Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco, Jack Soltanian, 2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue today the Museum's holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice some typify local styles others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration Using such techniques scholars have been able to ascertain for example that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive enigmatic history From publisher's description Creating the Work You Love Rick Jarow, 1995-11-01 In this unique and provocative look at work career counselor Rick Jarow argues for a return to the concept of vocation finding a calling instead of a job Traditional career guides inventory the individual skills talents and abilities that correlate to specific existing jobs Creating the Work You Love presents a unique alternative approach using self reflective exercises based on the seven chakras to help you determine the elements you need to create a life filled with meaning and purpose Jarow believes that it is possible to live and act from the most authentic part of ourselves and to express our strongest values energies and talents through our work in the world Concentrating on the attributes associated with each of the body's energy centers or chakras Dr Jarow helps us form a bridge between our personal priorities and the external activities of the work world Once this bridge is established strategies are developed to find a career that nourishes all aspects of our lives Ancient Plaster Abbey L. R. Ellis, Emma Payne, 2025-07-02 Ancient Plaster Casting Light on a Forgotten Sculptural Material offers a fresh exploration of plaster in the sculpture of the ancient Mediterranean and beyond Challenging the traditional focus on marble and bronze this volume reveals the crucial role of plaster both in the sculptor's workshop and as a medium for finished sculpture Combining academic insights with contemporary artists' perspectives the book also delves into the controversial topic of life casting in antiquity and provides groundbreaking new interpretations of well known plaster objects such as those from the Roman city of Baiae near Naples With chapters extending the chronological and geographical scope to early modern Europe and contemporary art school contexts the book illuminates plaster's versatility and the continuity of its use across millennia By rehabilitating this material often overlooked or lost to the archaeological record the volume offers a transformative view of ancient sculpture appealing to both scholars and art enthusiasts alike Diego Rivera Leah
