Resources in Education, 2001-10 Cracking the Code of Education Reform Christopher H. Tienken, 2019-08-07 Lead between the lines evaluate Ed policies to emphasize the positives and minimize the negatives Although educational reform is intended for positive change sometimes it misses the mark However when school leaders capitalize on the positive aspects of reforms they can strategize to ensure the best outcomes for students Christopher Tienken professor and international speaker shares his insights on how to identify both positive and negative aspects of education reform to maximize the benefits for students This book introduces a practical framework for interpreting educational reform within an evidence based practice and provides thoughtful ways to finesse results out of challenging policies Designed for use on the ground level this book features Seven specific creative compliance strategies to maximize student and educator success Case studies that illustrate how to critique reforms and take action Reflective questions to guide evaluation and application Ethical decision making checklist Analyzing both successful and unsuccessful reform ideas from the past this book champions creative compliance and how to lead innovatively judiciously

Legal Rights, Local Wrongs Kevin G. Welner, 2001-09-27 Shows how education reforms take place within cauldrons of political interests and conflicting values and beliefs Educating Emergent Bilinguals Ofelia García, Jo Anne Kleifgen, 2010 This comprehensive and insightful book shows how present educational policies and practices to educate language minority students in the United States ignore an essential characteristic their emergent bilingualism Expanding on a popular report supported by the Campaign for Educational Equity Teachers College this accessible guide compiles the most up to date research findings to demonstrate how ignoring childrens bilingualism perpetuates inequities in their schooling What makes this book truly useful is that it offers a thorough description of alternative practices that would transform our schools and students futures such as building on students home languages and literacy practices in schools curricular and pedagogical innovations new approaches to parent and community engagement and adoptive assessment tools Language and Identity in a Dual Immersion School Kim Potowski, 2007-01-01 This book describes the experiences of a group of students in Chicago Illinois who are attending one of the first Spanish English dual immersion schools in the United States The author follows the group during two school years documenting their Spanish use and proficiency as well as how their two languages intersect with the ongoing production of their identities

International Schools Directory 2009/10 Derek Bingham, 2009-10 Handbook of the Life Course Jeylan T. Mortimer, Michael J. Shanahan, 2007-12-14 This comprehensive handbook provides an overview of key theoretical perspectives, concepts, and methodological approaches that while applied to diverse phenomena are united in their general approach to the study of lives across age phases. In surveying the wide terrain of life course studies with dual emphases on theory and empirical research, this important reference work presents probative concepts and methods and identifies promising avenues for future research.

Computer-based Education, 1989 Children, Schools, And Inequality Doris R. Entwisle, 2018-03-05 Educational sociologists have paid relatively little attention to children in middle childhood, ages 6 to 12, whereas developmental psychologists have emphasized factors internal to the child much more than the social contexts in explaining children's development. Children, Schools, and Inequality redresses that imbalance. It examines elementary school outcomes, e.g., test scores, grades, retention rates, in light of the socioeconomic variation in schools and neighborhoods, the organizational patterns across elementary schools, and the ways in which family structure intersects with children's school performance. Adding data from the Baltimore Beginning School Study to information culled from the fields of sociology, child development, and education, this book suggests why the gap between the school achievement of poor children and those who are better off has been so difficult to close.

Doris Entwistle, Karl Alexander, and Linda Olson show why the first grade transition, how children negotiate entry into full-time schooling, is a crucial period. They also show that events over that time have repercussions that echo throughout children's entire school careers. Currently, the only study of this life transition to cover a comprehensive sample and to suggest straightforward remedies for urban schools, Children, Schools, and Inequality can inform educators, practitioners, and policymakers, as well as researchers in the sociology of education and child development.

The State Report Card for No Child Left Behind, 2009 Exploring Critical Issues in Gifted Education Christine L. Weber, Cecelia Boswell, Wendy A. Behrens, 2025-02-11 The new edition of Exploring Critical Issues in Gifted Education presents problem-based learning scenarios that explore authentic situations found in K-12 classrooms. The real-world, current issue scenarios and cases described in this text are designed to be read and discussed in a short amount of time, allowing the reader to gain greater understanding through empathy, analyze multiple perspectives, and support the standards of excellence set forth in the 2019 NAGC Pre-K-12 Gifted Programming Standards and the Global Principles for Professional Learning in Gifted Education. This new edition features additional cases focusing on professional learning practices in the areas of equity, thrice exceptionalism, psychosocial development, and talent development. An engaging course text and a valuable professional development tool, this book will provide decision-making strategies to analyze cases and personalize solutions, allowing educators to gain the insight needed to improve the identification of and services for gifted and talented students.
