Making Friends Making Disciples Growing Your Church Through Authentic Relationships Living Church:

Making Friends, Making Disciples Lee B. Spitzer, 2010 This first volume in Judson Press's Living Church series addresses the topic of church growth and discipleship For centuries the Christian church has led the way in creating communities of people Pastor Lee Spitzer proposes that today's church can sustain that leadership role by developing a transformative paradigm for church growth not only in terms of the number of people who join but in regard to the maturity of disciples who participate in the life of the Body of Christ The key Spitzer asserts is learning to expand and enrich our circles of friendship in our home our congregation and our community Includes chapter studies on friendship in the Bible and in the life of Jesus The Impact of Church Consultancy Ian G. Duncum, 2019-01-14 This book follows the journey of ten churches who underwent church consultancies and explores in depth both the consultancy and its outcomes Pre consultancy and post consultancy snapshots four to five years apart of vitality indicators and attendance figures using National Church Life Survey and other data are used to compare these with churches that have not undertaken church consultancies Theologies of church consultancy church health and church growth are also developed and examined intersecting with a wide body of literature including contemporary ecclesiologies Consultancy outcomes are examined in detail This includes interviews with pastors of some of those churches reflecting on their perceptions of whether and how the church consultancy impacted the health and growth of their church Conclusions are drawn about the efficacy of church consultancy in influencing the health and growth of churches as well as contexts for the best use of church consultancy This is a significant book for denominational leaders theological lecturers pastors and church leaders as they encounter lack of health in churches and seek ways forward for greater health and impact in their local communities Learning to Lead Rev. Willard W. C. Ashley Sr., MDiv, DMin, DH, 2012-10-15 The first comprehensive resource for teaching spiritual leadership development in the twenty first century for all faith traditions America is changing Technology social networking global economics immigration migration and multiculturalism urge communities of faith to expand their vision of spiritual leadership and reflect on how leaders can better serve congregations and communities in the twenty first century In this multifaith cross cultural and comprehensive resource for both clergy and lay persons contributors who are experts in the field explore how to engage spiritual leaders and teach them how to bring healing faith justice and support to communities and congregations They offer tools advice practical methodologies and case studies on how stakeholders congregational leaders ordained religious leaders educators students and community leaders learn how to do theology in context and grow into faith leadership roles The Living Church, 1904 The Priority of Making Disciples Danny Clymer, 2020-08-18 Those in the church and ministry are familiar with the Great Commission the call to go forth and make disciples However for many it isn't that easy in a world increasingly influenced by doubters and distractions Many Christian leaders may talk about it but few really do it Making disciples isn't a complicated program but a simple plan that comes only from Jesus Now a diverse group of pastors representing urban and rural communities secular and Christian areas as well as diverse multicultural backgrounds and all known for successfully making new disciples have gathered these sermons to encourage others to be disciple makers too Discover How Jesus practiced the Great Commission before He ever preached it Why discipleship begins with a whole life understanding of worship When disciple making gets confused with church growth efforts These and countless other insights will help guide you in a faithful deliberate effort to fulfill the Great Commission no matter where you live or what communities in which you minister Included in the book are The sermon texts and their outline formats 12 study guides one for each sermon that can be used in small group or one on one settings in the week following the preaching of the sermon A final appendix providing a self evaluation tool that helps each person being discipled to evaluate the progress they are making in their walk with Christ

The Attractional Church Billy Hornsby, 2011-02-16 Every church leader and church member want their church to grow The promise of The Attraction Church is that if a church experience is positive the lost absent and unfilled will come and complacent people in the pew will have their faith renewed Author Billy Hornsby says that what keeps most churches from growing are the methods they choose for their outreach efforts The local church must ensure visitors and members alike a good and lasting impression of their experience in church especially the worship service You must get the first impression right Hornsby insists From the website Facebook page Twitter accounts leadership blogs and parking lot to the worship facility and worship service the total church experience must speak to people's emotions and be relational and relevant The Attraction Church is both motivational and practical with guidance on how to accomplish this transformation and also presents case studies of some of the fastest growing and most innovative churches in America Here is a fresh vision for what the church can be

