Hollywood on Location Joshua Gleich, Lawrence Webb, 2019-01-14 Location shooting has always been a vital counterpart to soundstage production and at times the primary form of Hollywood filmmaking But until now the industrial and artistic development of this production practice has been scattered across the margins of larger American film histories Hollywood on Location is the first comprehensive history of location shooting in the American film industry showing how this mode of filmmaking changed Hollywood business practices production strategies and visual style from the silent era to the present The contributors explore how location filmmaking supplemented and later supplanted production on the studio lots Drawing on archival research and in depth case studies the seven contributors show how location shooting expanded the geography of American film production from city streets and rural landscapes to far flung territories overseas invoking a new set of creative financial technical and logistical challenges Whereas studio filmmaking sought to recreate nature location shooting sought to master it finding new production values and production economies that reshaped Hollywood s modus operandi

Film Marketing into the Twenty-First Century Nolwenn Mingant, Cecilia Tirtaine, Joël Augros, 2019-07-25 How do you sell British humour to a French audience Could piracy actually be good for the film business Why are The Hobbit's revolutionary technologies not mentioned in some adverts Exploring these questions and many more Film Marketing into the Twenty First Century draws on insights from renowned film academics and leading industry professionals to chart the evolution of modern film marketing The first part of the book focuses on geographical considerations showing how marketers have to adapt their strategies locally as films travel across borders The second covers new marketing possibilities offered by the Internet as Vine Facebook and other participative websites open new venues for big distributors and independents alike Straddling practical and theoretical concerns and including case studies that take us from Nollywood to Peru this book provides an accessible introduction to the key issues at stake for film marketing in a global era The Education of the Filmmaker in Europe, Australia, and Asia M. Hjort, 2013-07-17 Practice based film education is a crucial element in the institutional landscape of film This book fills the gap in understanding practice based film scholarship focusing on Europe Asia and Australia Jackson Alfio Leotta, 2015-12-17 Peter Jackson is one of the most acclaimed and influential contemporary film makers This is the first book to combine the examination of Jackson's career with an in depth critical analysis of his films thus providing readers with the most comprehensive study of the New Zealand film maker s body of work The first section of the book concentrates on Jackson's biography surveying the evolution of his career from the director of cult slapstick movies such as Meet the Feebles 1989 and Braindead 1992 to an entrepreneur responsible for the foundation of companies such as Wingnut Films and Weta Workshop and finally to producer and director of mega blockbuster projects such as The Lord of the Rings 2001 2003 and The Hobbit 2012 2013 The book further examines Jackson's work at the level of production reception and textuality along with key collaborative relationships and significant themes associated with Jackson's films The examination of Peter Jackson's work and career ties into significant academic debates including the relationship between national cinema and global Hollywood the global dispersal of film production the relationship between film authorship and industrial modes of production the impact of the creative industries on the construction of national identity and new developments in film Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, 2012-05-02 Today is a new metropolitan age and for the first technology time ever more people live in cities than they do anywhere else As cities strengthen their international and cultural influence the global world is acted out most articulately in the world's urban hubs through its diverse cultures broad networks and innovative styles of governance Looking at the city through its internal dynamics the book examines how governance and cultural policy play out in a national and international framework Making a truly global contribution to the literature editors Isar and Anheier bring together a truly international and highly respected collection of scholars In doing so they skilfully steer debates beyond the city as an economic powerhouse to cover issues that fully comprehend a city s cultural dynamics and its impact on policy including alternative economies creativity migration diversity sustainability education and urban planning Innovative in its approach and content this book is ideal for students scholars and researchers interested in sociology urban studies cultural studies and public policy Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers, Charles Tepperman, 2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive Understanding Global Media Terry Flew, 2018-03-03 This key textbook provides a comprehensive and up to date account of developments in international communication worldwide Taking a comparative approach to the major theories of global media Terry Flew looks at the rise of global media production networks and the emergence of media cities multiculturalism and the question of a global media culture This engaging book raises the question of whether we are now in a post global age and discusses whether there is a stable global communications order or instead a stage of increased competition among digital and traditional media and between the US and emergent powers such as China Drawing on a wide range of perspectives and written by a renowned author this is an essential introduction for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies communication studies and cultural studies and anyone interested in the study of media and globalization A Companion to Australian Cinema Felicity Collins, Jane Landman, Susan Bye, 2019-04-22 The first comprehensive volume of original essays on Australian screen culture in the twenty first century A Companion to Australian Cinema is an anthology of original essays by new and established authors on the contemporary state and future directions of a well established national cinema A timely intervention that challenges and expands the idea of cinema this book brings into sharp focus those facets of Australian cinema that have endured evolved and emerged in the twenty first century The essays address six thematically organized propositions that Australian cinema is an Indigenous screen culture an international cinema a minor transnational imaginary an enduring auteur genre landscape tradition a televisual industry and a multiplatform ecology Offering fresh critical perspectives and extending previous scholarship case studies range from The Lego Movie Mad Max and Australian stars in Hollywood to transnational co productions YouTube channels transmedia and nature cam documentaries New research on trends such as the convergence of television and film digital transformations of screen production and the shifting roles of women on and off screen highlight how established precedents have been influenced by new realities beyond both cinema and the national Written in an accessible style that does not require knowledge of cinema studies or Australian studies Presents original research on Australian actors such as Cate Blanchett and Chris Hemsworth their training branding and path from Australia to Hollywood Explores the films and filmmakers of the Blak Wave and their challenge to Australian settler colonial history and white identity Expands the critical definition of cinema to include YouTube channels transmedia documentaries multiplatform changescapes and cinematic remix Introduces readers to founding texts in Australian screen studies A Companion to Australian Cinema is an ideal introductory text for teachers and students in areas including film and media studies cultural and gender studies and Australian history and politics as well as a valuable resource for educators and other professionals in the humanities and creative arts American-Australian Cinema Adrian Danks, Stephen Gaunson, Peter C. Kunze, 2018-01-29 This edited collection assesses the complex historical and contemporary relationships between US and Australian cinema by tapping directly into discussions of national cinema transnationalism and global Hollywood While most equivalent studies aim to define national cinema as independent from or in competition with Hollywood this collection explores a more porous set of relationships through the varied production distribution and exhibition associations between Australia and the US To explore this idea the book investigates the influence that Australia has had on US cinema through the exportation of its stars directors and other production personnel to Hollywood while also charting the sustained influence of US cinema on Australia over the last hundred years It takes two key points in time the 1920s and 1930s and the last twenty years to explore how particular patterns of localism nationalism colonialism transnationalism and globalisation have shaped its course over the last century The contributors re examine the concept and definition of Australian cinema in regard to a range of local international and global practices and trends that blur neat categorisations of national cinema Although this concentration on US production or influence is particularly acute in relation to developments such as the opening of international film studios in Melbourne Sydney Adelaide and the Gold Coast over the last thirty years the book also examines a range of Hollywood financed and or conceived films shot in Australia since the Culture, Economy and Politics David Hesmondhalgh, Kate Oakley, David Lee, Melissa Nisbett, 2015-09-08 This 1920s
