Racism Postcolonialism Europe Graham Huggan, Ian Law, 2022-04-01 Racism Postcolonialism Europe turns the postcolonial critical gaze that had previously been most likely to train itself on regions other than Europe and sometimes those perceived to be most culturally or geographically distant from Europe back on Europe itself The book argues that racism is alive and dangerously well in Europe and examines this racism through the lens of postcolonial criticism Postcolonial racism can be a racism of reaction based on the perceived threat to traditional social and cultural identities or a racism of false respect based on mainstream liberals desire to hold at arm s length different cultures they are anxious not to offend Most of all postcolonial racism at least within the contemporary European context is a racism of surveillance whereby foreigners become aliens protection disguises preference and cultural difference slides into racial stigmatization all in the interests of representing the European people which is a very different entity to the European population as a whole Boasting a broad multidisciplinary approach and a range of distinguished contributors including Philomena Essed Michel Wieviorka and Griselda Pollock Racism Postcolonialism Europe will be required reading for scholars and students of race postcolonial studies sociology European history and literary and cultural studies

Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey, 2018-08-14 In an era of rampant Islamophobia what do literary representations of Muslims and anti Muslim bigotry tell us about changing concepts of cultural difference In Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey analyzes how recent works of fiction have framed and responded to the rise of anti Muslim prejudice showing how their portrayals of Muslims both reflect and refute the ideological preoccupations of media and politicians in the post 9 11 West Islamophobia and the Novel discusses novels embodying a range of positions from the avowedly secular to the religious and from texts that appear to underwrite Western assumptions of cultural superiority to those that recognize and critique neoimperial impulses Morey offers nuanced readings of works by John Updike Ian McEwan Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali Mohsin Hamid John le Carr Khaled Hosseini Azar Nafisi and other writers emphasizing the demands of the literary marketplace for representations of Muslims He explores how depictions of Muslim experience have challenged liberal assumptions regarding the novel s potential for empathy and its ability to encompass a variety of voices Morey argues for a greater degree of critical self consciousness in our understanding of writing by and about Muslims in contrast to both exclusionary nationalism and the fetishization of difference Contemporary literature s capacity to unveil the conflicted nature of anti Muslim bigotry expands our range of resources to combat Islamophobia This in turn might contribute to Islamophobia s eventual dismantling
