Bridging the Interpretive Abyss Luis Menéndez-Antuña,2025-04-04 As readers and interpreters how might our understanding of the New Testament change if unlike historicism with its colonizing agenda and its focus on ancient contexts we took contemporary global crises including mass incarceration a pervasive culture of torture the HIV pandemic and the legacies of enslavement as our starting point for reading biblical texts Luis Men ndez Antu a demonstrates how a cultural studies approach that centers twenty first century queer existence and experiences of suffering illuminates rather than obscures ancient New Testament contexts Each chapter weaves together a biblical text different works of art and a political crisis This hermeneutical approach bridges the abyss between the past and present the Global North and the Global South biblical scholarship humanities and social sciences Readers coming to the New Testament text with political and ethical concerns will find new emancipatory strategies making this volume essential reading for scholars and students

Table Talk Mike Graves,2017-10-24 For nearly two thousand years followers of Jesus have gathered in churches to eat a meal called Communion in his memory In Table Talk Mike Graves claims if we could travel back to those earliest Christian gatherings we would realize we are not just two thousand years removed we are light years removed from how they ate when gathered because eating was why they gathered in the first place a kind of first century dinner party Four characteristics of their Communion practices would leap out at us traits that are scattered throughout the New Testament but that often go unnoticed how the meal was part of a full evening together promoting intimacy how it was a mostly inclusive affair everyone welcome at the table how it was typically festive more like a dinner party and how afterwards they enjoyed a lively conversation on a host of topics But Table Talk explores more than just Communion practices because a new way of doing church is happening around the world gatherings more horizontal than vertical For two thousand years Christians have oriented themselves toward God in the presence of others now a growing number of congregations part of the dinner church movement are orienting themselves toward each other in the presence of God This book tells their story and helps us rethink our own

New Testament Theology in Light of the Church's Mission Jon C. Laansma, Grant Osborne, Ray Van Neste, 2011-11-09 This book offers important new case studies in understanding the theology and praxis of mission in the New Testament and in reading the New Testament for mission Significant scholars from around the world explore aspects of the missional theology of the Gospels Acts Paul Hebrews and Revelation The essays are offered as a fitting tribute to I Howard Marshall one of the most outstanding evangelical New Testament scholars of his generation

The Lord's Supper Thomas R. Schreiner, Matthew R Crawford, 2011-01-01 An exploration of the Baptist view of the Lord's Supper contrasting it with Roman Catholic Lutheran Calvinist and Zwinglian perspectives

Jesus and the Gospels, Third Edition Craig L. Blomberg, 2022-11-15 In Jesus and the Gospels New Testament scholar Craig Blomberg immerses the reader in the historical and cultural world of Gospel narratives for them to better understand and appreciate their focal point Jesus of Nazareth

Jesus and the Gospels Craig L. Blomberg, 2009 This second edition of Jesus and the Gospels prepares readers for an intensive study of Matthew Mark Luke John and the events they narrate Craig Blomberg considers the historical context of the Gospels and sheds light on the confusing interpretations brought forth over the last two centuries The original 1997 book won a Gold Medallion Award from the Evangelical Christian Publishers Association and this updated version factoring in new scholarship debate critical methods and the ongoing quest of the historical Jesus ensures the work will remain a top tool for exploring the life of Christ through the first four books of the New Testament

Living Faith Stephen W. Need, 2020-03-16 Desperate for new ideas to inspire sermons Bible studies or private meditation Here's the book for you Living Faith Through the Church's Year offers fifty two lively reflections for group or individual use including resources for further study Part One leads you through the seasons of the church's year from Advent to Trinity Starting with the Big Bang you're taken to Bethlehem for Christmas and into the desert for Lent Christmas cribs Easter gardens and a large crucifix illustrate some of the most important Christian festivals Bible texts literature architecture poetry and music all help fill out the picture Part Two takes you into some crucial aspects of being a Christian Jesus's question to his disciples at Caesarea Philippi Who do you say that I am helps you think about some important Gospel stories such as the stilling of the storm and the Samaritan woman Key saints such as Francis Benedict and Dominic appear as do C S Lewis J S Bach Mother Teresa Simon and Garfunkel and Paddington Bear A sumptuous feast of exploration and insight Living Faith is an exciting and stimulating adventure in Christian life a must for anyone taking the journey of faith seriously You Can't Ask That! Christian Piatt, 2020-10-06 Have you ever had a burning question that seemed off limits or inappropriate to ask about Christianity the Bible or Jesus You Can't Ask That gathers 50 of the most provocative challenging or otherwise taboo questions that many of us have wondered about but few have actually asked Edited by Christian Piatt who once had a bible thrown at his head for asking too many questions during a Sunday school class this collection considers nothing off limits and takes the hard questions seriously Responses from theology professors pastors lay leaders and other progressive Christians range from the personal to the profound and from sarcastic to deeply touching By offering multiple perspectives to those banned questions readers can craft their own answers Better yet they'll understand that questioning faith is not taboo it's the foundation of a strong and growing faith The Church of Antioch and the Eucharistic Traditions (ca. 35-130 CE)

