rooted in practice EAP has a key role in preparing students for academic challenges in English medium universities globally With the increasing need for proficiency in academic English there is a demand for a comprehensive resource that caters to instructors who are actively involved in or considering a career in the teaching of EAP This book addresses this need through five clear thematic sections the development of EAP practice and pedagogy creating effective EAP courses exploring linguistic issues language skills and EAP instruction issues in assessment of learning and practice in EAP and current perspectives in EAP The volume features contributions from experts with extensive EAP teaching experience research backgrounds and scholarly publications By drawing on their theoretical understanding and practical insights the book will equip ELT professionals with essential knowledge strategies and practical approaches to tailor their instruction to the unique needs of EAP learners It will also be of interest to teacher educators students and academics researching language teaching in English for Academic Purposes English for Specific Purposes and English Medium Instruction contexts One-on-One

Language Teaching and Learning T. Bleistein, M. Lewis, 2014-11-25 With only one learner it is possible for the teacher to give serious attention to principles of second language acquisition such as motivation error treatment and learner autonomy which are more difficult to address in classroom learning This book combines theory with practical suggestions making it invaluable for language tutors ENGLISH WRITING DEVELOPMENT LIXIA WEI, 2018-02-13 English Writing

Development 4MAT Learning Style and Thinking Visualization Strategies is designed as an introductory course in English writing for students teachers and all those who consider writing is important and fun It is based on the author's own experience of teaching English writing to undergraduates who major in English and training students to participate in provincial and national English writing contests Instead of showing the skeleton of writing to readers directly the author integrates the 4MAT Process Approach that she has developed on the basis of the 4MAT learning style and the Process Approach into the design of the book aiming to increase learners motivation by answering why they should learn what they should learn how they should apply what they have learnt and what if the situation changes in each chapter With corpora news and students work as resources to collect sample sentences paragraphs and essays the author elaborates eight main aspects which are writing process writing a paragraph writing an essay methods of paragraph development types of clause types of sentence rhetorical devices paraphrase and summary English Writing Development 4MAT Learning Style and Thinking Visualization Strategies is not only the ideal English writing textbook for students at different levels but also functions equally well as a self tutoring textbook The simple reader friendly explanations coupled with interesting and meaningful examples figures tables and the checklists are of great help for the learners to make progress on their own Armed with the strategies elaborated in the book learners most probably will find that WRITING IS FUN For Home, Country, and Race Stephen J. Heathorn, 2000-01-01 A demonstration of how a specific ideal of national heritage was consciously nurtured by England's elementary school system at the turn of the century Implicit within this ideal was an ideology that reinforced gender class and race distinctions      I, You, and the Word “God” Sarah Zhang, 2016-11-03 I You and the Word God introduces the approach of lyrical ethics inspired by Emmanuel Levinas's ethical phenomenological philosophy Through the optics of lyrical ethics the reader discovers how the ancient erotic poems of the Song of Songs bear ethical and theological significance for contemporary readers Levinas's intertwined concepts oneself qua sensibility otherness perceived through responsibility and transcendence embodied in one's love for the other reveal themselves as lyrical colors woven into the fabric of Song 4 1 7 5 2 8 and 8 6 More importantly Levinas's understanding that poetic language breaks the tautology of logocentric discourse and gestures to the outside of consciousness provides the theoretical ground for the listener to solicit meaningfulness from the Song Through this lyrical reading of the selected poetic units the book demonstrates that the traditional interpretive methods of representative description narrative paraphrase and thematic distillation fail to encounter the otherness of poetry In contrast lyrical ethics pays attention to that which transcends consciousness the awakening of the reader's subjectivity the saying underlying the said the sound of the sense and the invisibility of the visible The Song so caressed reveals in human love the purposelessly purposive encounter with God
