Loopers A Caddies Twenty Year Golf Odyssey:

Loopers John Dunn, 2014-05-13 John Dunn never expected that his summer job as a caddie at the local course in Connecticut might turn into something more. The lifers who plied the loops were an ensemble of misfits and degenerates who made the caddie yard look more like a gambling hall than a country club. But Dunn came of age in those yards and on those courses and the magnetism of the game and the lifestyle proved irresistible. One adventure after another kept him coming back summer after summer until he found himself migrating with the seasons looping at some of the most exquisite and exclusive golf locations in the world. Dunn crisscrossed the country on his own big loop working inside the privet hedges while camping on the mountains following the back roads and stumbling across unexpected moments of profound natural beauty and embracing the freedom of what he calls the last vagabond existence in America all while trying to decide whether to quit the loop and get a real job. Maybe next season. Loopers John Dunn (Caddie), 2014

Lifelong Looper Cindy O'Krepki, 2005-10 Last of the Big Three Caddies John Downing, 2013-08-01 Jack Nicklaus Arnold Palmer and Gary Player are known as the Big Three. Their caddies were Angelo Argea Earnest Creamy Caroline and Alfred Rabbit. Dyer Rabbit is the last of the big three caddies to tell the tales. Take a look inside the ropes with Rabbit and hear his stories that span over fifty years on the PGA tour and twenty of them with the Black Knight. The Metairie Country Club in New Orleans is where Rabbit first caddied professionally for Ben Hogan at the age of ten. He went on to the Southern Swing across America to caddie and win with Tony Lema Dave Stockton Charlie Sifford and so many others who became golf's greatest. Rabbit took on apartheid in South Africa with Gary Player only to move on to that much talked about British Open win in 1974 where he was the first black to caddie at St Annes. Rabbit is truly one of Golf's legends and these are his stories. An American Caddie in St. Andrews Oliver Horovitz, 2013 A caddie since he was twelve and a golfer sporting a 1.8 handicap Ollie decides to spend his gap year pre Harvard in St Andrews a town with the U.K.'s highest number of pubs per capita and home to the Old Course golf's most famous eighteen holes where he enrolls in the St Andrews Links Trust caddie trainee program. Initially the notoriously brusque veteran caddies treat Ollie like a pest. But after a year of waking up at 4:30 A.M. every morning and looping two rounds a day Ollie earns their grudging respect. A charming coming of age memoir. The Green Road Home Michael Bamberger, 2006-02-22 Today Michael Bamberger is one of the top sportswriters in the world but twenty years ago at the tender age of twenty-four he reached the summit of another field professional golf. He set no course records made no monstrous putts and no television cameras followed him around. But the writer received a golf education most fans only dream about. He spent six months caddying on the PGA Tour. Part sports book part travel adventure. The Green Road Home is the book that launched Bamberger's career. For six months he carried the bags of some of the game's finest most promising and most colorful characters from legends such as Al Geiberger Mr 59 and George Archer to up and comers like Brad Faxon and Steve Elkington in tournaments ranging from the Byron Nelson Classic to the British Open to the PGA Championship.