Amiel Drimbe, 2020-10-12 The author has chosen 1 to analyse the Eucharistic traditions of earliest Christianity and 2 to trace their use within the church of Antioch focusing on the following key texts 1 Cor 11 23 25 Matt 26 26 29 Did 9 1 10 6 and Ignatius Phil 4 1 Therefore connecting the four Eucharistic texts to the early church of Antioch constitutes the main objective of this study Introduction Evangelical Theology Michael F. Bird, 2013-10-29 Evangelical Theology is a systematic theology written from the perspective of a biblical scholar Michael F Bird contends that the center unity and boundary of the evangelical faith is the evangel gospel as opposed to things like justification by faith or inerrancy The evangel is the unifying thread in evangelical theology and the theological hermeneutic through which the various loci of theology need to be understood Using the gospel as a theological leitmotif an approach to Christian doctrine that begins with the gospel and sees each loci through the lens of the gospel this text presents an authentically evangelical theology as opposed to an ordinary systematic theology written by an evangelical theologian According to the author theology is the drama of gospelizing performing and living out the gospel in the theatre of Christian life The text features tables sidebars and questions for discussion The end of every part includes a What to Take Home section that gives students a run down on what they need to know And since reading theology can often be dry and cerebral the author applies his unique sense of humor in occasional Comic Belief sections so that students may enjoy their learning experience through some theological humor added for good measure Death by Church Mike Erre, 2009-01-01 Examining how materialism and consumerism have made their way into the church a teaching pastor and author of Jesus of Suburbia reveals how Christians can more effectively demonstrate Christ's presence and how the church can cooperate with Jesus in the world in which they live Original New Testament Theology and Ethics Ben Witherington III, 2016-03-21 In the second volume of his two volume comprehensive overview of the theological and ethical thought world of the New Testament Ben Witherington III focuses on the collective witness of New Testament writers the convergences and divergences of their theological and ethical thought Subversive Meals Streett R Alan, 2016-11-24 In Subversive Meals Alan Streett follows on from James C Scott's idea of a hidden transcript to argue that the Lord's Supper was a subversive non-violent act against the Roman Empire. Primarily through exegesis of the writings of Luke and Paul, Streett examines the political nature of the meal in the context of first-century Roman domination. In his widely researched argument, Streett illuminates for the reader why understanding the Lord's Supper as a purely symbolic act overlooks the political significance it would have had in the first century CE. Subversive Meals analyses how the structure of the Lord's Supper followed that of a Roman banquet by having a deipnon and a symposium, the latter being the time when anti-resistance discussions would take place. Streett examines several aspects of the history, context, and theological significance of the Lord's Supper. He discusses such topics as the identification of Passover as an anti-imperial meal against the Pharaoh's rule, the Roman domination system, the meal practices of Jesus, the eschatological meaning of the Last Supper, the practice of this anti-imperial work ethic in the early church, and the gift of prophecy as a symposium activity. By seeing the Lord's Supper as a political act, readers will be able to study Scriptural passages more closely and precisely.

Divine Agency and Divine Action, Volume III William J. Abraham, 2018 Volume 4 In the final of four volumes, the author seeks an account of God as agent. Systematic theology raises deep metaphysical questions about the central concepts we use in our thinking about God. Abraham illumines the concept of God as agent by attending to various traditional problems in Christian doctrine like the relation of freedom and grace, divine action in liberation theology, the presence of God in the Eucharist, divine providence, the relationship of Christianity and Islam, the relation of the natural science to theology and apparent design, and the realm of the demonic. Divine action is the point of departure for reflection on these topics.

Following Jesus in the Holy Land Stephen Need, 2019-09-01 Reflecting on the key locations of Jesus' life and ministry, this book invites Holy Land visitors and armchair pilgrims to reflect on Christian discipleship through Advent and Lent.

Dogmatic Ecclesiology : Volume 1 Tom Greggs, 2019-11-05 Ecclesiology is a key issue for the present age of church history. This groundbreaking work by one of today's leading theologians offers a major Protestant ecclesiology for the church catholic. This volume, the first of three, considers the priesthood of the church in light of the priesthood of Christ. Tom Greggs shows the connection between Christ's work as high priest and the universal church's role in salvation. All together, the three volumes will offer a major statement on the doctrine of the church for Christians from a variety of backgrounds.
