Magic City Yusef Komunyakaa, 1992-10-09 An award winning poet evokes his childhood in Louisiana Southscapes Thadious M. Davis, 2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region Thieves of Paradise Yusef Komunyakaa, 1998-03-13 The collection centers on the disorienting experiences of the returning soldier experiences that reverberate through the Quatrains for Ishi a personal address to the sole survivor of an ancient race and The Glass Ark a conversation between male and female paleontologists working in the glass observation room at La Brea Tar Pits Neon Vernacular Yusef Komunyakaa, 1993-04-30 An award winning poet s testimony of the war in Vietnam The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959 the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry One of the country s oldest programs its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes National Book Awards and many other honors At a time when other programs are being phased out Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition Drawing from some 250 volumes editor Michael Collier documents the wide ranging impact of these works In his introduction he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose lyric style Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators no other program has had such a fundamental impact Works by the eighty six poets included her both document and celebrate that contribution Pleasure Dome Yusef Komunyakaa, 2004-09-20 Yusef Komunyakaa has become one of America s most compelling poets Pleasure Dome gathers over twenty five years of work including early
