Ecocritical Approaches to Italian Culture and Literature Pasquale Verdicchio, 2016-08-23 The essays in this volume provide a theorization of what we might call the denatured wild in other words a notion of environmental restoration or reinhabitation that recognizes and reconfigures the human factor as an interdependent entity Acknowledging the contributions of Marco Armerio Serenella Iovino Giovanna Ricoveri Patrick Barron and Anna Re among others Ecocritical Approaches to Italian Culture and Literature The Denatured Wild negotiates the ground within the historicizing theoretical perspectives and surveying spirit of these writers Despite the central role that nature has played in Italian culture and literature there has been an evident lack of critical approaches free of the bridles of the socio political manipulations of nationalism The authors in this collection by recognizing the groundbreaking work of many non Italian ecocritics challenge the narrowly defined conventions of Italian Studies and illuminates the complexities of an Italian ecocriticism that reveals a rich environmentally engaged literary and cultural tradition

International Perspectives in Feminist Ecocriticism Greta Gaard, Simon C. Estok, Serpil Oppermann, 2013-06-07 Exploring environmental literature from a feminist perspective this volume presents a diversity of feminist ecocritical approaches to affirm the continuing contributions relevance and necessity of a feminist perspective in environmental literature culture and science Feminist ecocriticism has a substantial history with roots in second and third wave feminist literary criticism women's environmental writing and social change activisms and eco cultural critique and yet both feminist and ecofeminist literary perspectives have been marginalized The essays in this collection build on the belief that the repertoire of violence conceptual and literal toward nature and women comprising our daily lives must become central to our ecocritical discussions and that basic literacy in theories about ethics are fundamental to these discussions The book offers an international collection of scholarship that includes ecocritical theory literary criticism and ecocultural analyses bringing a diversity of perspectives in terms of gender sexuality and race Reconnecting with the histories of feminist and ecofeminist literary criticism and utilizing new developments in postcolonial ecocriticism animal studies queer theory feminist and gender studies cross cultural and international ecocriticism this timely volume develops a continuing and international feminist ecocritical perspective on literature language and culture

Gaelic Scotland in the Colonial Imagination Silke Stroh, 2016-12-15 Can Scotland be considered an English colony Is its experience and literature comparable to that of overseas postcolonial countries Or are such comparisons no more than patriotic victimology to mask Scottish complicity in the British Empire and justify nationalism These questions have been heatedly debated in recent years especially in the run up to the 2014 referendum on independence and remain topical amid continuing campaigns for more autonomy and calls for a post Brexit indyref2 Gaelic Scotland in the Colonial Imagination offers a general introduction to the emerging field of postcolonial Scottish studies assessing both its potential and limitations in order to promote further interdisciplinary dialogue Accessible to readers from various backgrounds the book combines overviews of theoretical social and cultural contexts with detailed case studies of literary and nonliterary texts The main focus is on internal divisions between the anglophone Lowlands and traditionally Gaelic Highlands which also play a crucial role in Scottish English relations Silke Stroh shows how the image of Scotland s Gaelic margins changed under the influence of two simultaneous developments the emergence of the modern nation state and the rise of overseas colonialism

From Popular Goethe to Global Pop Ines Detmers,Birte Heidemann,2013-11-01 This essay collection embarks on a historical voyage into the idea of the West while contextualising its relevance to the contemporary discourses on cultural difference Although the idea of the West predates both colonial and Orientalist projects it has been radically reshaped by the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 the end of the Cold War and the 9 11 attacks In the wake of these developments this collection attends to the nebulous paradigm shifts that account for a reconfiguration of the conventional coordinates of the West West vs Rest Orient vs Occident The essays featured in this collection draw upon a wide range of theories from a comparative perspective Taken together the collection covers a vast terrain of textual and non textual sources including novels political and poetological programs video clips and hypertexts while exploring the formal aesthetic representations of the West from interdisciplinary perspectives as diverse as German classicism post modern

Britain Canada China Ireland and the postcolonial world The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Climate Adeline Johns-Putra, Kelly Sultzbach, 2022-04-07 Investigating the relationship between literature and climate this Companion offers a genealogy of climate representations in literature while showing how literature can help us make sense of climate change It argues that any discussion of literature and climate cannot help but be shaped by our current and inescapable vantage point from an era of climate change and uncovers a longer literary history of climate that might inform our contemporary climate crisis Essays explore the conceptualisation of climate in a range of literary and creative modes they represent a diversity of cultural and historical perspectives and a wide spectrum of voices and views across the categories of race gender and class Key issues in climate criticism and literary studies are introduced and explained while new and emerging concepts are discussed and debated in a final section that puts expert analyses in conversation with each other Dark Nights, Bright Lights Susanne Bach, Folkert Degenring, 2015-10-16 Light and darkness shape our perception of the world This is true in a literal sense but also metaphorically in theology philosophy literature and the arts the light of day signifies life safety knowledge and all that is good while the darkness of the night suggests death danger ignorance and evil A closer inspection however reveals that things are not quite so clear cut and that light and darkness cannot be understood as simple binary opposites On a biological level for example daylight and darkness are inseparable factors in the calibration of our circadian rhythms and a lack of periodical darkness appears to be as contrary to health as a lack of exposure to sunlight On a cultural level too night and darkness are far from being universally condemnable in fiction drama and poetry the darkness of the night allows not only nightmares but also dreams it allows criminals to ply their trade and allows lovers to meet it allows the pursuit of pleasure as well as deep thought it allows metamorphoses transformations and transgressions unthinkable in the light of day But night is not merely darkness The night gains significance as an alternative space as an other of the day only when it is at least partially illuminated The volume examines the interconnection of night darkness and nocturnal illumination across a broad range of literary texts The individual essays examine historically specific light conditions in literature tracing the symbolic and metaphoric content of darkness and illumination and the attitudes towards them Critical Approaches to Joseph Conrad Agata Szczeszak-Brewer, 2015-08-31 Critical Approaches to Joseph Conrad is a collection of essays directed to both new and experienced readers of Conrad The book takes into account recent developments in literary theory including the prominence of ecocriticism ecopostcolonial approaches and gender studies Editor Agata Szczeszak Brewer offers a comprehensive and comprehensible introduction to Conrad's most popular texts also addressing the most recent academic debates as well as the conversations about narrative and genre in Conrad's canon Students and scholars of Conrad twentieth century literature and modernism will appreciate the clear accessible prose by nineteen internationally recognized contributors who approach Conrad in different ways from postcolonial and ecocritical perspectives through explorations of gender to psychoanalysis narrative theory and political analysis Beginning with a biographical introduction by Szczeszak

