais and Vittorio De Sica s Ladri di biciclette Indeed these films are still more than half a century after they were made among the most highly regarded works in the history of cinema In this insightful and carefully researched work Wagstaff suggests that the importance of these films is largely due to the aesthetic and rhetorical qualities of their assembled sounds and images rather than as commonly thought their particular representations of historical reality The author begins by situating neorealist cinema in its historical industrial commercial and cultural context He goes on to provide a theoretical discussion of realism and the merits of neorealist films individually and collectively as aesthetic artefacts He follows with a detailed analysis of the three films focusing on technical and production aspects as well as on the significance of the films as cinematic works of art While providing a wealth of information and analysis previously unavailable to an English speaking audience Italian Neorealist Cinema offers a radically new perspective on neorealist cinema and the Italian art cinema that followed it Chinese Martial Arts Cinema Stephen Teo, 2015-11-13 This is the first comprehensive fully researched account of the historical and contemporary development of the traditional martial arts genre in the Chinese cinema known as wuxia literal translation martial chivalry a genre which audiences around the world became familiar with through the phenomenal crossover hit Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon 2000 The book unveils rich layers of the wuxia tradition as it developed in the early Shanghai cinema in the late 1920s and from the 1950s onwards in the Hong Kong and Taiwan film industries Key attractions of the book are analyses of The history of the tradition as it began in the Shanghai cinema its rise and popularity as a serialized form in the silent cinema of the late 1920s and its eventual prohibition by the government in 1931 The fantastic characteristics of the genre their relationship with folklore myth and religion and their similarities and differences with the kung fu sub genre of martial arts cinema The protagonists and heroes of the genre in particular the figure of the female knight errant The chief personalities and masterpieces of the genre directors such as King Hu Chu Yuan Zhang Che Ang Lee Zhang Yimou and films such as Come Drink With Me 1966 The One Armed Swordsman 1967 A Touch of Zen 1970 71 Hero 2002 House of Flying Daggers 2004 and Curse of the Golden Flower 2006 Coming-of-Age Cinema in New Zealand Alistair Fox, 2017-09-08 Explores the complex ethical dilemmas of human mobility in the context of climate change Childhood and Nation in Contemporary World Cinema Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, Emma Wilson, Sarah Wright, 2017-02-09 The child has existed in cinema since the Lumi re Brothers filmed their babies having messy meals in Lyons but it is only quite recently that scholars have paid serious attention to her his presence on screen Scholarly discussion is now of the highest quality and of interest to anyone concerned not only with the extent to which adult cultural conversations invoke the figure of the child but also to those interested in exploring how film cultures can shift questions of agency and experience in relation to subjectivity Childhood and Nation in World Cinema recognizes that the range of films and scholarship is now sufficiently extensive to invoke the world cinema mantra of pluri vocal and pluri central attention and interpretation At the same time the importance of the child in figuring ideas of nationhood is an undiminished tic in adult cultural and social consciousness Either the child on film provokes claims on the nation or the nation claims the child Given the waning star of national film studies and the widely held and serious concerns over the status of the nation as a meaningful cultural unit the point here is not to assume some extraordinary pre social geopolitical empathy of child and political entity Rather the present collection observes how and why and whether the cinematic child is indeed aligned to concepts of modern nationhood to concerns of the State and to geo political organizational themes and precepts Landscape and Memory in Post-Fascist Italian Film Giuliana Minghelli,2014-06-11 This study argues that neorealism s visual genius is inseparable from its almost invisible relation to the Fascist past a connection inscribed in cinematic landscapes While largely a silent narrative neorealism s complex visual processing of two decades of Fascism remains the greatest cultural production in the service of memorialization and comprehension for a nation that had neither a Nuremberg nor a formal process of reconciliation Through her readings of canonical neorealist films Minghelli unearths the memorial strata of the neorealist image and investigates the complex historical charge that invests this cinema This book is both a formal analysis of the new conception of the cinematic image born from a crisis of memory and a reflection on the relation between cinema and memory Films discussed include Ossessione 1943 Pais 1946 Ladri di biciclette 1948 and Cronaca di un amore 1950 A Companion to Italian Cinema Frank Burke,2017-04-10 Written by leading figures in the field A Companion to Italian Cinema re maps Italian cinema studies employing new perspectives on traditional issues and fresh theoretical approaches to the exciting history and field of Italian cinema Offers new approaches to Italian cinema whose importance in the post war period was unrivalled Presents a theory based approach to historical and archival material Includes work by both established and more recent scholars with new takes on traditional critical issues and new theoretical approaches to the exciting history and field of Italian cinema Covers recent issues such as feminism stardom queer cinema immigration and postcolonialism self reflexivity and postmodernism popular genre cinema and digitalization A comprehensive collection of essays addressing the prominent films directors and cinematic forms of Italian cinema which will become a standard resource for academic and non academic purposes alike The Oxford History of World Cinema ,1996-10-17 From its humble beginnings as a novelty in a handful of cities cinema has risen to become a billion dollar industry and the most spectacular and original contemporary art form It has spread to all parts of the globe and is enjoyed by audiences that cut across all sections of society The Oxford History of World Cinema traces the history of this enduringly popular entertainment medium Covering all aspects of its development stars studios and cultural impact the book celebrates and chronicles over one hundred years of diverse achievement from westerns to the New Wave from animation to the Avant Garde and from Hollywood to Hong Kong An international team of distinguished film historians tells the story of the major inventions and developments in the cinema business its institutions genres and personnel other chapters outline the evolution of national cinemas round the world the varied and distinctive filmic traditions that have developed alongside Hollywood A unique aspect of the book are the special inset features on the film makers and personalities Garbo and Godard Keaton and Kurosawa Bugs Bunny and Bergman who have had an enduring impact in popular memory and cinematic lore With over 300 illustrations a full bibliography and an extensive index this is the buff s ultimate guide to cinema worldwide
