Local Heroes Changing America:

Local Heroes Changing America Tom Rankin, Ray Suarez, 2000 Using personal narratives and revealing photographs from a traveling photographic exhibition this unique book celebrates the contributions of ordinary Americans who are working to improve their communities 35 000 first printing Local Heroes Changing America Tom Rankin, 2009-01-01 This book is about the work vision and passion of dedicated individuals in communities across America told through their own voices and through photos of them and the places they live The real life stories capture the enterprising spirit of people who are bringing about positive change and making their small piece of the world a better place to live The book transports us to neighborhoods where people are taking risks and overcoming social personal and economic differences to improve their local environment and transform their own lives Eli Reed Lynn Davis Sylvia Plachy Dawoud Bey and Danny Lyon are among the photographers who contributed to this book CD included 100 Media Moments That Changed America Jim Willis, 2009-12-09 From the launching of America's first newspaper to YouTube's latest phone videoed crime the media has always been guilty of indulging America's obsession with controversy This encyclopedia covers 100 events in world history from the 17th century to the present moments that alone were major and minor but ones that exploded in the public eye when the media stepped in Topics covered include yellow journalism the War of the Worlds radio broadcast the Kennedy Nixon debates JFK's assassination the Pentagon papers and Hurricane Katrina These are events that changed the way the media is used not just as a tool for spreading knowledge but as a way of shaping and influencing the opinions and reactions of America's citizens Thanks to the media's representations of these events history has been changed forever From classified military plans that leaked out to the public to the first televised presidential debates to the current military tortures caught on tape 100 Media Moments That Changed America will demonstrate not only an ever evolving system of news reporting but also the ways in which historical events have ignited the media to mold news in a way that resonates with America's public This must have reference work is ideal for journalism and history majors as well as for interested general readers Chapters are in chronological order beginning with the 17th century Each chapter starts with a brief introduction followed by media event entries from that decade Each entry explains the moment and then delivers specific details regarding how the media covered the event America's response to the coverage and how the media changed history Local Heroes William R. Berkowitz, Bill Berkowitz, 1987-01-01 Bill Berkowitz a Community Psychologist interviews twenty two men and women from all over America men and women who have proven themselves heroes all they've come in contact with From a Los Angeles bus driver who sings to his passengers to Curtis Sliwa founder of the Guardian Angels these collected vignettes showcase the stories of individuals who endeavor to improve the lives of others and have dedicated their lives to this task Community Practice David A. Hardcastle, 2011-02-18 For almost two decades Community Practice has been a definitive text for social workers community practitioners and students eager to help individuals contribute to and use community resources or work to change oppressive community structures In this third edition a wealth of new charts and cases spotlight the linkages between theoretical orientations and practical skills with an enhanced emphasis on the inherently political nature of social work and community practice Boxes examples and exercises illustrate the range of skills and strategies available to savvy community practitioners in the 21st century including networking marketing and staging political advocacy and leveraging information and communication technologies Other features include New material on community practice ethics critical practice skills community assessment and assets inventory and mapping social problem analysis and applying community practice skills to casework practice Consideration of post 9 11 community challenges Discussion on the changing ethnic composition of America and what this means for practitioners An exploration of a vastly changed political landscape following the election of President Obama the Great Recession the rise of the Tea Party and the increasing political and corporate use of pseudo grassroots endeavors A completely revamped instructor s manual available online at www.oup.com/us communitypractice This fully revised classic text provides a comprehensive and integrated overview of the community theory and skills fundamental to all areas of social work practice Broad in scope and intensive in analysis it is suitable for undergraduate as well as graduate study Community Practice offers students and practitioners the tools necessary to promote the welfare of individuals and communities by tapping into the ecological foundations of community and social work practice HARDCASTLE:COMMUNITY PRACTICE 2E I/M P, 2004-05-24 This manual is intended to help instructors to make the text a more effective tool for teaching social work skills and theories in community practice It covers the basics of practice perspectives and specific techniques mirroring the main text chapter by chapter Replete with a creative array of exercises simulations audiovisual and other instructional aids this manual is designed to make the material come alive

The Southern Register ,2007 The Last Harvest ,2006 Compelling black and white photographs document the disappearing livelihood of the southern truck farmer in a collection that pays tribute to the dignity of local ways in the face of globalism and urban expansion Across the Divide 2 David Francis,Kevin Bell,2010-05-03 Constitutional Law for a

Changing America Lee Epstein,Kevin T. McGuire,Thomas G. Walker,2023-10-10 Excellent balance of case excerpts and author explanation highly appropriate for undergraduate students Dr Wendy Brame Briar Cliff University Political factors influence judicial decisions Arguments and input from lawyers and interest groups the ebb and flow of public opinion and especially the ideological and behavioral inclinations of the justices all combine to shape the development of constitutional doctrine Drawing from political science as much as from legal studies Constitutional Law for a Changing America A Short Course helps students realize that Supreme Court cases are more than just legal names and citations With meticulous revising the authors streamline material while accounting for recent landmark cases and new scholarship Ideal for a one semester course the Ninth Edition of A Short Course offers all the hallmarks of the Rights and Powers volumes also included in the Constitutional Law for a Changing America series in a more condensed format Included with this title LMS Cartridge

Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Kathryn A. Agard, 2011 Leadership in Non Profit Organizations tackles issues and leadership topics for those seeking to understand more about this dynamic sector of society A major focus of this two volume reference work is on the specific roles and skills required of the non profit leader in voluntary organizations Key features include contributions from a wide range of authors who reflect the variety vibrancy and creativity of the sector itself an overview of the history of non profit organizations in the United States description of a robust and diverse assortment of organizations and opportunities for leadership an exploration of the nature of leadership and its complexity as exemplified in the non profit sector availability both in print and online this title will form part of the 2010 Encyclopedia Collection on SAGE Reference Online The Handbook includes topics such as personalities of non profit leaders vision and starting a nonprofit organization nonprofit law statutes taxation and regulations strategic management financial management collaboration public relations for promoting a non profit organization human resource policies and procedures Boundaries of Obligation in American Politics Cara J. Wong, 2010-03-08 This book shows how ordinary Americans imagine their communities and the extent to which their communities boundaries determine who they believe should benefit from the government's resources via redistributive policies By contributing extensive empirical analyses to a largely theoretical discussion it highlights the subjective nature of communities while confronting the elusive task of pinning down pictures in people's heads A deeper understanding of people's definitions of their communities and how they affect feelings of duties and obligations provides a new lens through which to look at diverse societies and the potential for both civic solidarity and humanitarian aid This book analyzes three different types of communities and more than eight national surveys Wong finds that the decision to help only those within certain borders and ignore the needs of those outside rests to a certain extent on whether and how people translate their sense of community into obligations The Publishers Weekly, 2000 Extra Mile America: Stories of Inspiration, Possibility and Purpose Shawn Anderson, 2010-09-01 To symbolize the power of the go the extra mile message Shawn Anderson pedaled a bicycle from ocean to ocean solo Along the way he interviewed over two hundred inspirational Americans who had demonstrated a remarkable ability to overcome personal setback and accomplish something extraordinary A blind woman who climbed one of the world's tallest mountains a triathlete who was born a congenital amputee a 95 year old who has been volunteering at the same hospital for 49 years a corporate executive who gives away 82% of his company's profits these are a few of the inspirational profiles highlighted in Extra Mile America The stories in this book have the power to inspire your spirit challenge you to reevaluate your own life setbacks and motivate you to take a deep breath of courage in order to get back on your own metaphorical bike with a renewed passion and purpose

What Happened? An Encyclopedia of Events That Changed America Forever John E. Findling, Frank W.

Thackeray,2010-12-09 This comprehensive and highly readable collection of essays highlights 50 important events that changed the course of American history What Happened An Encyclopedia of Events That Changed America Forever is designed to introduce beginning U S history students and lay readers to the most significant events in the nation s history More than that it also will give readers insight into why a particular event is important This book consists of 50 chapters in four volumes each dealing with a critically important event in American history from the 17th century to the present Each chapter includes a factual essay on the subject prepared by John Findling or Frank Thackeray The factual material is augmented with an interpretive essay on the same subject written by a specialist in the field Through this juxtaposition readers can learn not only about the who what and where of an event but also why it is important in the sweep of American history Snake Vs. Mongoose: How a Rivalry Changed Drag Racing Forever Tom Madigan, Meet You in Hell Les

Standiford,2006-06-13 Two founding fathers of American industry One desire to dominate business at any price Masterful Standiford has a way of making the 1890s resonate with a twenty first century audience USA Today The narrative is as absorbing as that of any good novel and as difficult to put down Miami Herald The author of Last Train to Paradise tells the riveting story of Andrew Carnegie Henry Clay Frick and the bloody steelworkers strike that transformed their fabled partnership into a furious rivalry Set against the backdrop of the Gilded Age Meet You in Hell captures the majesty and danger of steel manufacturing the rough and tumble of the business world and the fraught relationship between the world s richest man and the ruthless coke magnate to whom he entrusted his companies The result is an extraordinary work of popular history Praise for Meet You in Hell To the list of the signal relationships of American history we can add one more Andrew Carnegie and Henry Clay Frick The tale is deftly set out by Les Standiford Wall Street Journal Standiford tells the story with the skills of a novelist a colloquial style that is mindful of William Manchester s great The Glory and the Dream Pittsburgh Tribune Review A muscular enthralling read that takes you back to a time when two titans of industry clashed in a battle of wills and egos that had seismic ramifications not only for themselves but for anyone living in the United States then and now Dennis Lehane author of Mystic River How TV Changed America's Mind Edward Wakin,2002-11 Tells the story of how television worked to change the minds of Americans in the categories of confrontation politics war heroes and villains and eye openers from the 1950s through the 1990s Small-Town Heroes Hank Davis,2003-01-01 In 1993 successful psychologist and journalist Hank Davis undertook an epic journey exploring the atmosphere and culture of both minor league baseball and the small towns that embrace it Davis shows us the warmth quirkiness and desperate energy of minor league ball from encounters with future stars to those who would never make it to the show from the kids selling Cracker Jacks outside the park to the aging coaches who persevere out of sheer love for the game As Davis says the minor leagues are full of stories and he tells some of the best of them here A new afterword by the author dis cusses where the minor league players are now Grassroots Development ,1990
