What has happened to our youth How did it all go south so fast Hardly any of them give up a seat to an elderly person or a pregnant woman and profanity against bus drivers teachers police officers and everyone else has become a rite of passage Drug use and violence no longer strike fear in their hearts Even worse they re entitled believing everything should be theirs even if they have not worked hard for it Meanwhile parents have given up on parenting preferring to turn over their children to the government or society to be reared Al Bruno Ph D a longtime educator and former chaplain highlights the epidemics that have ravaged our youth in Bricks without Straw He offers guidance on how to take back our children guide them and teach them about the Lord prepare children for the difficult life they will face as adults teach children right from wrong instill a love of learning in children With youth crime surging a waning work ethic and children hurling insults at each other at every opportunity the stakes could not be higher Whether you re an educator parent grandparent or community leader you ll grasp the problem and find solutions in this book New International Lesson Annual 2012-2013 Abingdon Press,2012-05

Brumble,2014 ABOUT THE BOOK God has spoken to me on numerous occasions in reference to the title of the book I even shared the concept with a visiting pastor perhaps making it a sermon but to no avail I had felt it had fallen on deaf ears But later I knew that was part of God s plan When the idea of ICHYF I Can Hear Your Face was conceived in my heart and spirit it became alive and burned within my soul and then it came my Heavenly Father spoke to me I choose you I am the one who inspired and planted the seed in your heart I am the one keeping this concept alive I nourished it continually Write it down my daughter I will give you the inspiration to write the words as coming from me Live through them my daughter make my words come alive It pleases me that you are willing to obey me Remember my words when I said that I know you have little strength you ve tried your best to keep my word and you have not denied my name These words will be my testimony of the truth I cannot deny my own name That which was first conceived in my spirit and my heart ICHYF really isn t anything new but it is speaking to a new audience perhaps because of a generational gap in coming from a solid Christian home All the trials heartaches much pain in my life God has worked out for good What he has and is doing in my life he will do for you Listen for God to whisper how much he loves you at the turn of every page All through the writing process I prayed for each one of you my readers that you will be truly be blessed by our Abba Father Devoting Ourselves to the Prayers Mark Stamm,2015-08-01 Dr Stamm integrates the biblical theological and pastoral insight fitting of a liturgical scholar pastor as he attempts to improve and deepen the church s congregational practice of intercessory prayer In Devoting Ourselves to the Prayers A Baptismal Theology for the Church s Intercessory Work Dr Stamm points to the strong biblical and historical connections between baptism and intercessory prayer suggesting that intercessory prayer is a vocation a calling rooted in our common baptism Imaginative informative and deeply committed to the idea that prayer is an essential practice of the church this book not only addresses what has become the church s neglect of intercessory prayer but the difference such praying makes Gregory of Nyssa: Homilies on the Our Father. An English Translation with Commentary and Supporting Studies ,2021-08-16 Gregory of Nyssa s Homilies on the Our Father are the second explanation of this central prayer of Christian worship in Greek Antiquity Composed at the end of the 4th century these five homilies offer a spiritual and pastoral commentary of the Pater Noster The present volume edited by Matthieu Cassin Paris H l ne Grelier Deneux Paris and Fran oise Vinel Strasbourg offers introductory materials a new English translation the first edition of the 15th century Latin translation by Athanasios Chalkeopoulos together with five studies that form a commentary for the different homilies and nineteen shorter contributions on various aspects of the text The contributors envisage the text according to exegesis and theology but also to philosophy rhetoric and history of Christian communities The Blessing Luis Falcon,2020-01-14 The Blessing Splendor of Our Father s Word is an inspirational daily read It is full of valuable life lessons on the important of humility forgiveness and fellowship with others It provides reminders to avoid the many vices and attitudes that can keep us from leading a fulfilling joyful life The collection of personal reflections can inspire happiness and peace in all readers and bring them closer to God Handel's Oratorio Solomon Georg Friedrich Händel,1851 The Qur'an in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Corrie Block,2013-10-08 Offering an analysis of Christian Muslim dialogue across four centuries this book highlights those voices of ecumenical tone which have more often used the Qur an for drawing the two faiths together rather than pushing them apart and amplifies the voice of the Qur an itself Finding that there is tremendous ecumenical ground between Christianity and Islam in the voices of their own scholars this book ranges from a period of declining ecumenism during the first three centuries of Islam to a period of resurging ecumenism during the most recent century until now Among the ecumenical voices in the Christian Muslim dialogue this book points out that the Qur an itself is possibly the strongest of those voices These findings are cause for and evidence of hope for the Christian Muslim relationship that although agreement may never be reached dialogue has led at times to very real mutual understanding and appreciation of the religious other Providing a tool for those pursuing understanding and mutual appreciation between the Islamic and Christian faiths this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Islam the Qur'an and the history of Christian Muslim relations
