The Man Who Tasted Words Dr. Guy Leschziner,2022-02-22

In The Man Who Tasted Words Guy Leschziner leads readers through the senses and how through them our brain understands or misunderstands the world around us Vision hearing taste smell and touch are what we rely on to perceive the reality of our world Our senses are the conduits that bring us the scent of a freshly brewed cup of coffee or the notes of a favorite song suddenly playing on the radio But are they really that reliable The Man Who Tasted Words shows that what we perceive to be absolute truths of the world around us is actually a complex internal reconstruction by our minds and nervous systems The translation into experiences with conscious meaning the pattern of light and dark on the retina that is transformed into the face of a loved one for instance is a process that is invisible undetected by ourselves and in most cases completely out of our control In The Man Who Tasted Words neurologist Guy Leschziner explores how our nervous systems define our worlds and how we can in fact be victims of falsehoods perpetrated by our own brains In his moving and lyrical chronicles of lives turned upside down by a disruption in one or more of their five senses he introduces readers to extraordinary individuals like one man who actually tasted words and shows us how sensory disruptions like that have played havoc not only with their view of the world but with their relationships as well The cases Leschziner shares in The Man Who Tasted Words are extreme but they are also human and teach us how our lives and what we perceive as reality are both ultimately defined by the complexities of our nervous systems

The Mirror Thief Martin Seay,2016-05-10 A New York Times NOTABLE BOOK OF THE YEAR An NPR BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A Publishers Weekly BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A globetrotting time bending wildly entertaining masterpiece hailed by the New York Times Book Review as Audaciously well written the book I was raving about to my friends before I'd even finished it Set in three different eras and in three different locations all coincidentally named Venice this startling beautiful gem of a book NPR calls to mind David Mitchell and Umberto Eco in its mix of entertainment and literary bravado The core story is set in sixteenth century Venice where on the island of Murano the famed makers of Venetian glass were perfecting one of the old world's most wondrous inventions the mirror An object of glittering yet fearful fascination was it reflecting simple reality or something more spiritually revealing the Venetian mirrors were state of the art technology subject to industrial espionage by desirous sultans and royals world wide Thus for the skilled craftsmen that made them any attempt to leave the island to steal the technology was a crime punishable by death One man however a world weary war hero with nothing to lose has a scheme he thinks will allow him to outwit the city's terrifying enforcers of the edict the ominous Council of Ten Meanwhile in two other Venices Venice Beach California circa 1958 and the Venice casino in Las Vegas circa today two other schemers launch similarly dangerous plans to get away with a secret All three stories weave together into a spell binding tour de force that is impossible to put down an old fashioned stay up all night novel that in the end returns the reader to a stunning conclusion in the original Venice and the bedazzled sense of having read a truly original and thrilling work of art The Spectator ,1862 Sartor Resartus Thomas Carlyle,1882
