Look Left Look Right Look Left Again:

Being in Time Shimon Edelman, Tomer Fekete, Neta Zach, 2012-07-11 Given that a representational system's phenomenal experience must be intrinsic to it and must therefore arise from its own temporal dynamics consciousness is best understood indeed can only be understood as being in time Despite that it is still acceptable for theories of consciousness to be summarily exempted from addressing the temporality of phenomenal experience The chapters comprising this book represent a collective attempt on the part of their authors to redress this aberration The diverse treatments of phenomenal consciousness range in their methodology from philosophy through surveys and synthesis of behavioral and neuroscientific findings to computational analysis This collection's broad scope and integrative approach characterized by the view of the brain as a dynamical system that computes the mind's representation space will be of interest to researchers instructors and students in the cognitive sciences wishing to acquaint themselves with the current thinking in consciousness research Series B

Crosslinguistic Influence and Second Language Learning Kevin McManus,2021-11-01 Crosslinguistic Influence and Second Language Learning provides a comprehensive overview of what is currently known about prior language knowledge and experience in second language learning Three bodies of research are critically reviewed to achieve this goal i theories of language learning that attribute critical roles to prior experience in explaining second language development ii empirical studies of second language learning that have investigated roles for crosslinguistic influence and iii instructional studies that have supported second language learning by addressing the negative effects of crosslinguistic influence Using this foundation new research directions and theorization in the field of second language acquisition are proposed This book will serve as an excellent resource for students and scholars with interests in instructed second language learning applied linguistics cognitive psychology psycholinguistics and language education Why Don't We Defend Better? Robert Sloan,Richard Warner,2019-07-05 The wave of data breaches raises two pressing questions Why don t we defend our networks better And what practical incentives can we create to improve our defenses Why Don t We Defend Better Data Breaches Risk Management and Public Policy answers those questions It distinguishes three technical sources of data breaches corresponding to three types of vulnerabilities software human and network It discusses two risk management goals business and consumer The authors propose mandatory anonymous reporting of information as an essential step toward better defense as well as a general reporting requirement They also provide a systematic overview of data breach defense combining technological and public policy considerations Features Explains why data breach defense is currently often ineffective Shows how to respond to the increasing frequency of data breaches Combines the issues of technology business and risk management and legal liability Discusses the different issues faced by large versus small and medium sized businesses SMBs Provides a practical framework in which public policy issues about data breaches can be effectively addressed Walking Shoes!? A Soul Journey Michael Tracey,2002 All journeys are journeys of encounter with the Lord who walks with us in the cool of the evening Sometimes they are deadly silent other times they are full of travail But all times no matter what the occasion or circumstance they are journeys with rather than against journeys to rather than from journeys indwelling rather than dissipating Any journey demands both a challenge and a risk an act of faith in what is to come because of the assurance of what is past Yet the challenge and risk always leads to a homecoming And the journey home is always shorter and full of special memories because it embodies the reality of a happy ending A journey is an exercise in discovery discovery of latent talents opportune moments and the creative ability to fashion the tapestry of one s life under the guidance of the Master Weaver This book is a journal of life weaved from the fabric of people s lives Their hearts are stories of strength and weakness heroism and heartbreak yet woven together with hope It is a sacramentality of life love and living May your journey be the same but different Veronine Vestoff Académie de Danse Veronine Vestoff,1926

Involvement Dandeson Smith,2019-04-24 Charles Taylor s Involvement the Bitterness of War catalogues several specific acts of atrocities committed on the people of Sierra Leone during the ten year war in the country from 1991 to 2001 These narrations are meant to provide a lesson to countries around the world about the dangers of sliding into mayhem The insinuations given indicate the foolhardiness of engaging in high handed and ruthless acts without fear of repercussion The role of Charles Taylor in the war is highlighted mainly to point out the perception that he was largely made a scapegoat for the fact that he was incarcerated while upfront perpetrators were not punished The untold ripple effects of such a disastrous war on a country is unlimited and very negative and can last for decades ahead The obvious conclusion is that the idea of good governance should be upheld by governments if factions of society are to feel assimilated Political space shouldn t be in short supply for the rank and file in any country

For the Benefit of My Satisfaction Brikitta O. Hairston,2016-09-26 Nastasia Harold defies all the norms of an eighteen year old junior in high school She is the number one snare drummer in the state is the front runner for drum major and has the richest parents in the tristate area Everything seems perfect right But Nastasia holds a dark brooding secret that can only be satiated by two things alcohol and cocaine Isaac Dornier is a strikingly handsome twenty eight year old assistant band director that just landed his dream job at Riverside High School Expecting a normal job to eclipse his far from normal personal life he gets something else entirely Nastasia Harold To both their surprise they find a sort of solace within each other after discovering they both share the same terrible loss Nastasia tries to turn her life around but her darkness is too consuming to be eclipsed by even the only light in her life Isaac With inevitably crossing paths and hopeless attempts to dismiss the budding love they share neither of them see a way out They connect in a way that cannot be explained or forgotten They both grieve They both lost someone dear to them but they do not know that they will lose each other They both need to heal But neither of them has ever thought that to heal they will need each other

In a global consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic splendor and mental symphony developed by the written term usually fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives.
