Spirituality, Action, & Pedagogy Diana Denton, Will Ashton, 2004

Spirituality Action Pedagogy Teaching from the Heart invites the reader to participate in a personal exploration of what it means to consciously seek the heart of education. The authors in this collection, practitioners in higher education and teaching in such diverse areas as educational foundations, communication, theater, sociology, reading and literacy, and performance studies, respond to this challenge by striking the most personal chords of their lived experience. As they relate their tales of spirituality and teaching, the reader will be coaxed into confronting the question of what it means to teach. Spirituality Action Pedagogy addresses the integration of spirituality into pedagogical practice by providing cutting edge examples of applications in classroom settings.

Onward Elena Aguilar, 2018-05-08 A practical framework to avoid burnout and keep great teachers teaching. Onward tackles the problem of educator stress and provides a practical framework for taking the burnout out of teaching. Stress is part of the job, but when 70 percent of teachers quit within their first five years because the stress is making them physically and mentally ill, things have gone too far. Unsurprisingly, these effects are highest in difficult-to-fill positions such as math, science, and foreign languages and in urban areas and secondary classrooms, places where we need our teachers to be especially motivated and engaged. This book offers a path to resiliency to help teachers weather the storms and bounce back and work toward banishing the rain for good. This actionable framework gives you concrete steps toward rediscovering yourself, your energy, and your passion for teaching. You'll learn how a simple shift in mindset can affect your outlook and how taking care of yourself physically, mentally, and emotionally is one of the most important things you can do. The companion workbook helps you put the framework into action, streamlining your way toward renewal and strength. Cultivate resilience with a four-part framework based on 12 key habits. Uncover your true self, understand emotions, and use your energy where it counts. Adopt a mindful story-telling approach to communication and community building. Keep learning, playing, and creating to create an environment of collective celebration. By cultivating resilience in schools, we help ensure that we are working in teaching and leading organizations where every child thrives and where the potential of every child is recognized and nurtured. Onward provides a step-by-step plan for reigniting that spark.