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction

ministry of congregations is to make disciples of Jesus Christ Behind that simple and seemingly self evident statement lies a problematic reality however While congregations know that disciple making is at the heart of their identity they often have trouble understanding how to go about it Apart from such traditional Christian education ministries as Sunday school too little formal thinking or planning goes into the task of forming Christians in the faith In this book Sondra Matthaai casts a vision in which congregations open up their life of faith to others as an invitation to connect the universal longing for authentic relationships and deeper meaning with the church s practice of faithful discipleship As folks enter the church s communion of grace Matthaai challenges church leaders to utilize the gifts of every member and lays out a plan to help congregations grow in faith and communion with God and creation including the context and goal of such ministry deciding what to teach and who shall teach and attendant relationships structures and practices Making Disciples Ralph Moore,2012-12-21 The Great Commission is to make disciples Renowned church planter and pastor Ralph Moore shows leaders why a focus on making disciples is the essential next step once a church is planted This biblical practical handbook will guide churches of any size to focus their ministries around Jesus s command to his followers to make disciples of all nations Making Disciples offers a model of church ministry that sees every member as a minister and it will become an indispensable resource for equipping a new generation of disciple makers Real-Life Discipleship Training Manual Jim Putman,Bill Krause,Avery Willis,Brandon Guindon,2014-02-27 Over 100 000 sold Reform the way small groups make disciples This companion training manual to Real Life Discipleship provides unique guidance and insight to pastors church leaders and their disciples as they work to create an effective discipleship program With a thorough results oriented process that can be applied in other contexts and cultures this manual explains the necessary components of disciple making so that every church member can play a part in reaching others for Christ A great leader s resource it shows you how to cultivate new leaders for the future and equip them to make disciples This manual includes these teaching tools Activities and questions that teach an effective Christlike approach to discipleship Training on how to identify recruit and develop gifted leaders from within your church fellowship An explanation of the role of personal relationships in making disciples Part of following Jesus is reaching out to others and sharing what we believe Develop the heart of a disciple maker in the members of your small group and help them follow God s call to go and make disciples Living Church ,1908 Learning Change Jim Herrington,Trisha Taylor,2017-05-27 How congregations can change into missional fruitful learning communities Jim and Trisha understand that profound change roots in individuals before it transfuses systems Having observed the cycle in themselves as well as in others they shepherd us into the remissioning work of the Holy Spirit Thomas F Tumblin professor of leadership Asbury Theological Seminary In a groundbreaking seven year experience Jim Herrington and Trisha Taylor led a cluster of churches in a process of personal and congregational transformation that is producing hope and health Built on a sound understanding of learning organization theory adaptive leadership family systems theory and recent discoveries in the neurosciences Herrington and Taylor developed and refined a highly fruitful model of church renewal This model begins with personal renewal in which congregations learn how to become learning communities and ends with church wide transformation Learning Change is the pastor and congregational leaders field guide to leading change Each chapter provides training and information an aspect of the learning change model stories of real life experiences in churches and questions and suggestions for taking this information into a congregational context

Church Together Daniel C. Dickard, 2022-01-13 Church Together is a Christian leadership book designed to give pastors church leaders and church members a working plan to overcome the greatest underlying threat to the church today individualism through five relationships of surrender which correlate to the five core values of the Church of We Part One examines the three rotten fruits of individualism within the Church of Me consumerism pragmatism and the extremes of legalism and liberalism and how to spot each of these problems Part Two offers a solution on what it will take for churches to make a healthy transition from the Church of Me to the Church of We Church Together for this reason gives churches a manageable plan to defy the individualistic spirit of the age as they become the Church of We in the Age of Me