Brewer the collection offers an essay outlining the cultural and historical contexts that influenced Conrad's fiction and an essay on reception of Conrad's work Following that contributors provide critical approaches to Heart of Darkness Lord Jim Typhoon Nostromo The Secret Agent The Secret Sharer and Under Western Eyes In these sections scholars offer insights about complex issues in Conrad's fiction ranging from the study of specific literary tools and narrative development in his books to the political theories in Conrad's portrayal of the threat of terrorism and violent revolutions

The Afterlives of Frankenstein Robert I. Lublin, Elizabeth A. Fay, 2024-02-22 An exploration of the treatment of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein in popular art and culture this book examines adaptations in film comics theatre art video games and more to illuminate how the novel's myth has evolved in the two centuries since its publication Divided into four sections The Afterlives of Frankenstein considers the cultural dialogues Mary Shelley's novel has engaged with in specific historical moments the extraordinary examples of how Frankenstein has suffused our cultural consciousness and how the Frankenstein myth has become something to play with a locus for reinvention and imaginative interpretation In the final part artists respond to the Frankenstein legacy today reintroducing it into cultural circulation in ways that speak creatively to current anxieties and concerns Bringing together popular interventions that riff off Shelley's major themes chapters survey such works as Frankenstein in Baghdad Bob Dylan's recent My Own Version of You the graphic novel series Destroyer with its Black cast of characters Jane Loudon's The Mummy the first Japanese translation of Frankenstein The New Creator the iconic Frankenstein mask and Kenneth Branagh's Mary Shelley's Frankenstein film A deep dive into the crevasses of Frankenstein adaptation and lore this volume offers compelling new directions for scholarship surrounding the novel through dynamic critical and creative responses to Shelley's original

Beyond the Human-Animal Divide Dominik Ohrem, Roman Bartosch, 2017-11-21 This volume explores the potential of the concept of the creaturely for thinking and writing beyond the idea of a clear cut human animal divide presenting innovative perspectives and narratives for an age which increasingly confronts us with the profound ecological ethical and political challenges of a multispecies world The text explores written work such as Samuel Beckett's Worstward Ho and Michel Foucault's The Order of Things video media such as the film Creature Comforts and the video game Into the Dead and photography With chapters written by an international group of philosophers literary and cultural studies scholars historians and others the volume brings together established experts and forward thinking early career scholars to provide an interdisciplinary engagement with ways of thinking and writing the creaturely to establish a postanthropocentric sense of human animal relationality

Comparatizing Taiwan Shu-mei Shih, Ping-hui Liao, 2014-10-17 As the site of crossings of colonizers settlers merchants and goods island nations such as Taiwan have seen a rich confluence of cultures where peoples and languages were either forced to mix or did so voluntarily due largely to colonial conquest and their crucial role in world economy Through an examination of socio cultural phenomena Comparatizing Taiwan situates Taiwan globally comparatively and relationally to bring out the nation's innate richness This book examines Taiwan in relation to other islands cultures or nations in terms of culture geography history politics and economy Comparisons include China Korea Canada Hong Kong Macau Ireland Malaysia Japan New Zealand South Africa the United States and the Caribbean and these comparisons present a number of different issues alongside a range of sometimes divergent implications By exploring Taiwan s many relationalities material as well as symbolic over a significant historical and geographical span the contributors move to expand the horizons of Taiwan studies and reveal the valuable insights that can be obtained by viewing nations societies and cultures in comparison Through this process the book offers crucial reflections on how to compare and how to study small nations This truly interdisciplinary book will be welcomed by students and scholars interested in Taiwan studies Sinophone studies comparative cultural studies postcolonial studies and literary studies

The Future of Ecocriticism Serpil Oppermann,Ufuk Özdağ,Nevin Özkan,2011-05-25 As we enter the second decade of the twenty first century environmental concerns dominate the media headlines from rampant poverty in the developing world to nuclear accidents in industrialized nations How did human civilization arrive at its current predicaments and what can we do to temper our habits of mind and mitigate society s environmentally and socially destructive behaviors The field of ecocriticism also sometimes called environmental criticism attempts to grapple with such issues A branch of literary and cultural studies that essentially began in North America in the 1970s ecocriticism is currently one of the most quickly developing areas of environmental research and teaching The Future of Ecocriticism New Horizons brings together thirty two of the latest articles in the field including work by some of the leading scholars from around the world Although ecocriticism has been particularly active in North America Western Europe and East Asia important studies of traditional environmental thought environmental communication strategies and environmental aesthetics have begun to emerge in every region of this world This new book co edited by three prominent Turkish scholars and a leading American ecocritic offers a special cluster of Turkish ecocriticism with a focus on environmental stories and ideas in this culture that bridges Europe and Asia Another unique feature of The Future of Ecocriticism New Horizons is the concluding dialogue among the four editors about the current state of the field
