MCRAE, 2016* The Battle of Long Tan Peter FitzSimons, 2022-10-26 From the bestselling author of Kokoda and Gallipoli comes the epic story of Australia's deadliest Vietnam War battle 4 31 pm Enemy on left flank Could be serious 5 01 pm Enemy penetrating both flanks and to north and south 5 02 Running short of ammo Require drop through trees It was the afternoon of 18 August 1966 hot humid with grey monsoonal skies D Company 6RAR were four kilometres east of their Nui Dat base on patrol in a rubber plantation not far from the abandoned village of Long Tan A day after their base had suffered a mortar strike they were looking for Viet Cong soldiers Then just when they were least expecting they found them Under withering fire some Diggers perished some were grievously wounded the rest fought on as they remained under sustained attack For hours these men fought for their lives against the enemy onslaught The skies opened and the rain fell as ferocious mortar and automatic fire pinned them down Snipers shot at close quarters from the trees that surrounded them The Aussie Kiwi and Yankee artillery batteries knew it was up to them but outnumbered and running out of ammunition they fired loaded fired as Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Army forces just kept coming And coming Their only hope was if Armoured Personnel Carriers APCs could reach them before they were wiped out The APCs did their best but low cloud and thunderstorms meant air support was stalled A daring helicopter resupply mission was suggested but who would want to fly that The odds against this small force were monumental By far the deadliest battle for Australian forces in Vietnam the Battle of Long Tan has a proud place in the annals of Australian military history and every ANZAC who fought there could hold his head high Peter FitzSimons Australia's greatest storyteller tells the real story of this classic battle He reveals the horror the bravery the wins and the losses that faced our soldiers He brings to life the personal stories of the men who fought the events leading up to that memorable battle and the long war that followed and the political decisions made in the halls of power that sealed their fates The Battle of Long Tan is an engrossing and powerful history that shows the costs of war never end

Charles Family's War Alan Fewster, 2015-08-05 Edwin Llewellyn Charles was a slim handsome youth but Terence John his brother was beautiful and he knew it Technically the boys were twins but their personalities could not have been more different So begins this sweeping true story of a fractured but close knit Australian family during World War II focusing on the service of the twins and life on the home front as experienced primarily by their elder sister and mother When hostilities are declared Terry joins the Australian Military Forces and is quickly promoted However as a militiaman he is banned from serving overseas Having watched Edwin join the glamorous RAAF and become a pilot Terry resigns his commission to follow his twin Forced to swallow the disappointment of failing to emulate Edwin by winning his wings Terry becomes a navigator in heavy bombers in the closing stages of the European war Readers are transported from the Charles family home in northern

NSW to Canberra Africa England Scotland the United States the Subcontinent and Ceylon between 1939 and the end of 1945 as the perspective shifts between the two protagonists Little known aspects of wartime experience are explored including the so called wet canteens debate the international negotiations over the release of interned Allied and Japanese diplomats and the life of the Raj on the north west frontier and in India and Ceylon The author s clever interweaving of primary documents with historical fact gives rare insights into the lives and relationships of the Charles family and creates an authentic snapshot of wartime Australia The Charles Family s War is a compassionate and multi layered examination of two intelligent and articulate young men who come of age in the cauldron of global conflict
